MAYOR AND ENGINEERS DENY 'MISCONDUCT'

The Editor's column

By STUART R. PADDOCK

We accept and approve any drive to curb indecent literature.

The operation of such a drive, however, can be controversial when its arm reaches into schools and public libraries.

When the chairman for the northwest area reported that many persons were taking exception to the drive, we did not know the extent of disagreement among high school students.

A high school junior told us: "I think such censorship is basically right, but whe ndecency drives reach into our school and public library, it is going too far!

"The facts of life are now told the 3 and 4-year-old child. Surely the high school student does not need to be shielded from knowledge of what is happening as revealed by recognized good novels, many of which are on the list submitted to us for book reviews, but which are now on the 'banned' list of the crusaders.

"The published news of death and accidents due to drinking and high speed cars, appearing in the metropolitan press, does not influence others to go and do likewise."

This attitude is best summed up by Dick Dunkel, member of Paddock Publications staff who edits the Wheeling Herald edition. Here is what he wrote about the controversy:

"Peewee terrorism is afoot.

"In the name of the 'Decency Crusade,' works of writers Erskin Caldwell and John Steinbeck are being pressured off area newsstands.

"The 'Decency Crusade,' is being directed by a motherly group anxious to remove what it considers 'indecent' journalism from display racks to which youngsters have access.

"Certainly there is an over-abundance of trash written solely to exploit and excite morbid curiosities and bring cash profits to the publishers.

"But to allow anyone to control the reading habits of the public invites control of the editorial page and free press.

"And that the ladies should sweep up Caldwell and Steinbeck in their moralistic rush indicates that the leaders behind the 'Decency Crusade' are unable to distinguish legitimate literature and sensationalist trash.

"This blackballing of recognized artists, if allowed to flourish gives one group a license to dictate what books will be allowed on the shelves of public and school libraries.

"It wasn't too long ago that a local resident tried to oust the works of Edgar Allen Poe from Wheeling school.

"When the ladies removed Caldwell and Steinbeck, they banned serious accounts of actual living conditions in portions of America's south and west that offer food for thought and understanding to readers seeking a realistic, and therefore useful appraisal of life.

"Denying the existence of true situations morally opposed to local custom is the sort of narrow-mindedness that leads to the great feuds of our age.

"A truthfully and fully informed public is the greatest strength of any nation.

"We don't like smutty books and magazines. But we like even less being told what to read and what not to read."

A page of a notebook written April 15, 1855, over one hundred years ago, reports a profit of $81.22 derived from an oxen team and only $70 profit from a team of horses. The writer credits the oxen with 100½ days labor at $1.25 a day, making $125.52.

Charged were 12 bushels of corn, $8.40; 6 months on pasture, $15; 3 months on hay, $10.50; 3 months on straw, $17.50; wear and tear on cart, $3; total expenses, $44.40.

There is this notation, "There is no doubt that oxen are far the most profitable. They will live on less grain than horses, they will do with clover, hay and fodder. After they are too old to work profitably, they are worth as much for beef as ever. Horses are a complete loss when worn out."

Why did we ever go to automobiles?

The other side of the ledger covers the expense in the use of horses who were given a credit of $211 for 121 days work. They were fed 105 bushels of oats at 40 cents a bushel, making $42; 47 bushels of corn at 70 cents, $32.90; 5 months pasture, $15; 2 months hay fee, $8; 3 months of cut straw, $5; shoeing $8; wear on wagon and harness, $10; decrease in value of horses, $20; profit on horses $70.

The above was written 100 years ago, but a Palatine physician who is not 100 years old, told us this week that the man who wrote the comparison of oxen and horses neglected to take into account that it takes 4 oxen to pull as much as 2 horses.

When we asked the physician, who is only 45 years old, how come he knows so much about oxen, he exhibited a paid-up membership in the Cook county farm bureau as proof he is a farmer and knows about those things.

Incidentally, he is rather proud of his farmer classification even if he does not have either oxen or horses to work on his land.

At last workmen are getting busy on the addition to the publishing plant of Paddock Publications.

We have our fingers crossed that it will be completed by September when over 60 tons of press will be ready for installation.

LONG SUFFERING COMMUTERS can take cheer from announcements of improved service from the Chicago North Western railway. Earlier in May the last steam engine was removed from suburban service, to be replaced by diesels. By July, Arlington Heights will have in operation 4 new automatic crossing gates jointly installed by the village, county and railway at a cost of $115,000.

New Railway Crossing Gates Will Be In Operation July 1: C&NW

New railroad crossing protection costing $115,000 will soon serve residents of Arlington Heights when 8 automatic crossing gates with flashing-light signals are installed by the Chicago and North Western Railway at the village's 4 main crossings.

Installation of the automatic, flashing-light signals and gates, now under way will be completed in approximately 4 weeks, according to headquarters of the railway at Chicago.

Barring unforeseen difficulties, the new gates will be in operation about July 1.

THE CROSSINGS, at State, Evergreen, Dunton and Vail have been protected manually by crossing watchmen in 2 towers, with each tower responsible for 2 crossings. Around-the-clock protection required 3 shifts of watchmen in each tower.

With watchmen on duty 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, a total of 9 men were required in the watchman force with manual control of the gates, according to the railway.

When the automatic gates are installed the force will be reduced to 1 watchman, to be assigned when required as a precaution against delays at the crossings while the gates are automatically lowered during switching operations at industries near the heart of town.

Supervisory controls will allow the watchman to raise and lower the gates when switching operations on the 3 main-line tracks would otherwise keep the automatic gates down, resulting in delay in traffic. The local switch run works at Arlington Heights in the afternoon.

THE NEW GATES will be similar to those now in use at neighboring Mount Prospect and Palatine, with sidewalk arms to protect pedestrian crossings at each point. Operation of the gates will be synchronized with the traffic lights on Northwest highway. An approaching train will set into motion a sequence of green on the 4 crossing streets to allow traffic to move off these streets as the gates lower. Once the gates are lowered, the highway's traffic light will change to green. The gates wil be set for a normal warning interval which allows a minimum of 25 seconds for the fastest train, according to the railway. This affords an extra measure of safety for the 3-track crossings.

According to the North Western's signal department engineers, the automatic gates furnish positive, foolproof crossing protection. Intricate control mechanisms make it virtually impossible for the gates to become a hazard through any mechanical or electrical failure. Any failure in the operating mechanism puts the gates in their most restrictive position at once. A control failure, for example, causes the gates to fall by gravity where they remain until the trouble is corrected.

TOTAL COST of approximately $115,000, which averages more than $28,000 per crossing, is being shared by the North Western, the county and the village. At a recent village board meeting, it was rvealed that the village contributed about $30,000.

North Western reported that work on the new gates was delayed by the fire which all but destroyed the Cumberland station depot between Mount Prospect and Des Plaines, April 5.

Workmen were using the depot building to wire instrument cases and many of the control relays and other materials for the Arlington Heights project were stored in the building. The road lost approximately $10,000 of such apparatus in the fire, and some was difficult to replace.

Luckily, signalmen working there had removed 6 completed control cases from the Cumberland depot during the morning of the day the depot structure was gutted by fire.

The 2 elevated crossing watchmen's shanties will be torn down after the new gates are installed and operating.

Familiar landmarks in the suburb for many years, watchmen in the towers or in ground-level shanties have clanged the approach of trains with bells and gates.

THE RAILROAD first operated through Arlington Heights in 1854 — when it was then called Dunton — and the single track extended only from Chicago to the Fox river. The tracks were laid by the Illinois & Wisconsin railroad the year before with a 6-ft. gauge between rails. Passengers and freight transferred to stage coaches and wagons for points beyond the Fox river.

The Illinois & Wisconsin fell into bad times within a year and in 1855 was merged with the Rock River Valley Railroad building south from Fond du Lac, Wisconsin, through Janesville. The combined roads took the name of the Chicago, St. Paul & Fond du Lac Railroad, changed the wide gauge to standard 4-ft. 8½- inch, and that road was in turn recognized as the Chicago and North Western Railway in 1859.

North Western now carries approximately 35,000 passengers on the Wisconsin division every weekday, with 74 north and south bound suburban trains and 8 through trains. All of the suburban trains, however, do not operate as far north as Arlington Heights.

Wheeling Tax Bills In Mails This Week

William Annen, Wheeling tax collector, expects to have all tax bills in the mails this week. While many of the rates are not much different than last year, the total is higher.

The tax rate memo, included with the tax bills show that there are 28 separate taxing bodies collecting taxes in Wheeling township. There are 7 distinct and separate rural fire districts and 4 park districts. There are 8 school districts, all entitled to a slice of the tax pie.

The village of Wheeling has the lowest municipal tax, .334; Mt. Prospect .458 and Arlington Heights .568.

Comparison of tax rates does not mean very much because the assessed valuations of individual districts establish the rates.

Baby Succumbs To Rare Type Of Pneumonia

A 17-month-old Arlington Heights infant succumbed to a rare type of pneumonia Friday at St. Joseph hospital, Elgin.

The infant was Roger Allen Meyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth L. Meyer, 817 S. Chestnut.

DR. ROYAL F. FITCH of Arlington Heights, said that the baby died of hypostatic pneumonia, a comparatively rare type of pneumonia. He said that the child had been ill for a considerable period.

The Arlington fire department hurried to the Meyer home at 9:30 a.m. Friday and administered oxygen after they found the infant had difficulty breathing.

LATER HE WAS taken in an ambulance to the hospital, with Fireman Tom Gillen giving oxygen on the way. The baby died that evening.

Funeral services were held at Black's Monday. (Details on obituary page.)

Wreck On U.S. 14

A Chicago man was seriously injured late Monday night when his car failed to make a curve along U.S. 14 and left the road and overturned. Injured in the accident near Baldwin rd. was Harold E. Colburn, 62, of 4736 Malden st., Chicago.

He was taken to Resurrection hospital. He was alone in the car.

Ordinance May Provide Better Garbage Service

Garbage service will be cheaper and more efficient for Arlington Heights residents if a new village ordinance works out in practice as it is planned on peper.

The bill, given final approval May 1, was a year and a half in the legislative hopper.

SOON BIDDERS will submit prices for the new service, under which the village is in effect acting as a bargain agent for the individual home owner. Bids must be in by June 19, after which a contract will be awarded.

As under the present arrangement, each person using the service will continue to pay the bills to the disposal firm. But the price will be set for all by the village and standards of service will be written into the contract.

In the past the charge for twice-a-week curb service has been $1.75 a month and $2.50 for back door service but various charges have been levied for rubbish pickup.

NEW RULES will still allow a choice of curb or back door service. The new pickup service calls for the removal of up to 40 gallons of garbage (in 1 to 4 cans) twice weekly and rubbish to the amount of 50 pounds or a pile to be 1 foot, 6 inches by 4 feet in dimension. The contract will be for 2 years.

Settle Lot Dispute, Clear Way For Off Street Parking

The way appeared clear this week for Arlington Heights first municipal off-street parking lot with announcement of final settlement on negotiations to purchase 6 lots on Dunton and Vail sts.

Cost of the properties is around $108,000.

The announcement came after 18 months of negotiations between village officials and owners.

A purchase price was agreed upon Thursday and all that remains is final approval of the contract by Judge Donald S. McKinley of Superior court and signing of the contract. Judge McKinley was slated to hear the condemnation suit against the property. Final settlement was reached out of court, however.

Highest prices went to the owners of 3 lots, all containing homes, on S. Dunton. Although these owners had first asked from $750 to $857 a front foot for their property, all reportedly agreed to a price of $640 a front foot, with the village to assume $300 to $400 debts per lot on special assessments for street widening.

Dunton properties total 99 feet of frontage and will cost the village an estimated $64,400. The village had first offered each owner approximately $570 a front foot.

A lawyer for one of the parties said that prices on the Dunton st. lots was roughly equal to a price paid on an adjacent lot sold in 1954.

FOR THE Vail st. properties, the village will hand out $43,750. To owners of 2 vacant 33-foot lots, the village will pay $375 a front foot and to the owner of another 33-foot lot, containing a house in good repair, will go $19,000, or $575 a front foot. Vail st. owners of vacant lots reduced their prices from $450 a foot and for the house and lot the owner had wanted $23,000.

Cost of grading and paving the lot, which will accommodate about 80 autos is figured at $25,000 in the village budget approved last week. With acquisition and improvement costs added, the lots will represent an expenditure of $133,000.

So the village will lay out approximately $1,600 per parking space on behalf of convenient parking.

Negotiators were Village attorney Hugo Thal and owners' attorneys Frank E. O'Reilly and Frank M. Opeka.

Builder Airs Charges At Tense County Hearing On Zone Appeal

Accusations of unethical conduct on the part of 2 engineering firms brought to a stalemate a county zoning hearing Thursday involving the village of Arlington Heights and Wilson school district.

The charges were made at a hearing before the county zoning board of appeals which was asked to rezone for a 576-home subdivision 200 acres bordering Arlington Heights on the north.

The rezoning from farmland to residential use is being opposed by Wilson school district and the village.

Mayor Albert Goedke of Arlington Heights was charged at the hearing with attempting to influence a subdivider to employ a certain firm of engineering consultants to draw up subdivision plans. (The mayor's reply to the charge is in an adjoining column.)

Mention of Major Goedke was made during the argument between the forces of the village and school district and those of the petitioner (Trendel, Lowe & Associates, builders) on the issue of whether the testimony of the 2 engineering firms should be stricken from the record.

Both firms were accused of breaches of the code of ethics of the engineering profession.

SPECIFICALLY, Mayor Goedke was charged with attempting to "persuade" Trendel, Lowe & Associates to hire Consoer, Townsend & Associates, consulting engineers, for engineering planning.

Eldon L. Trendel, a partner in Trendel, Lowe & Associates, testified that at a meeting of the Arlington Heights plan commission in November, 1955, his firm was informed "that we wouldn't get anywhere unless we hired Consoer Townsend." (At that time Trendel, Lowe was seeking annexation of this same 200 acre tract to the village.)

TRENDEL wouldn't tell which village official made the statement until Walter T. Popjoy, county zoning board member, said that the comment would be stricken from the record if he didn't.

"It was the village president—Mayor Goedke," said Trendel.

Trendel admitted that he had not heard the mayor say this, but claimed it had been said to his partner, William E. Lowe.

The claim against the mayor came near the end of the 3-hour hearing at 130 N. Wells, Chicago, and was anti-climatic after the airing of the "unethical conduct" charges brought first against Consoer Townsend and later against Desoto B. McCabe & Associates. Popjoy termed these charges "unprecedented."

BACKGROUND of the wrangle over engineering ethics is this: A Consoer Townsend engineer, William J. Cadigan, gave testimony at the Thursday hearing and a previous hearing April 5 in support of the stand taken by the village and the school district. (Consoer Townsend is engaged as consulting engineer by the village.) Desoto B. McCabe Sr., of the firm bearing his name, and his son, have testified on Trendel's behalf, their firm having drawn up plans for the proposed Lyndwood subdivision.

The hearing had dragged on for 2 hours and Cadigan had just begun to speak for the village and Wilson school when the ethics issue erupted. It raged for an hour.

When Cadigan revealed that his firm had done work on plans for Lyndwood, Paul M. Smith, Trendel's attorney, burst out with a motion to have Cadigan's testimony stricken from the record. Smith said Cadigan breached the engineers' code of ethics by revealing information his firm had acquired through its "sacred" client relationship with Trendel.

"No man can serve 2 masters," thundered Smith.

Opposing attorney Frank M. Opeka challenged Smith "to pinpoint any of Cadigans' testimony that reflected work done for Trendel."

Smith at first refused to do this, going on to claim that Cadigan had "no right" to speak out against a former client by criticizing Trendel's proposed plans for Lyndwood. Smith soon howeve had Trendel testify that another Consoer engineer, Carl A. Bowen, had publicly disclosed results of a study for Trendel at a Plan commission meeting (also in November, 1955).

AT THE SAME time the 2 attorneys were arguing over Smith's motion, with the engineers pitching in frequently, they were also exchanging shots on another "unethical behavior" motion made by Opeka. This motion was to strike the testimony of the 2 McCabe's from the record.

It was "unprofessional" for McCabe to seek and get a contract with Trendel Lowe when Consoer already had such a contract, declared Opeka. Whereupor McCabe, Sr. replied that his contract predated Consoer's. (This amounted to each side accusing the other of stealing a client.)

At that Opeka read into the record a letter dated August 29, 1955, from Trendel to Consoer in which the Trendel firm wrote that it no longer had a connection with McCabe.

By then the points each side was trying to make had become lost in the bickering. It was not exactly clear what Smith was trying to establish by introducing the alleged statement of Mayor Goedke into the fracas.

POPJOY SAID there would have to be rulings on the motions to strike testimony before the hearing could resume. He said he was not a lawyer and would not make any ruling. The other 2 members of the zoning board were not present.

Popjoy advised both sides to submit briefs within 10 days. The zoning board will rule on the question and reset the date for resumption of the hearing.

Before the fuss over ethics started, Trendel's forces presented a mass of data purporting to show that the Lyndwood drainage which would flow downstream along Weller creek into the village sewer system would not burden the village. McCabe also stated that Arlington Heights has a duty to serve upstream areas within the natural watershed of Weller creek.

VILLAGE Atty. Hugo Thal countered this last point by denying that pumped water put into the creek from the subdivision is part of the natural waterfall.

"Hence it need not be accepted by the village," said Thal.

School officials anxious to show the effects of 575 new homes on the enrollment of their 6-room schoolhouse never had a chance to testify.

Goedke Refutes Charge

Mayor Albert Goedke Monday denied that he tried to persuade subdivider William E. Lowe to hire Consoer, Townsend & Associates, consulting engineers for the village, to draw up plans for a subdivision proposed for annexation.

(Full details of the charge made by Lowe's partner, Eldon L Trendel, are in the story in adjoining column.)

Mayor Goedke explained that he only advised Lowe at a plan commission meeting last November that the subdividers should have engineering plans for their sewer systems "checked over" by Consoer Townsend.

"I wanted Consoer Townsend, our village engineers, to check the plans to make sure that we wouldn't have any more flooded basements than we have now," said the mayor.

The mayor added that Consoer Townsend probably would not have charged for such a service.

Since the November meeting, Trendel Lowe has dropped its attempt to have its proposed 200 acre Lyndwood subdivision annexed to Arlington Heights. Trendel testified at a county zoning hearing April 5 that the strict land dedication and improvement requirements of the village would make the project "uneconomic."

Seek New Industrial District On Camp McDonald Road

Cook county Zoning Board of Appeals will hold a hearing at Arlington Heights village hall Thursday, June 7 at 7:45 to consider a rezoning petition asking that 45 acres now used for farming, be rezoned for light industry.

It is located on the north side of Camp McDonald road between Wolf rd. and Soo Line tracks.

The same evening a hearing will be held on a petition to rezone from farming to a B—1 (business) district, Lot 10 in Taylor's 2nd Arlington Heights acres, on the southeasterly corner of Rand and Buffalo Grove roads.

Voters Approve Wilson School Bond Issues

Wilson school district voters Saturday visited the polls in record numbers to cast their ballots in favor of proposals to raise taxes and build a $120,000 addition to the school.

The educational tax rate from .75 to .96 per $100 of valuation was approved 453 to 180, the addition 493 to 135 and the addition bonds, 485 to 145.

SCHOOL AUTHORITIES, highly gratified by the results, said that construction of the addition was expected to start within a month.

The portion of the district within Arlington Heights approved tax, school and bond measures by votes of 302 to 54, 326 to 30 and 321 to 36 respectively but outside the village the count was: tax increase, 151 yes, 126 no; school addition, 167 yes, 105 no, and bond issue, 164 yes, 109 no.

Grand Opening Lures Everyone—Literally

Everybody, including burglars, went to the grand opening at Westgate park and shop last weekend.

Owners of the new shopping center discovered Saturday morning that burglars had attempted to break into an office containing electrical equipment.

A wrench or pliers had been used in an attempt to break off a [illegible] lock.

Birthdays

Cheryl Smalley, 11-year-old daughter of the Harold W. Smalleys of 1008 N. Highland, will celebrate her birthday by giving a party Saturday at 2:30 p.m. at her home for 13 of her friends.

Mrs. Lora Boatcher was the guest of honor at a birthday celebration on Thursday, May 17, at 2 p.m., staged for her on her 87th birthday by her daughter, with whom she makes her home. Mrs. A. C. Jeffrey, 1311 W. Campbell ave. Thirteen members of the Golden Hour club from the Methodist church were guests as well as Mrs. Dorothy Hoeltz, Mrs. Anna Rosenhagen, Mrs. Arthur Nelson, and Mrs. William Armour and son, Richard. Other friends included were Mrs. Theodore Nichols and son, Michael, Mrs. William Chrobak, Mrs. Frank Shaw and Miss Leotta Hampton.

Returning Home

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leth, 503 S. Evergreen, are returning this evening from Philadelphia where they visited at the home of the latter's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Kahling.

Out-of-Town

Mr. and Mrs. Al Bahr and daughters, Susan and Linda, 2 S. Vail, will be in Homewood Saturday, June 16, to attend the wedding of Mr. Bahr's niece, Miss Roberta Willing.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Blackburn, 1004 Watling, returned Sunday, May 20, from several days in Davenport, Iowa, visiting at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Blackburn and family. Earlier in the week they vacationed at East St. Louis where their son, 2nd Lt. James Blackburn, is stationed at Scott field.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor O. Bernthal, 1610 Brown st., will spend Sunday, June 10, in Appleton, Wis., attending the graduation exercises at Lawrence college, where their daughter, Joan, will receive her degree.

In Virginia

Mrs. H. G. Unger, 301 S. Dunton, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. George Weiland of Glenview, and her sister, Mrs. Arvida Lundgren of Chicago, returned Saturday from a week's vacation in Virginia, where they were guests at the home of Mrs. Unger's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Knaack, and children of Gordonsville.

To Europe

Miss Audrey Armstrong, 222 S. Dunton, Miss Loraine Meyer, 315 W. Hawthorne, Miss Priscilla Bif, N. Douglas, and Miss Mary Ann Herbat, 512 W. Campbell, are leaving Monday, June 5, from New York City aboard the Italian liner, Saturina, for a 2-months' tour of 10 foreign countries.

Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Davis, 408 N. Evergreen, are expecting as their guests the former's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Tramel and children, Patty, Bill, Cynthia Ann and Cathy of Kansas City, who will arrive early next week. While here they will attend the graduation of the Davis' daughter, Jan, from the Arlington township high school June 7. Also a guest at the Davis home is Jan's grandmother, Mrs. Cynthia Bolen of Prairie Village, Kans.

Party Celebrations

Mr. and Mrs. John Hillebrand, 817 N. Patton, were hosts Saturday evening at a theatre party held at the Harris in Chicago in celebration of their sixth wedding anniversary. The group saw the current stage play, "Bad Seed" starring Nancy Kelly. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. Ronald H. Stahl, Mr. and Mrs. Ross A. Meredith, Mr. and Mrs. Paul G. Michaels Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Johnson, all of Arlington Heights, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harding of Chicago.

Paul McNurlen, 14-year-old son of the R. L. McNurlens of 611 S. State rd., celebrated his birthday with a turkey dinner given for him by his parents on Saturday, May 19, at 6:30 p.m. Six friends present were Rickey Johnson, Bob Inman, Bill Lips, Bill Spomer, John Beckman and Bob Wolf.

Here and There

Richard Rademacher, son of the Wilbur A. Rademachers of 1105 Princeton, a freshman at Bradley university, Peoria, will arrive home Friday to begin his summer vacation.

Wayne Kirk, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Raymond Kirk of 102 S. State rd., returned to his home Saturday, May 19, from a week in Wesley Memorial hospital where he was under treatment foor bronchitis.

Willard M. Meyer, 1001 N. Dunton, a surgery patient in Resurrection hospital, returned to his home Friday, May 25.

Round 'n About Westgate

Westgate Community Association

"Come Meet Your Neighbor," the theme for the first social event of the association, is almost here. In a little over a week June 9 will be here and that is the important date of the street dance. The social committee is still hard at work planning for this dance and a good attendance would certainly be just reward for all their effort. A gay time is planned for all. Dancing, a dance contest and gifts are a few of the events scheduled for the evening. So line up sitter's early, if you need one, and plan to be there at 8:30 or 9 p.m. so as not to miss any of the fun.

The association has sent a letter to the village manager thanking him for the cooperation received with regard to race track traffic. With the Miner and Fremont st. entrances on Wilke and the Yale ave. entrance on Euclid barricaded from 4 to 7 p.m. he has been assured that the residents will use only the Campbell st. entrances. Once again residents are asked to obey the speed limit of 20 MPH in Westgate. Residents are also asked to tell their guests of the speed limit, in an effort to control any speeding.

Happy Birthday

A birthday luncheon was given Saturday, May 26, for Karol Graczyk, who will be 11 May 30. Guests who helped Karol celebrate were Mary Comeford, Lynn Cashin, Barbara McDonald, Kathy McDonald, Carol Shanley, Judith McIntosh, Kathy O'Connel and Linda Johnson. Karol is the daughter of Bert and Andy Graczyk, 1417 W. Fremont.

Get Together

Last Saturday evening 7 couples had a get-together in the home of Joan and Fred Miller, 505 Yale, as a sort of farewell for the William Sittigs, 515 Yale, who are leaving Westgate shortly. It was also to celebrate Fred Hauth's birthday, which is May 28. Couples attending were Milly and Jim Scott, Phyllis and Clarence Wrobel, Carol and Bill Franck, Arlene and Fred Hauth and Phyllis and Jim Fitzpatrick. A wiener roast climaxed an evening of fun. Fred's birthday present from his wife is something certainly to be mentioned and will long be remembered. Arlene gave him 5 yards of cement for his patio and the question is at hand as to who will enjoy it the most.

Marge and Frank Santelli, 409 Yale, had 2 tables of bridge last week, which is the Westgate round robin group.

Out of Town Guests

Dr. and Mrs. I. J. Thornby of Waseca, Minn. have been visiting Marge and Frank Santelli for the past week. Marge's folks have been impressed greatly in the change in Westgate during the past year. They remember the unpaved streets, mud and hills. It was a very pleasant surprise seeing Westgate as it is now.

Fishing Trip

The fish were biting much better this past weekend for Barney Callahan, 1510 Fremont. Barney spent the weekend with his father and brother in Iron River, Mich. and came home with 4 trout. The last trip Barney was on it was too cold for even the fish and only one trout was caught by Barney, so things are certainly picking up.

Folks you undoubtedly wonder as to the lack of news this week, but this reporter forgot that the paper goes to press one day earlier due to Memorial day, and all sleuths for Westgate report in on Monday. Next week's column should certainly be bulging with news.

PENNY FLAME SAYS: "Imitated, but Never Equalled... GAS ranges out-perform all others!"

GAS Ranges have burners that "think"!

NOW ... speedy, economical GAS once more opens a whole new world of easy cooking to you—with the amazing new top burner that "thinks"! All you do is dial the temperature you want ... instant flame cooks at that exact temperature—maintains it automatically, for minutes or hours. No more pot watching ... no burnt foods! This remarkable, watchful burner works wonders on fried chicken, pancakes, sauces, french fries ... anything that requires constant, precise temperature ... and, it makes any pot or pan completely automatic. And, remember, only GAS "thinking" burners give you perfectly modulated heat—because only GAS has such flexibility of control!

Works just like your automatic oven control!

The speed of the modern ELECTRIC ranges!

25% faster than 5 years ago—

today—nothing cooks faster!

New French-door Oven is one of the "new idea" features offered by Frigidaire. Bottom shelf rolls out automatically when French doors open.

Today we're surrounded with all manner of wonders from our great electrical engineering laboratories. Color TV, Radar, High Fidelity phonographs.

Yet perhaps one of the most useful advances has taken place right in the kitchen. New designs and new ideas have made today's electric ranges 25% faster than 5 years ago.

The new instant-heat surface units, for example, give you a jet-like surge of heat as soon as you turn one on. And newly perfected oven and broiler units give you the fastest preheating and broiling you've ever experienced.

If you are considering building or buying a home, or even remodeling your kitchen, see the new electric ranges. They come in a wide variety of decorator colors. And when you cook with an electric range your kitchen will be cleaner, cooler and more comfortable.

And, you'll find more of the exciting "new-idea" features in electric ranges than in any other kind. Learn how little it costs to own a new automatic electric range from dealers near you.

Big Saving—We Pay Part of Your Range Installation Cost!

Need new wiring to install your electric range? We share the cost with qualified home owners in 1, 2 and 3-family dwellings. This can cut your expense by about half.

And you get more than a money saving!

The modern wiring that goes with your installation helps improve your TV picture, brightens lights, makes everything electrical work better. You can also install a 240-volt electric dryer, water heater or air conditioner quickly and cheaply. The Share-the-Cost Plan is available on terms of up to 2 years.

Eastwood Events

This columr. is indebted to Dorothy Wingquist for her fine reporting of Eastwood news over the last month. Dorothy held the fort while this reporter traveled to California to pick up her spring fever early. Kind folks fed the goldfish, shepherded the mail and newspapers, cut the grass, watered the philodendron and in general did all those nice things that Eastwood guys and dolls always do. Mighty nice to be back.

It is generaliy conceded that the Eastwood bridge tournament heads the list of a fine year of Eastwood activities. It culminates Saturday night, June 2, in the second annual tournament party. Dinner will be served at 8 p.m. in the Legion hall. It is suggested that 7:30 p.m. be the time of arrival so as to facilitate seating arrangements. Last year's party was a humdinger and we are looking forward to a repeat.

New Resident

From Tenafly, N. J. to 202 N. Dryden are Mr. and Mrs. George R. Moore and sons, Dennis, 16, and Terry, 13. Mr. Moore is in the sales division of Papermate Pen Co.

Sympathy is extended to the William Grashorn family on the death of Gail's mother, Mrs. Rose D. Brookman of Chicago, May 22.

Lincoln laner Art Sailer retired from the U. S. Postal service last Friday after 33 years. His coworkers joined togeth to give him a pleasant send off and their congratulations.

Friends and neighbors of former Eastwood residents, Norm and Mrytle Griffin, will be interested to know that the Griffins expect to be moved into their new home located in Vista, Calif. about June 1.

Birthdays

The Alfred Aspengrens' twins, Mary Lou and Allen, were 11 May 21. They invited 6 young ladies and 6 young gentlemen and held a supper party from 4 to 7 p.m.

Michelle Behm, daughter of Ken and Eunice, 202 N. Lincoln lane, was 2 years old May 24. She was the honored guest at a family celebration held in Chicago last week.

A large family celebration was held in the home of Bill and Virginia Heitz last Sunday in honor of the 77th birthday of Mrs. Rose Heitz, Bill's mother. A large buffet supper was served to about 30 guests, including Mrs. Heitz's many grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren.

Return

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Gustafson, 211 N. Beverley, are home from a 16-day vacation to California. Via the California Zephyr to Richmond they visited Mrs. Gustafson's brother and family, the Don Ballards, to Hollywood to visit an aun., Mrs. Karena Kolarik, and on to Fresno, Yosemite and then back to Richmond. Home to Eastwood just in time to prevent the dandelions from taking out a lier on the lawn.

.. motoring trip for 18 days to Lake Norfork, Ark. was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Olmstead. They returned last Thursday to their home, 915 E. Euclid, and can relate of the beauty and fishing fun experienced in the Ozark mountains.

Eastwood couple Len and Eleanore Radosti were chosen for office of president of the Arlington Heights Square Dance club which meets at the Junior high school. Many other Eastwood couples enjoy the fun of this energetic group.

Memorial day guests at the Ed Neas home were Virginia's father, Fred W. Hedblom of Evanston, and her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Kraemer from Milwaukee.

Attends Convention

Mrs. George Glow, president of Arlington Heights Womans club, attended the General Federation of Women's clubs convention in Kansas City May 14 to 18. More than 1,000 delegates, representing a membership of 11 million women all over the world, were present at the convention. (A

Arlington Terrace News

The next Arlington Terrace Owners' association meeting will be held September 19 in the field house, at which time there will be the installation of the new officers: Everett Nelson, president; Raymond Herr, first vice president; Everett Klicker, second vice president; Audrey Wunderle, secretary; Ted Guttenberg, treasurer.

Roger Johnson, son of the Min Johnsons, 925 N. Douglas, who is with the navy and stationed at Great Lakes, spent his first 12-hour leave May 19 with his parents and visited friends. Roger brought a buddy, Thomas Cope of Ohio, home for the day.

Congratulations to Kenny Butcher, 921 N. Beverly, who was one of the 4 winners in Arlington Heights to receive 2 box seat tickets to a Cubs ball game for selling the most Little League stickers.

In a fly-up ceremony May 22 Judy Johns, 1017 N.. Douglas, Susan Wiegand, 909 N. Beverly, Judy Henry, 1009 N. Beverly, and Diane Page, 1006 N. Hiclory, became intermediate girl scouts. The girls are in troop 260, and their leader is Mrs. Robert Page, 1006 N. Hickory.

Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Harold Henry and son, Bob, 834 N. Hickory, were dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Matsen in Evanston.

The William Griffiths, 1010 N Beverly, returned to their home May 23 after a 4 day vacation at the Northern-Aire hotel, Three Lakes, Wis. Mr. Griffith is with the Travelers Insurance company in Chicago and was awarded this trip because of his outstanding life, accident and health insurance production in 1955.

Mr and Mrs. Martin Frischmann and daughter, Desiree, 824 N. Hickory spent last weekend with close relatives in Rossville, Ill.

Jan Carson, 905 N. Beverly, celebrated her ninth birthday May 19 with an afternoon party. Jan's guests were Janet Kuhlman, Miriam Shaw, Joan Bierma, Clarice Margulis, Ginger Johnson and Mary Kay Stewart.

The Mt. Prospect theatre was the scene of a birthday celebration May 19. Chuck Fillebrown, 901 N. Beverly, treated Jary Davis, Alice Bjorklund, Jimmie Carlson, Bobby Butcher and Bruce Weber to the show. Chuck was 7 years old that day.

Celebrating his seventh birthday May 20 was Bobby Butcher, 921 N. Beverly. An afternoon party was held in his honor and Bobby's guests were Chuck Fillebrown, Jimmie Carlson, Bruce Weber, Mike Main and Steve Kaminski. Also on hand to take part in the fun was Bobby's brother, Kenny.

May 24 Mr. and Mrs. William Griffith, 1010 N. Beverly, entertained at a birthday dinner to mark their daughter Libby's third birthday. Their guests were Libby's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Griffith, and great aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Callahan and their daughter, Patricia, of Arlington Heights, aunt, uncle and cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Griffith and Jeffrey of Palatine. Libby's brother, John, was also on hand for the party.

Moved

Best wishes go to Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Davis and their youngsters, Gary and Linda, who moved Saturday from 910 N. Hickory to Palatine.

Coroner's Jury Holds Driver, 36, In Fatal Crash

A coroner's jury Thursday bound over to the county grand jury on a verdict of reckless homicide a Carpentersville man involved in a fatal auto accident on Golf rd. west of rte 53.

KILLED in the Wednesday night accident was Mrs. Caroline Moeller, 52, of Elgin. Albert Prochaska, 36, of Meadowdale, Carpentersville, a stock room worker at a Des Plaines plant, was charged with homicide and drunken driving. He escaped with minor injuries. There was only 1 occupant in each car.

State police Sgt. Edward A. Marcoline testified at the inquest in Arlington Heights both cars were traveling west and that Prochaska was apparently attempting to pass Mrs. Moeller's car when his car struck hers in the rear. Mrs. Moeller's car was overturned and she was thrown out and crushed by her own vehicle.

Mrs. Moeller was dead on arrival at Resurrection hospital at 10:15 p.m. Wednesday.

FOLLOWING a drunkometer test, Prochaska was held overnight at the Arlington Heights police station on drunken driving and homicide counts. Later he was released on $1,500 bond.

Mrs. Moeller was returning from a visit with her daughter in Wilmette.

Child Guidance Group Invites Public to Hear Psychologist

Dr Harold Mosak, Chicago psychologist, has accepted an invitation by the Northwest Suburban unit of the Child Guidance centers to speak in Arlington Heights on June 3.

Because of the importance of his subject, "Democracy in the Home," and the wide interest expressed in this area in the child guidance group, the general public has been invited to attend the lecture.

The Sunday afternoon meeting has been called for 2 p.m. at Village Hall in Arlington Heights. No admission will be charged.

Dr. Mosak is well-known for his influence with children and many will recall his lecture on the problems of adolescence presented to the Junior high PTA this spring. A faculty member of Roosevelt college in Chicago, Dr. Mosak

Rev. Weeg To Be Guest Speaker For Our Saviour Victory Dinner

REV. A. HOWARD WEEG

The Rev. A. Howard Weeg, secretary for evangelism for the Illinois synod of the United Lutheran church, will be guest speaker for the victory dinner to be held by Our Saviour United Lutheran church next Sunday evening. The dinner is to be held in the cafeteria of the junior high school beginning at 7 o'clock, and will mark the completion of the current building fund drive which will result in the realization of a church building for the congregation.

Pastor Weeg returned to the Chicago area in April of 1955 to accept the call of the synod as secretary for evangelism, a post created early that year to establish a year-around program of evangelism in the congregations of the state. The new secretary had been serving as pastor of Glenwood Lutheran church in Toledo, Ohio, previous to which pastorate he had been pastor of Edgebrook Lutheran church in Chicago.

As a part of the dinner program, results of last Sunday's every-member visitation for building fund pledges will be disclosed. Upon the result of the fund drive depends the extent of the building program which the congregation will undertake.

Ben Carns, chairman, with Vern Heim and Theodore Meyer, heading the finance and architectural committees, have been in charge of the arrangements for the dinner. Cost of the dinner is to be defrayed by a voluntary offering, and every member of the congregation is urged to be present.

Pledges received by the visitors last Sunday afternoon will be dedicated by the Rev. John P. Petersen during the morning worship Sunday at 11 o'clock. Holy communion will also be administered at this service. (A

Wayside Officers To Be Installed At Annual Breakfast

Fourth annual communion breakfast of the Catholic Woman's club of Our Lady of the Wayside church, Arlington Heights, will be held in the parish hall Thursday, June 7, immediately following mass and corporate communion at 9:30 a.m.

Mrs. Russell E. Gilmore has accepted the nominating committee's bid to continue in the office of president for another year. At the breakfast she will be cited for her many accomplishments during the past year and then reinstated as president, along with the installation of Miss Dorothy Tekip as first vice president and Mrs. Emil Bellus as treasurer.

Mrs. Walter J. Schroeder Jr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Mann will continue as second vice president another year. Outgoing officers are Mrs. David A. Brown, first vice president and Mrs. Gale Lee Smith Jr., treasurer.

Following the installation of officers, a musical program, under the direction of Mrs Norbert J. Hruby, will be presented.

Tickets for the breakfast may be obtained from Mrs. Schroeder.

Village Trustee To Speak To Ridge-Park Community Association

Robert Bishop, Arlington Heights village trustee, will be guest speaker of the evening and will discuss the "Arlington Heights Water and Sewer Problems" at a meeting of the Ridge-Park Community association June 7. The meeting is the last of the season for the group and will be held in the VFW hall.

The group is the old Northwest Community association and is composed of residents of Arlington Ridge and Arlington Park.

Included on the agenda for the evening will be the final reading of the constitution and by-laws and reports from the committees. Under the direction of the social committee, a mixed bowling league is being organized for the fall season. All residents of the area interested in bowling, are invited to join. (A

Troop 21

April 20, troop 21 invested 24 girls at St. James school. The program consisted of the regular investiture ceremony, a short skit planned and presented by the girls, group dancing and singing. All mothers were present. Refreshments concluded the festivities. The girls planned and prepared their own menu, made place mats and nut cups for the tables. Mothers were served coffee and pie and the girls cupcakes and soft drinks.

Troop 24

Troop 24 had an enjoyable trip to the Morton Arboretum May 19. After their picnic lunch they took a nature hike through the tree gardens and on their way home they had an extra treat at a Dairy Queen. They left at 11 p.m. and returned home at 3:30 p.m. accompanied by their leaders Mrs. Yates, Mrs. Olson and Mrs. Crockett. Scribe is Jessie Hill.

Troop 296

Brownies of troop 296 held their "fly-up" ceremony at their meeting May 24. All mothers were present. Refreshments of punch and cookies was served. The following are the girls who passed their tenderfoot requirements and received their brownie wings and intermediate scout pins: Susan Bogus, Joan Graham, Sandy Johnson, Nancy Keith, Cathy Keller, Barbara Pettit, Penny Sedlak, Debbie Service and Susan Stahl. Troop leader is Mrs. Marion Johnson.

Troop 327

May 9 troop 327, accompanied by their leaders and several of the girls' mothers, viewed the collection of handmade dolls created and collected by Mrs. C. H. Mills.

May 26 troop 327 saw "Cinerama Holiday."

Troop 260 held its fly-up ceremony May 22 and the following girls received their girl scout pins and wings: Jill Anderson, Suzanne Anderson, Linda Baker, Ardes Beisler, Sue Bliss, Diane Fill, Linda Bammill, Mary Anne Glover, Elizabeth Gross, Yvonne Hartwig, Judy Henry, Judy Johns, Betty Mees, Susan Miller, Jo Ann Nuernberger, Diane Page, Barbarba Stahnke, Elizabeth Steingraber, Karla Stelling, Barbara White, Susan Wiegand and Marlene Geiger.

After the ceremony the troop entertained their mothers with a folk dance and presented them tea towels, which they had embroidered.

Refreshments were arranged by the troop committee and each girl served her mother and wore an apron she made out of green crepe paper with a gold tre-foil.

With The Blue Birds

Helping Pixies

Helping Pixies were very busy during their last meeting working on Father's day presents.

Blue Angels

After taking a "penny hike" the Blue Angels ended up in Mrs. Stoll's yard and enjoyed push up ice cream. The group also played dodge ball and then picked violets.

Bluebird Wings

The Bluebird Wings went for a hike and looked over the new South Park. The girls picked violet bouquets for their mothers and then enjoyed refreshments served by Diane Erickson.

Honeybears

Rehearsing a puppet show kept the Honeybears busy during their last meeting. The show will be presented at their next meeting, which will be a mother and teacher party. The party will be held in Faith Lutheran church. Hostess for the meeting was Darlene Kasl.

Friendly Bluebirds

Friendly bluebirds worked on gifts for their mothers and played a game of "Black Magic."

Cook Out

June 5 the Helping Pixies and Honeybears will have a cook-out at Deer Grove. (A

Village Planners Get Tough With Builders Over Schools

Arlington Heights plan commission served notice Monday night that it's getting tough on subdividers who refuse to make any provision for alleviating school problems created by their projects.

The commission turned down a plat sent for approval by builders of Hatlen Heights, a 320-home project in the unincorporated area between Mt. Prospect and Arlington.

The third and fourth sections containing 160 lots were up for approval.

REASON CITED for rejection was the lack of provision for dedication of land for school and other public purposes, a requirement of the Arlington subdivision code.

Hatlen is within 1½ miles of the village limits and therefore under the jurisdiction of the Plan commission.

A letter will be written to county officias, telling them of the step in an attempt to forestall acceptance of a subdivision by the county.

Mt. Prospect village officials have taken a similar attitude against present plans for Hatlen.

There is a growing effort, by get-rich-quicks, to devise methods of selling vitamins and other medicines in places that do not have a pharmacy license.

There are many laws, that we pharmacists gladly observe, which protect you. We had to attend a College of Pharmacy, where we were also taught how best to preserve the potency of any medicine. Judge carefully the claims of glib door-to-door salesmen, here today and gone tomorrow. Be Wise! Be Safe! Let our pharmacy license and reputation protect you.

to SLACKS that

FIT!

The immediate source of most ill-fitting slacks can be traced directly to the cutting table — for only at this stage can proper proportioning be achieved. These handsome slacks were tailored expressly for us by a manufacturer whose success was assured simply because he "gave some thought to slacks that fit!"

Continuous Non-Roll Waistband is cylindrical shaped to fit the body perfectly.

Seat and Crotch have proper proportions and better balance for the utmost comfort in action.

Extra Rear Darts assure perfect body conformation.

Increased Membership Makes Possible 5 Community Concerts Next Season

The ninth annual membership campaign of the Arlington Heights Community Concert association which ended March 12 found an increase in memberships over last year.

This increase makes it possible to schedule 5 concerts instead of the 4 that were given last season.

An artists selection committee met last Sunday following the conclusion of the drive to set up the concerts to be given during the season of 1956-1957. At the artists selection meeting, a great many factors are taken into consideration:

1. The necessity of having a varied type of program.
2. Programs that will be pleasing and entertaining to the membership.
3. The availability of artists — month, day, etc.
4. Cost: Can the association accomplish the above and still stay within the talent budget.

After 3 hours of deliberation, it was decided that with more money available for talent that 5 concerts could be given, maintaining the high quality that has been the rule during the past seasons. This is a concert association and only top quality artists are selected and the fact that 5 concerts are to be given instead of 4 is possible only because there are more members thereby making more money available for talent.

The 5 concerts to be given starting in October are:

1. The Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra with Thor Johnson conducting.
2. Lois Marshall, one of the very top sopranos of our day.
3. Herman Godes, a pianist whose reputation has been confirmed by 5 transcontinental North American tours.
4. Marina Svetlova and her Concert Group. This is an American favorite dance attraction which consists of Marina Svetlova, Prima Ballerina, a leading male dancer, a Spanish dancer, and a pianist.
5. The Chanticleers, a male quartette who for several years were a basic part of the Robert Shaw Chorale.

This series offers the membership variety, a full symphony orchestra, a dance group, a soprano, a pianist, and a male quartette, attractions that will be pleasing and entertaining to everyone.

An increase in memberships this season assures the continued interest in the concerts and the Community Concert Association.

Arlington Juniors End Year With Banquet

Arlington Heights Junior Womans club celebrated the successful completion of its 21st year of service to the community and state with a banquet May 24 at Mt. Prospect country club.

Guest of honor was Mrs. E. J. Heckel, newly-elected president of the Illinois Federation of Women's clubs, who spoke briefly to the group on her aims for the state organization for the next 2 years. Mrs Heckel installed the club's new officers: Mrs. M. A. Schroeder vice president; Mrs. William Townsend, corresponding secretary; Mrs. G. T. Beckley, treasurer and Mrs. Harold Busse and Mrs W. A. Shay, directors. These officers will serve for 2 years.

Each year the Arlington juniors give both time and money to various philanthropic projects. Points are earned by members for service. High point awards for this year were made at the banquet; Mrs. O. O. Akerlund won the award for the highest number of points earned by a members of the executive board and Mrs. H. A. Hermann the award for a club member. Mrs. Raymond Drechsel was given an award for her help as advisor from the Arlington Heights Woman's club.

The banquet was arranged by a committee headed by Mrs. W. A. Shay. Favors were presented to the guests and entertainment was in the form of a club prophecy written by Mrs. Charles F. Hamburg Jr. The Treble Clefs, club chorus, directed by Mrs. Hamburg, presented several songs. (AM

Forest View School

Graduation

Eighth grade graduation exercises will be held Friday, June 1, at 8 p.m. at Forest View school. Herbert Zilmer of 1002 Webster Lane, Des Plaines, will be speaker of the evening. His subject will be "Education For Today's World."

"Memories" by Sharon Luczak; class will by Pat Burditt; class prophecy by Joyce Tapper; coronet solo, Ronald Anderson; presentation of diplomas by W. H. Grismer Jr.; presentation of the class to Mr. Grismer by Mrs. Miller; processional and recessional will be played by Mrs. Sam Lawson. Selections by the choir composed of third, fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh graders choir will be under her direction.

Fifty seats will be reserved for the immediate families of the graduates. There will be a limited number of seats without tickets available to friends of graduates and the school. The program will start at 8 p.m. in the new center hall.

The graduating class of 1956 are Pat Burditt, Joyce Tapper, Sharon Luczak, Ronald Anderson and Kurt Molenkamp. The school colors are blue and gold.

Picnic

School picnic will be held Wednesday, June 6, at the same large shelter house 5 that the group had last year. It's south of Higgins rd. at the Busse forest preserve, formerly Elk Grove. All children, their parents and pre-school children are asked to go directly on to the forest preserve picnic area. Mothers or parents are asked to bring their children or make arrangements for some one else to bring them directly to the woods and supervise them during their stay there.

Picnic hours will be from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Each mother will bring a picnic lunch, consisting of hot dogs and buns or sandwiches for their own families, also paper plates, cups, napkins, silverware and dessert, also a dish for pot luck for everyone.

Children are asked not to bring their bikes. Bicycles are not to be permitted. Parents are urged to cooperate in this matter.

Welcome

A tea will be held in the school Friday, June 8, from 2:30 to 3:30 p.m. for mothers of children who will be entering school in September. Mothers and the children will have an opportunity to see the books and materials used and become familiar with the school. Physical and dental forms will be given out at this time. Mothers are asked to bring birth certificates also.

Mrs. James Burton attended a nurses reunion in her home town, Danville, Ill., last weekend.

First Communion

Bonnie Luczak made her first holy communion Sunday, May 27, at 8 o'clock mass in Our Lady of the Wayside church. Dinner was served at 6:30 p.m. and the following relations participated in this joyous occasion for Bonnie: Mr. and Mrs. William Malecke of Edgebrook; Mr. and Mrs. John Phol, Scarsdale; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Luczak, Libertyville, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Luczak and children of Chicago. Later in the evening cake and coffee were served. Bonnie received many gifts for which she extends her thanks to everyone.

WESTGATE PARK AND SHOP was officially opened Thursday, May 24, when Mayor Albert F. Goedke cut the tape of the parking lot. The opening was spectacular as scores of special prizes were given away and crowds of shoppers were attracted to the stores. With the overhanging canopy, it gave the appearance of an exhibition. "The greatest ever," say the developers. Above are Howard G. Krafsur and Herbert H. Heymann of the firm of Landau and Perlman, developers; Mayor Goedke; Leo Reuter, developer of Westgate homes and Sidney C. Finck, architect of the shopping center. —Staff Photo

Charlie Marshall, 1114 N. Race, celebrated his sixth birthday Saturday. Guests who enjoyed the movies shown and supper were Michal Henneman, Jimmy Dennis, Terry and Michael Reichert, Larry Larson, Bruce Williams, George Herbert, Bobby Gunnison, Scotty Poklen, Butch Mells, Dougie Kline, Robert and Ronald Dolejs and Charlie's sister, Jennifer, and brother, Jimmy.

Kathryn Plumer, 1243 N. Chicago, celebrated her sixth birthday Friday, May 25, with a "princess" party. All the birthday trimmings were in yellow and one of the popular games with the children was "crown the princess." Guests at Kathryn's party were her sister, Karen, Christine Meyer, Sharon Fisher, Paulette Berg, Kathy Kehe, Melody Kalous, Susan Nelli and Carole Schwake.

Another girl to celebrate her sixth birthday was Maureen Gorman, 1440 N. Race. Maureen's party was celebrated May 19 and guests were Kathy Hartig, Donna Murray, Gail Whipple, Phyllis Vick, Linda Fluhrer and Maureen's brothers, David and Paul, and sisters, Colleen and Eileen.

A belated birthday party was given by Mark Todd Larson, 1202 N. Race, who was 4 May 20 and celebrated his birthday last Saturday. Guests at the party were Robert, Ronald and Dawn Dolejs, Bill Jacobson, Bruce Williams and Mark's brother, Larry, and sister, Lorrie Lee. Helping Mark's mother with the party was his grandmother, Mrs. Stella Larson, who lives with the family. Mrs. Larson received a big welcome home from her grandchildren when she returned from Florida in April.

New Arrivals

George Wynn Wilmot was born May 25 in Resurrection hospital and weighed 9 pounds. George is the son of Marga and John Wilmot, 1240 Race, and has an older sister, Louise, who is 9, and a married sister, Mrs. Gail McCabe, who lives in Prairie View. While Marga was in the hospital her mother, Mrs. Adeline Wynn, who lives with the family, took care of Louise.

April Dee Kearney was born May 10 in McNeil Memorial hospital, Berwyn, and weighed 6 pounds 8½ ounces. She is the daughter of Jeannine and John Kearney, 1413 N. Wilke, and has an older sister, Junine Ann, 6½.

Kathryn Anne Batuk was born May 5 in Resurrection hospital and weighed 7 pounds 8½ ounces. She is the daughter of Jan and Claude Batuk, 1266 N. Chicago, and has a brother, Jimmy, who is one. While Jan was in the hospital her neighbor, Mrs. Tom Smith, 1610 Olive, took care of Jimmy. When Jan returned home her mother, Mrs. Fred Taylor of Detroit, and her grandmother, Mrs. Eugene Huntly of Niles, Mich., came to lend a hand with the 2 children.

Circus is Coming!

The circus is coming to Arlington Heights!

Tuesday, June 12, the local Kiwanis club will sponsor the annual appearance of the famed Hagen Bros. 3-ring circus at the show grounds on Foundry rd.

Featured will be the Bogarus troupe on the high aerial bars and Miss Patty Couls, America's youngest animal trainer. (AF Greens dinner dance scheduled for the Hartmann house in Wheeling. Dinner will be served at 8 o'clock this Saturday night.

Hospitalized

Resurrection hospital reports show continued improvement for Karl Goodman, who is confined there with spinal meningitis. Tests show that it is the non-contagious type. Eleanor says she cannot begin to express her gratitude to neighbors, who have helped in many ways since they heard of Karl's illness.

The end of this week will find Jean Marshall of Hickory st. home from Presbyterian hospital, Chicago. Jean's mother, Mrs. J. Jasinski, is staying here to help out with the family.

David Kirchenberg, the 6-year-old son of Ray and Jean, was welcomed home Sunday from Augustana hospital in Chicago.

Rev. McGill Baccalaureate Speaker

The Rev. William O. McGill, pastor of Community Presbyterian church of Wheeling, will address 307 Arlington high school graduates at baccalaureate services Sunday evening.

At the 47th baccalaureate service, Mr. McGill will speak on "Comic Strip Heroes." The service will begin at 8:15 p.m. at the school.

THE SCHOOL a cappella choir will sing and the Rev. S. Nelson Ringsmuth, pastor of Community church of Rolling Meadows will give the invocation and benediction.

Rev. McGill is a 1942 graduate of McCormick Theological seminary and has done postgraduate studies at Northwestern and Chicago universities. Prior to joining Community Presbyterian church, he was at a settlement house and later a south side parish in Chicago. He has been in Wheeling 7 years and has been active in civic affairs. For several years he has written a weekly column for Paddock Publications.

COMMENCEMENT will be Thursday evening, also at the high school. Edward Rogers, president of the senior class, will introduce 4 speakers chosen from among the senior class. They will be Ann Carson, Fred Steingraber, Lynn Heberling and Kay Whitelaw.

School board President George H. Sheppard will make the presentation of diplomas and the Rev. Paul L. Stumpf, First Presbyterian church of Arlington Heights will give the invocation. (B7

Family Picnic

First Presbyterian church Young Married Couples club, Arlington Heights, will hold a family picnic June 2 in Elk Grove. The picnic will begin at 3 p.m. and shelter 7 has been reserved for the group.

Hosts for the picnic will be the Bill Spilmans and the Harry Hebards. The Hebards should be phoned at CLearbrook 3-3050 for potluck suggestions. (A

News Of Prospect Meadows

Women's Auxiliary

The monthly meeting of the Prospect Meadows Home Owners' association was held May 24 in the Mt. Prospect village hall. This was the election meeting and the following are the new officers for the coming year: President, Kay Sepke; vice president, Mary Jane Norris; recording secretary, Carol Wilkins; corresponding secretary, Pat Riley; treasurer, Peggy Orlowski, and refreshment chairmen, Vi Toner and Dorothy Schons. Gert Derning volunteered to be chairman of the Meadows annual bake sale and another volunteer is needed to handle the fourth of July parade. Anyone interested in working on this project please get in touch with Kay Sepke.

Rita Durec has accepted the office of chairman of the block captains and the following have offered to act as block captains: Velma Sage and Pat Riley, Oriole lane; Kay Wilson, Bunting; Pat Wrath and Irma Ehlke, Bob-O-Link, and Carol Wilkins Bob-O-Link. Another captain for the 600 block of Bob-O-Link, one for Albion, one for Foundry and 2 for Larkdale are still needed. Kay Sepke or Rita Durec would be happy to hear from volunteers to complete the list of block captains.

After the business meeting members played games with prizes being won by Carol Wilkins, Pat Riley, Lynn Nye and Gert Derning. The meeting ended with a social get-together over coffee and cake. The last meeting of the Women's auxiliary for the fiscal year will be June 28.

Baseball School

In a game interrupted by rain, a team coached by Sam Abbinanti and John McGivney tied a team coached by Bob Blim and Howard Johnson, 4 to 4. The Abbinanti and McGivney team was made up of Dicky Moeller, Richard Johnson, Ray Roths, Mark Pelletier, Ken Johnson, D. Smith, Nick Abbinanti, Bob Wehrheim, Kenny Middleton and Sam Abbinanti. Blim and Johnson team members were Dean Valentine, Tommy Hemesath, Ballard, Bruce Blim, Danny Wills, Jay Chaiser, J. Smith, Bobby Webber, Richard Hehnen and Jim Gutzmer.

Tommy Hemesath got 2 hits in 3 times at bat and Ken Johnson, Nick and Sam Abbinanti got 1 hit a piece. Bob Webber and Bob Wehrheim pitched fine ball, each striking out 9 men. Art Sepke, the baseball school instructor says the boys are showing a lot of improvement and have a lot of talent. All boys between the ages of 8 and 12, wishing to participate in the school, are again invtied to come to the Prospect Meadows park Saturday mornings from 10 to 12.

High School Prom

The evening of May 25 was a big night for students of Arlington Heights high school who attended the annual prom held at the Medinah country club. Meadowites attending the affair were Larry Webber, Miles Nelson, John Brogini, Judy Weisenbach and Maryanne Doyle.

Birthday

May 21 a gay birthday celebration was held in the home of Ray and Joyce LeBrun to mark their daughter Judy's fourth birthday. Judy was hostess to the following guests at a birthday luncheon: Nancy Hoglund, Linda Kunz, Connie Stanke and Connie Orlowski. Later in the afternoon the mothers of the guests, Joyce Hoglund and daughter, Susie, Marie Stanke and son, Paul, Lil Kunz, Jean Kamps and son, Dennis, Irma Ehlke and daughter, Kristie, and Judy's brother, Ritchie, and sister, Gail, joined the group for birthday cake and ice cream.

Vacationing

Ed Kunz returned to work Monday after a 3-week vacation at home with his wife Lil and daughter, Linda. The Kunzes spent their vacation time visiting friends and relatives, bowling, attending theatres and working at home. Last Sunday they entertained Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Johnson and family, Mr. and Mrs. S. Liepelt and family and Elmer Leipelt with dinner in their home.

Range Officer

Major Henry J. Robotkay participated as chief range officer at small arms exercises at Camp Logan, Ill. last weekend. The major is a staff member of the 202nd anti-aircraft group at the Broadway armory in Chicago, which is commanded by Col. Herbert W. Carnwright of Oak Park. Its component organizations are scheduled to conduct summer training at camp Claybanks, Mich., in the near future. The training program includes the firing of 90 and 120 mm. guns.

To participate in the Armed Forces day program, May 19, Major Robotkay escorted his daughters, Renee and Rosanne, and Billy Cody and Mickey Brazeau to the River Grove anti aircraft site. Capt. Bartley Greenwood entertained the visitors with anti aircraft gun demonstrations, communication exhibits, movies and topped off an enjoyable afternoon for the youngsters by serving refreshments.

Guests for the weekend in the home of Gail and Millie Webber were Mr. and Mrs. Ken Lyons of Chicago.

Bert and Joyce Ruther and their children, Valerie and Chipper, enjoyed having Bert's mother, Mrs. Helen K. Ruther, as a weekend guest in their home. Saturday they were joined by John and Pat Wrath for an evening of tripoli.

Miss Anna Madsen of Oakland, Cal., a cousin of Vi Manda, spent last week in the Meadows visiting Irv and Vi. Last Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Chris Andersen of Richmond, Va. joined the Mandas and their house guest for dinner in their home. Irv and Vi enjoyed a quiet weekend at the Tabor Farm resort in Sodus, Mich.

George and Nancy Hehnen and their children, Tommy, Joanne, Ricky and Gary, spent the weekend in Memphis, Tenn. visiting George's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hehnen. Gary Hehnen has been ill with measles this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Les Lawrence, former Meadowites now living in their son in Chicago recently. Last California, have been visiting weekend they spent some time in the Meadows visiting former neighbors and friends. They bring greetings from the Paul Goodwins and the Thiels, who also formerly lived in the Meadows and now make their homes in California.

Mrs. Gustav Bolling, who has been a houseguest of her daughter, Ruth Bolling, and Janet Hollen, left Friday to return to her home in Phoenix. Mrs. Bolling was able to extend her stay as Mr. Bolling made a rapid recovery from his illness.

Vic Heurlin returned home Sunday after spending 10 days in the east. He enjoyed a weekend in New York and then went on to Boston to visit his father, Victor Heurlin, and Connie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Nelson. Connie Heurlin entered Passavant hospital Sunday, May 20, for observation, returning home Wednesday. During her absence friends, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Weidner of Bensenville stayed with Vic and Connie's daughters, Vicky and Merri.

Don and Dorothy Walsh and their children, Donna, Debby and Dale, spent the weekend in Racine, Wis., visiting Dorothy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Andersen.

Grandmothers Club

Janet Nye was hostess to members of the Grandmothers club May 22. Members present were Edna Vartanian, Catherine Couglin, Elizabeth Gutzmer, Frances Schulz, Helena Woodruff and Myrtle Stickrod. Besides playing canasta they added a birthday celebration to their meeting honoring Edna Vartanian with a gift and a birthday cake.

Dick and Elaine Tanney were hosts at a dinner in their home Saturday evening. Guests were Dick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Tanney of Wonder Lake, his sister and brother-in-law, Mr and Mrs. Harry Thompson of Des Plaines, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Guthaus of Wilmette.

Sunday Dick and Elaine spent the day at the home of Elaine's parents, Mr .and Mrs. Walter Loewecke in Chicago. Other guests present were Elaine's brothers and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Loewecke and their children, Sharon, Sandra and Randy and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Loewecke and children, Kathy, Debbie and Kenny.

Jim and Kay Wilson entertained Mr. and Mrs. George Wolf of Chicago with dinner in their home Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Wolf have just completed a 2-week vacation in Florida. Jim and George Wolf served together in the 10th mounted division during World War II.

Art and Kay Sepke and their children, Sandy, Dave and Sheryl, were joined at their home Sunday for a picnic supper by Lou and Diana Rosin and their children, Debbie, Bobby and Larry. Lou Rosin is the manager of the semi-pro Evanston ball club of which Art is a member.

Guests in the home of Dick and Virginia Jenkins for supper Saturday were Lt. and Mrs. John O'Brian and their son, James. Lt. O'Brian is on the Chicago police force.

Chuck and Edith Schroder were hosts at a dinner party in their home May 20. Their guests were Edith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Fredricksen, her aunt, Mrs. Dika Jensen, and aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. H. Osmundsen. Mrs. Dika Jensen is from Norway and is visiting in this country for 2 months, staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fredricksen.

May 27 the Schrodders entertained Chuck's niece and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. D. Palinski of Chicago, with a farewell dinner. Also present were Chuck's parents Mr. and Mrs. C. Schroeder. The dinner was in honor of the Palinskis who are leaving Chicago to make their home in California.

Wilson Community News

The school board of Wilson school is very gratified with the overwhelming response of this community and Virginia Terrace in voting for the addition to the school. In this area 281 persons voted. A brief breakdown is as follows: 151 votes for increased tax rate, 126 against; 164 votes cast for the bond issue, 109 against; 167 votes cast for the addition to the school, 105 against. Virginia Terrace breakdown in their column.

Mr. Parson extends an invitation to all to attend the graduation of the eighth grade pupils, which will take place in the Alringotn Heights high school at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Raymond Dietrich — CLearbrook 3-2793

Wedgewood Terrace

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Molitor attended the funeral of Mrs. Molitor's grandmother, Mrs. Barbara Brady, Wednesday morning. Mrs. Brady resided in Winnetka until her death. She was buried in Memorial Park cemetery.

Birthdays

This was a weekend of birthday celebrations in Wedgewood. Friday night Mrs. Louis Slyvestor celebrated hers by going to dinner and dancing in Chicago with several couples from the neighborhood. Other then the Slyvestors, there were the Clyde Houses, Art Cisewski's and Les Schneiders.

Another celebration was held at the William Tafts, but it was rather unusual, as it was a tomato planting party. Mrs. Taft's parents, the August Novaks, her grandmother, Mrs. Mary Bojan, and an uncle, Chester Bojan, all from Chicago, helped make it a success.

Now, to get back to the birthday parties. The Leo Beckers entertained with a bar-b-q in the yard Sunday. It was Mrs. Becker's brother-in-law, John Harris, of Mundelein and Mark Schankwitz's birthdays, the latter being from Chicago. Also present was the family of John Harris, his wife and children, Bonnie and Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schankwitz, Frank Schankwitz Jr. and Mrs. Elizabeth Becker.

Although Larry Cisewski will not be 9 years old until June 9, his family celebrated his birthday Sunday. Present from Chicago were Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Sparling, William Sparling and daughter, Gail, the Armand Sonderbergs and the George Sonderbergs. From Lincolnwood were the C. M. Redifers, John Baakes, and daughter, Arlene.

Women in the Wedgewood Terrace section did a fine job of collecting for the United Cerebral Palsy drive on May 22. They went out, in spite of the rain, and contacted the homes in the community and collected almost $47 for this cause. Mrs. Robert Schultz was chairman for Mt. Prospect and Wedgewood and appreciated the fine results from her co-workers.

Mrs. Adam Kwiecinski, Mrs. Henry Schwinn, Mrs. Howard Peterson, Mrs. Arthur Haapoja, Mrs. Tom Merritt and Mrs. Eugene Melvin were the workers in Wedgewood besides Mrs. Schultz.

New Delay In Water Relief For Parched Northwest Area

by TOM BRENNAN

Is an idea to bring Lake Michigan water to the northwest suburbs just a mirage, fated to dissolve when thirsty suburbanites gasp for water?

That question is being asked this week following reports that the plan, which would join towns from Park Ridge to Palatine to bring lake water, is meeting with a "cool reception" in Des Plaines and Park Ridge.

The report comes from Des Plaines Ald. Ray Tures, head of the city's water committee. His committee has discussed the feasibility report compiled by engineers Consoer, Townsend and Associates but hasn't voted on whether it likes the idea.

Two weeks ago his committee met with a group from Park Ridge to sound each other out.

Tures said that the objection of cost was raised by Park Ridge, which now gets Chicago water at a figure under that mentioned in the Consoer report. So Park Ridge wants the northwest suburbs to join with 3 DuPage county communities—Elmhurst, Villa Park and Lombard—to get the water at a lower cost. The DuPagers would have to run a trunk water main through Des Plaines anyway.

ACCORDING TO Tures, who spoke only for himself, Des Plaines probably wouldn't join unless its neighbor, Park Ridge, did so. The cost of the project might then be too great for Des Plaines, he indicated.

There are other factors which are causing Des Plaines to pause before jumping in:

1) Having appropriated $850,000 for improvements to its wells and water softening plant, some Des Plaines "powers" think the town's water problems may be licked for the present.

2) Could Des Plaines realize its huge investment if its treatment plant were sold to the proposed water commission?

3) Chicago reportedly is considering extending a main to nearby O'Hare field.

While Palatine, Arlington and Mt. Prospect, all having voted to set up the commission, wait impatiently, Des Plaines and Park Ridge are going into their study further. The 2 towns have asked the legal department of Consoer, Townsend to determine if the DuPage and northwest Cook projects can be merged. (B7

Elk Grove News

Elk Grove Men's association held their second meeting May 23 in the school auditorium.

Sixth, seventh and eighth grades had a barbecue at school May 29, during the afternoon. All students in these 3 grades shared the expenses, with the exception of those who had perfect attendance this year. Hamburgers, potato chips and pop were served. Entertainment of games and dancing followed. All had a wonderful time.

First and second grades of Elk Grove are taking a field trip to Brookfield zoo June 1. They will surely enjoy the trip.

Mrs. Anderson's pre-school class, which was started earlier in the spring, will have their closing exercises June 1 at 11 a.m.

Band Program

There will be a summer band program at Elk Grove school beginning the week of June 11, for those who want to begin instrumental work and for present band members who wish to advance during the vacation period. For further information contact the school or Mr. Case, the band leader.

The band concert will be held in the Elk Grove auditorium June 1 at 8 p.m.

Wishes for a happy future are extended to the eighth grade of 1955-56, who will graduate Wednesday, June 6.

School will be officially closed Friday, June 8.

All School Picnic

The all-school picnic sponsored by the Mothers club will be Sunday, June 10. It will be held in the extreme south portion of Elk Grove forest preserve.

Robert Fluger, formerly of Elk Grove, is graduating from Harvard high school. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Fluger of Harvard, Ill. and an uncle to John, Mary and David Wille.

Connie Lindsey, who takes dancing lessons with Miss Margie Schulze of Bensenville, will participate in a recital June 2 at 7:30 p.m. in the Elmhurst Junior high school. Connie does an acrobat number, "The Mexican Hat Dance" and also takes part in a ballet, "The Birth of the Blues." Tickets are on sale for the recital.

Birthdays

Noreen Dalton had a birthday May 26 and she was 11

May 27 Danny Folkman had his 10th birthday.

Also having birthdays were Chester Wojciechowski, May 29, and Arlene Nelson, May 30. Both were 9 years old.

Dale Jewel and Dennis Preuter have been out of school because OF SICKNESS.

The Mothers club card party was held May 25 and included a bridal fashion show with some of the older girls modeling the gowns. Other entertainment was planned and refreshments were served. Numerous awards were presented and in all it was a very nice evening.

Mrs. F J Kessler — LA 9-5182

Elk Grove Manor

Mrs. Tony Wagner and daughter, Gale, were both stricken with the 24-hour flu last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Suarez, formerly of Chicago, moved into their new home on Martha st. May 23.

Art Classes Resumed

Weekly art classes in the home of Mrs. Ed Ostrowski were resumed last Wednesday. For a new project, Mary Ostrowski, Marge Modder and Ruth Suarez started an afghan, which will be a contribution to their church bazaar to be held in the fall. Rosemary Wagner will assist in this work, but she was unable to attend the first meeting on account of illness. The other ladies will continue with their painting.

Attending the mother-daughter banquet in the Itasca Bethany church Tuesday were Mrs. Ted DePalma and her 3 young daughters, Sharon, Susan and Sandra, Mrs. Harry Zender, Mrs. Fred Ollmann, Mrs. Harold Ollmann and Mrs. Keith Beline.

House Guest

Mrs. Agnes Mogilicki, who was a guest in the Ray Johnson home the past month, recently returned to Chicago. She is Mrs. Johnson's sister.

Ray Johnson's sister, Mrs. James Minnick of Hinsdale, visited with the Johnson family over the weekend.

George Horbus went on a fishing trip with 3 other men last week. They spent several days at Eagle River, Wis.

Kenneth Nelson wore his right arm in a sling for a few days to speed recovery of an injury received while working at his job.

Mr. and Mrs. George Nelson entertained 6 for dinner last Tuesday evening. Guests were friends from Stevens Point, Wis. and Mundelein.

Late Resident Of Arlington Was 'Father' Of Scout Camp

The late William A. Miles of Arlington Heights was the man who most merited the title of "father of Camp Napowan," the Wisconsin summer camp of the Northwest Suburban council of the Boy Scouts of America.

Appropriately, the first gift to the fund to improve camping facilities and build a scouting headquarters for the council, has been given in his memory.

The gift was announced this week by his widow, Mrs. William A. Miles, of 1115 Mayfair, Arlington Heights.

ALTHOUGH the amount of the donation was undisclosed, it was described as "substantial" by Albert A. Rose, chairman of the campaign district for the Blackhawk district.

The contribution was the first in a 3-year drive seeking $220,000 to add to the permanent buildings at Camp Napowan, obtain a permanent overnight camp near the northwest suburbs and erect a headquarters building. Mrs. Miles' gift will go to provide furnishings for the conference room in the headquarters.

The late Mr. Miles began his nearly 30 years of work with boys as a scouting commissioner in the late 20's. In 1934 he became scoutmaster of Troop 7, sponsored by the Arlington Heights Lions club. He remained in that capacity until 1942.

NAMED TO the council executive board in 1934, he served with that group until his death in 1955. As chairman of the camping and activities committee, he had a leading part in the selection of the site for Camp Napowan and in negotiating for its purchase.

Mr. Miles was a council representative to the national scout council and attended a number of its meetings. In 1943 he was awarded the Silver Beaver award in recognition for his service to boyhood through scouting.

"His services were outstanding, particularly as a scoutmaster and in the establishment of Camp Napowan," remarked Rose.

First reports on the fund campaign in the Blackhawk district will be given at a meeting in the Arlington fieldhouse June 4. (B7

About Your Health

The voice is the most important characteristic in communicating with others, yet some persons are inclined to take the production of sounds for granted, only to wonder what happened when they are unable to speak. On the other hand, understanding the voice inspires a special care of the larynx, according to the educational committee of the Illinois state medical society.

The larynx, commonly called the voice box, is situated in the middle portion of the neck, below the tongue. When it is prominent, as is quite common in men, the larynx is referred to as the Adams Apple. The framework of the larynx consists of cartilages, which we feel on pressing the neck, muscles and ligaments. Within the framework are two vocal cords, which are band-like structures, these vocal cords open and close and account for sounds of various pitches.

AS AIR is expelled from the lungs, it passes between the vocal cords and makes them vibrate, and this rapidity is controlled by the length of the vocal cords, and their tension. This explains why the male voice is lower than the feminine voice. The male larynx is larger and the vocal cords are longer.

While the origin of the sound is in the larynx, its character and the words are produced by the coordination of other parts of the body. As a column of air strikes the vocal cords, vibrations are set up, but the resonance comes from the action within the chest, the throat, the mouth, nose and the nasal sinuses. The lips, palate, teeth and tongue interrupt the sounds, making them become syllables or words. The entire action is coordinated by nerve impulses sent down from the brain.

MANY CONDITIONS can affect the larynx, ranging from an overuse of the voice through constant speaking, fatigue, infections, sensitivity to certain fumes or inhalants, to cancer of the larynx. In all, hoarseness is the important single sympton. It may vary from a blurring of the voice to a hoarseness so severe that the patient can hardly be understood and may even be unable to talk. Some conditions that affect the larynx are present at birth, many develop in infancy and childhood, and many occur as we grow older. But hoarseness is the important sympton and accounts for the term being used interchangeably.

OBITUARIES

Hugo Hakanson

Funeral services for Hugo Hakanson, who worked in Deerfield as a gardener, were held at 2 p.m. May 29 from Zion Lutheran church with the Rev. Paul Berggren officiating. Interment was in Memorial Park. Mr. Hakanson was in state at the Lauterburg and Oehler chapel in Deerfield.

A resident of Glencoe, Mr. Hakanson died suddenly May 25. He was born September 7, 1895 in Sweden and leaves his wife, Nelly; 2 daughters, Mrs. Marion Swanson and Miss Lillian Hakanson; a brother, Axel Nilsson and 2 sisters, Anna and Stina Nilsson. He was a member of the Scandinavian fraternity of America.

Henry Stelling

Funeral services for Henry Stelling, a resident of Arlington Heights for 30 years, were held at 2 p.m. May 29 in St. John Evangelical church with the Rev. J. Gerhard Meiners officiating.

Mr. Stelling, a resident at 33 S. Mitchell, Arlington Heights, died in St. Joseph hospital, Elgin, May 26. He was born January 19, 1874 in Long Grove. His wife Bernadine preceded him in death in 1926 and a son, George in 1933. He leaves 2 daughters, Mrs. Frieda Bleile with whom he made his home, and Mrs. Esther Weidner and 7 grandchildren.

He was in state at the Lauterburg and Oehler chapel in Arlington Heights and burial was in St. John cemetery.

Jose Catano

Jose Catano of Palatine, died suddenly May 27; remains were shipped to Harlingen, Texas, for burial.

Mr. Catano was born March 27, 1906 in Mexico. He had been in the United Statees since 1920 and at the time of his death was employed as a laborer on the Vernon Deeke farm in Palatine. He leaves his wife, Faustina, 4 sons and 2 daughters.

Oehler chapel in Des Plaines was in charge of arrangements.

Roger A. Meyer

Funeral services for Roger A. Meyer, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Meyer 817 S. Chestnut, Arlington Heights, were held May 28, at 2 p.m. in Black's Memorial chapel, Arlington Heights. The Rev. Paul Stumpf officiated and interment was in Memory Garden cemetery.

Roger was born December 31, 1954 in Elgin and died May 25, 1956. Besides his parents, he leaves a sister, Patricia A. and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Kuschel and Ray Meyer.

Caroline Moeller

Mrs. Caroline Moeller of Elgin, a former Arlington Heights resident, was buried in Ridgewood cemetery after funeral services Saturday, May 26 in Black's Memorial home, Arlington Heights.

Mrs. Moeller died May 23 as the result of an auto accident at Higgins and Golf rds. that evening. She was born in Chicago July 10, 1903 and lived in Chicago following her marriage to Henry L. Moeller. She leaves 2 sons, Wilbert and Norman; a daughter, Mrs. Lois Fulhorst; 3 grandchildren; a brother, John Hamann and a sister, Mrs. Lillian Dryer.

Sheriff's Police Raid Arlington Store

Capt. Hawthorne and Lt. Bergwriter of the sheriff's police arrested Edwin Thompson and Frank Thompson, 9 E. Campbell st., Tuesday afternoon at Kindler's Confectionery store, Davis and Dunton, Arlington Heights. They were taking horse bets.

The county police confiscated scratch sheets, markers, betting slips, etc. The case comes up before Judge Sullivan June 6, at 3 p.m.

Jantzen Style Show

Four Jantzen swim suits were won by guests attending the Jantzen style show in Arlington Heights Monday evening. Two men's suits and 2 women's suits were given to the lucky winners.

The show, featuring Jantzen International and other fashions in swim wear and sport togs, was held in the Emerald shop, co-sponsored by Arlington Bootery and Men's Wear shop. High school girls modeling women's styles were Joy Vitoux, Judy Wiesenbach, Karen Baker and Trudy Summers. From high school and junior high men and boys' models were William and Jim Addy, Warren Wahl, Roger Kreft, Richard Cody and Wally Fricker.

Guests at the show were served refreshments, compliments of the Coca-Cola Co. (A

Learning Isn't Limited Anymore To The Classroom

Learning is not confined to the 4 walls of a classroom.

This fact is evident from a review of the more than 100 educational excursions scheduled each year in the Arlington Heights public elementary schools.

A specific example can be drawn from the 6-6 section of the junior high school who recently visited the Chicago Historical Society Museum.

The trip was planned as a direct extension of the classroom study of ancient Egyptian civilization.

Arrangements were made with the museum well in advance. As a result, the class profited from a special program of 2 colored films and a lecture on Egypt.

The museum personnel conducted a treasure-quiz hunt on the subject and the Hall of Egyptology was blocked off exclusively for the use of the visiting students. Also many exhibits on the subject were set aside for the children's use while htey were free to browse.

ACCORDING TO Fred Noble, teacher of the group, most of the excursions are planned in connection with the school's social studies program.

The trips are not intended as entertainment for the children, but as a part of the school's effort to take advantage of the many outstanding cultural and educational institutions in the Chicago area.

A FEW OF the other places on the excursion list include the Museum of Science and Industry, Natural History museum Planetarium, Chicago post office, Brookfield Zoo, Chicago Board of Trade, fire station, police station, village board meetings and court sessions, and the local library.

Parents are asked to give their permission before any child is taken from the school buildings on an excursion, and several parents usually accompany the teacher to assure adequate supervision. (A

Blame 'Public Apathy' For Flop Of Local Civil Defense

Public apathy toward the aims of civil defense is accountable for a weak civil defense organization in Arlington Heights, according to Mrs. Albert O. Peters, local CD diretcor.

She said this week, in summarzing progress over the past several years in setting up an organization, that a common feeling that "there is no defense against the bomb" is hampering her work.

"This despairing and apathetic public attitude is discouraging," added Mrs. Peters.

DESPITE THE fact the village appropriated $2,000 for civil defense in the fiscal year that ended April 30, not a penny of the money was spent.

Nor was anymoney spent in previous years.

Asked why the money was unused when apparently the village trustees thought it was needed, Mrs. Peters had this comment:

"Mr. Downey (Joseph Downey, Cook county civil defense director) told me not to spend too much money — that there was no use in getting people alarmed."

Mrs. Peters said no medical supplies have been stockpiled because that was done during World War II, and after the war the supplies were disposed of.

ON THE credit side of the ledger, Mrs. Peters listed these accomplishments:

—The public library has been designated as an emergency hospital.

—Members of the Arlington Nurses' club have received some disaster training.

—A list of doctors and nurses available at all times has been forwarded to the county civil defense organization.

—About 20 block wardens have been appointed.

—Students at Arlington high school have had some emergency training.

On the other side of the ledger, however, some of the shortcomings of the local setup are the failure to stockpile supplies of any kind, the virtual absence of any civil defense training in the grade schools and a weak overall organization (for example, there has not been a civil defense meeting in the last 6 months).

A ground observer post was to be organized, but apparently this plan has been called off. (AF

3 Arlington Boys Named To Paddock All-State Track Team

KICKIN' IT AROUND

by Bob Paddock

DAVE SCHIMMEL set the only new Arlington Heights record this spring, knocking a full half second off his own low hurdle mark to :19.5. Bill Palmer still only a junior, equaled his own mark of 6-2 in high jump, but wasn't able to better his mark of a year ago when he tied for state honors as a sophomore. Track season has now been completed with a glance at the school records revealing 2 marks set 20 years ago still stand.

Dave Schimmel

They are the 2:01.4 set by Norbert Rohlwing in the 880 in 1935, and the :52 quarter run by Vance Folkman in 1938.

Ironically, neither of these marks would have made the Paddock Publications prep honor roll this season. Both 440 and 880 marks were about 2 seconds short, though the 880 would have then at least made about 8th to 10th place over the state. Best mark in pole vault by Dick Michalski wouldn't have made it either, and the mile of John Sheppard in 4:41 would have been 6 seconds short of the honor roll.

On the "pro" side, Dick Winterbauer's marks in shot and discus were both better than anything in the state this year, with Gordie Busse's marks of :09.9 in the 100 very good and his :21.9 in the 220 good.

That 880 relay team of Gordie Busse, Emmet McDougall, Augie Krause and Bob Packard would have been up with the best this year. It's needless to say Palmer's high jump mark is outstanding. In case we've erred in any of these figures, we'd be happy to know it. Microfilm files back to 1900 enable us to check any man's mark within 2 minutes.

FOOTBALL GAMES attract large attendances, but their results may not be followed as closely as most people believe. At least, that possibility is highly suggested by the results of a special 40-question sports quiz given recently to more than 800 male freshmen and sophomores at Southern Illinois University. Of the 11 sports included on the exam, football questions were missed the most. Of the 13 true-false questions, the two most missed were on football.

Only 22.5 per cent of the 854 male freshmen and sophomores who took the test recognized Red Sanders as a losing football coach in one of the 1956 bowl games, while a coin could have yielded almost as many correct answers on a question concerning the winner of the Cotton Bowl game. (Forty-nine per cent picked the wrong team.)

The test shows "that many college students lack specific knowledge of the main national and international sports events." Of the 40 questions the average freshman answered only 16 correctly, while the average sophomore had only 18 correct answers. A similar test will become a part of the final exam grade for all Southern Illinois university males taking required physical education courses. This new system will begin with the final exams in June.

The most-missed questions concerned the recent professional boxing cleanup and the winner of the National Indoor Tennis championship.

WHEN THE CUBS traded Hank Sauer to the Cardinals, the hard-hitting outfielder lost his chance to become the twenty-eighth player in major league history to hit 200 home runs for one club. Hammering Hank had hit 198 circuit blows for the Bruins in a little less than seven seasons. Sauer's miss was not the closest in the history of the majors. Outfielder Wally Berger rapped 199 homers for the Braves.

The Phillies' club homer mark, 243 set by Chuck Klein, is likely to fall this season. Del Ennis needs only 11 to shatter the standard.

The all-time club record is held by Babe Ruth, who slammed 659 for the Yankees. Mel Ott of the Giants with 511 is in the No. 2 spot and Lou Gehrig of the Yanks is third with 493. Among the active players, Ted Williams of the Red Sox is tops with 394, which also is good for fourth place in the over-all standings.

UNITED STATES could finish 1-2-3 in dash events of the 1956 Olympic Games if Jim Golliday of Northwestern returns to form, Coach Leo Johnson predicted.

"With Dave Sime, Bob Morrow, and Golliday, our country has a threesome that it will take some running to beat," Johnson, who coached the U. S. squad in last year's Pan-American games, said.

"I was very much impressed by Sime in the Drake Relays, but he had an advantage over Morrow because of competing in a full indoor season. He's starting faster than Morrow right now. When these three get together with the chips down, I want to see the race."

BIGGEST THIEF in major league history was Eddie Collins who stole 6 bases in 1 game back in 1912 . . . Eligibility date for Paddock Publications Inter-League Handicap golf tournament between twilight leagues of the area is Saturday, Aug. 4 . . . First place teams of that date will compete in the tourney at Roselle golf club Sunday, Aug. 19 . . . No. 2 singles player for Miami of Ohio this year was Dick Herberts of LaGrange . . . Miami had a undefeated record for the second year in a row with only teams to score 2 points against them being Ohio State and Purdue.

Our congratulations to Dan Vittum, Ron Ashley, Bob Getts and John Sujack in being named to West Suburban league all-conference baseball squad . . . And to Alan Smeby, who had the best pitching record with the Cardinals, for additional honors . . . Smeby and Vittum are both juniors.

George Drake of LaGrange has been named Grinnell's most valuable trackman . . . He had been accorded the same honor in cross country last fall, was Mid-America conference mile champ 2 years, this time won the 440 in its place . . . Grinnell letter winners included both Dan and Foster Rinefort of Glenbard, with Bruce Wilkerson of Prospect Heights getting a frosh numeral . . . In tennis lit was Ron Prater of LaGrange . . . Glenbard will soon vote on a new gym that won't include an indoor track, but will have space for some track workouts.

Pirates Tally 84; Fenton Second With 42 Total

by G. A. McELROY

Twenty boys scored for Palatine as the Pirates equaled last year's total of 84½ points to run away with the Northwest Conference track championship at Glenbrook last Wednesday night. It was Palatine's ninth straight league track title and Welty's tear doubled the score on second place Fenton who scored 42 points. Five records were set and another tied with winning marks the best in the history of the meet in spite of temperatures in the forties.

Palatine placed two men in every individual event except the high jump and won both first and second in the 440, shot, and pole vault. The Pirates took six firsts, six seconds, and four thirds in the 14 event program. Four of the new records were set by Palatine. Jim Eldridge, sophomore 440 man, ran a :52 flat with team mate Jim Hess a tenth of a second behind as both smashed the former mark of :52.5 set last year by Palatine's Alan Eck.

ONE OF THE finest records was the 2:02.5 set in the 880 by big Carl Bondeson of Palatine to eclipse the 2:05 made by Good of Antioch in 1945. Leonard Rohde who won the Palatine Relays shot event again bettered 50' to set a new league record. The mark of 49' 1" set by Carl Nuss of Palatine in 1954 was erased by Rohde's put of 50' ¼". The Palatine medley relay team knocked nine seconds off the league mark with a new standard of 3:48.5 with Jim Eldridge and Carl Bondeson, record breakers in the 440 and 880 repeating the distances in the relay. Allen Danforth and Every Larson ran the 220 sections of the relay for the Pirates. This was the first year that the league has allowed a man to run at the same distance in the medley as in an individual event.

Jerry Cole of Grant erased a Palatine held record of 4:45.5 in the mile made by Herb Oesterlee in 1951. Cole ran a record mile of 4:45 flat with LeDain of Grayslake right behind and also bettering the old record. Fenton's 880 relay team tied the league record of 1:36.5 set last year by Glenbrook with Dick D'Hooge, Dick Driggett, Jay Stoner, and Bob Gullborg running the 220 legs of the relay event.

OTHER FIRST places made by Palatine in addition to the new record events were the high hurdles in :16.1 by George Sailor who also took second in the lows and Roy Burns in the pole vault at 10'. Leading scorers for Palatine were George Sailor 9; Jim Hess, Leonard Rohde, and Bill Thompson 8; Jack Thome 7; Carl Bondeson and Jim Eldridge 6¼, Duane Gordon 6, Roy Burns 5¾, Dave Wagner 4¾, Roy Hahnfeldt and Steve Cornwell 3, Laster Wiese 1½, Allen Danforth 1¼, Evert Larson 1¼, Dan Kusek 1, Bruce Anderson 1, and John Etchingham and Paul Wagner ¾ of a point.

Fenton came up strong with 42 points for second. The Bisons were third last year and prior to that time had been near the bottom of the heap for several years. In addition to the record tying 880 yard relay team Fenton got three other first places. Bob Gullborg won the 220 in :23.4 and was second in the 100. Dick Driggett won the broad jump with a good leap of 19' 8½" and Dick D'Hooge matched Gullborg's 9 points in individual events by winning the low hurdles in :21.9 and taking second in the highs. D'Hooge and Gullborg shared high scoring honors for the meet with 10¼ points as both also ran on the record tying relay team. Other scoring by the Fenton Bisons was a second in the 880 by Bill Ripperger, a fifth in the low hurdles by Jay Stoner and a fourth in the broad jump and a tie for third in the high jump by Tom Philaben. Fenton also took second in the mile medley relay.

OTHER FIRST places not won by Pirates or Bisons were the discus taken by Bob Pintozzi of Wauconda at 136' 1", the high jump in which Schuchardt at Ela and Ridgeway of Wauconda tied at 5' 7", the record breaking mile by Cole of Grant, and a :10.5 in the 100 yard dash by Gary Windells of Glenbrook. Glenbrook had only one first and one second in the meet.

Wauconda took fourth with 19¼ points. Bob Pintozzi won the discus and took third in the 100 yard dash; Ridgeway, a soph, tied for first in the high jump and won third in the high hurdles. Bob Weinberg got third in the 440 and Huff tied for fourth in the pole vault.

THE PITCHING STAFF is always No. 1 with any baseball team, and the Arlington Heights high school Cardinals were no exception this spring when these 7 boys were available for mound duty. Coach Howard Lester used 6 of the 7, with some of the boys playing other positions when they weren't on the mound. Entire group had an earned run average of 2.19, giving up 50 hits and 35 earned runs in 112 innings. The twirlers fanned 151 men, walked 78 and won 10 of 17 games. Team finished in third place in West Suburban league.

Four righthanders included Denny Thill, who pitched just 1 inning, giving up 1 walk; Alan Smeby, twirler with best ERA (0.76) in 27 2/3 innings, allowing 16 hits, walking 16 and striking out 45; Pat Brownell, on the mound just 1 1/3 innings; and Bob Getts, who worked 14 1/3 innings, allowing 12 hits, walking 10, fanning 11, and permitting 6 earned runs for an ERA of 2.93.

Three lefties included Bob Miller with the best 3-1 record and an ERA of 1.12 in 31 1/3 innings, striking out 34, walking 13 and permitting 14 hits in the process; John Sujack, named to all-league, worked 36 1/3 innings, struck out 60, walked 39, permitted 17 hits for an ERA of 2.89; and Jerry Klement, who didn't see any action this year but will be back next season, along with Thill, Brownell, and Miller. —Staff Photo

Arlington Lands 4 On All League Baseball

Ron Ashley, Dan Vittum, John Sujack and Bob Getts.

That's Arlington's part of the all-conference baseball lineup in West Suburban league as selected Monday afternoon by conference coaches. Picking a 12-man team, Heights landed 4 boys on the mythical squad, including 2 outfielders, 1 infielder and 1 moundsman.

Maine landed 3 boys on the team, Downers and York 2 apiece, and LaGrange 1. In addition, a second team of 10 boys was selected, including Alan Smeby of Arlington on the mound. Four additional boys were given honorable mention.

DAN VITTUM, who has been named next year's captain by the Heights 9, played the outfield for the Cardinals, committing nary an error. Dan doubled behind the plate when needed, is a good clutch hitter. He had a triple and a double among his 17 safeties and .333 average in league games.

Ron Ashley, also playing errorless ball in the outfield for Coach Howard Lester, batted cleanup, has a terrific throwing arm. Ron batted .341 in league games, including 3 homers, 2 triples and a double.

John Sujack, 1 of the top 3 hurlers with the Cardinals, had a 4-3 league record with a league ERA of 1.98. He also had a season-long .267 batting average, not a bad mark, was named all-league and all-state in football.

BOB GETTS was Arlington's leading hitter with a .343 league, .390 overall mark. He hit 2 triples and a double in league games, batting in 7 runs.

Bill Zersen won his third baseball letter at York, hitting .265, is very good on defense. Bill covers a lot of ground and threw out several base runners. He led [illegible] in RBI, is a senior.

Bill Liedholm, .285 hitter on first for Maine, never struck out this year. Many rated Bill the best glove man in the league.

Daryl Siedentop, who tied Liedholm in voting at first base, batted .375 for Downers, led his team in RBI. Daryl is a dependable infielder, left handed, of course.

BOB HOFFMAN, gaining his third baseball letter for York, hit .271 and made only 2 errors. Bob is a good hitter with men on base, is 1 of the best base runners in York history.

John Perrill led Maine in RBI, homers, hits and has been most valuable player for the Demons. John is a 3 letter winner in baseball.

Lee Fick of Maine, named behind the plate, has been a .365 hitter, considerably better than last year when he hit .250. Lee has a good arm, is a good long ball hitter.

TOM PRUCHA of Downers had an outstanding 9-3 record on the mound, struck out 140, issued just 15 bases on balls for an earned run average of 0.65. In 3 years of high school twirling Tom won 26, lost 6, expects to attend Illinois in the fall.

Lee Meyer of LaGrange is 1 of the more versatile boys named to the squad, played first base and caught when he wasn't twirling. Lee had a 6-2 record, seldom walked anyone, has a good fast ball and curve.

Minor Leaguers To Hold Clinic At Mt. Prospect

by BETTY KIRCHHOFF

This coming Saturday, June 2, and also the following Saturday, June 9, a baseball clinic will be held for all minor leaguers of Mt. Prospect, at Lions Park starting at 12:00. Little League and Pony League managers and coaches will be there to instruct boys on the fundamentals of baseball.

The Minor league program is going to be run by the park district in conjunction with the Boys Baseball organization. They are planning on having a 5 day a week schedule, Monday through Friday with all play during the day so as not to conflict with Little League.

All minor leaguers will be notified through the mail about both the clinic and plans of the coming seaosn. (Sp

11 West Suburban Stars Named On Thinclad Group

Jim Bowers of DeKalb, John Lattimore of Phillips and Mike Smith of Freeport head the list of outstanding track stars named to Paddock Publications all-state prep track team, the climax to the prep honor roll. that have been appearing all season long.

All 3 boys set or equlaed new state marks, with Bowers setting a new national figure of 4:16.1 in the mile. His mark of 4:20.7 in the state meet will be on state record books. Smith ran 1 of the greatest half miles in prep annuals with his 1:56.1. Lattimore turned in a record equalling performance in the 440, then came back to win the 220 with an excellent time.

IN SELECTION of a state prep track team 1 factor must be taken into consideration, consistency of performances. A few boys may set creditable records once or twice, but not have the consistent good record to warrant mention in this list.

Three Arlington trackmen made the team. Dennis Striegel was consistently above 53' in the shot put, led the state with a 54-10¼ mark. Bill Palmer hit 6-2 on several occasions in high jump, was defending state co-champ. Dave Schimmel had a good record in the hurdles.

WEST SUBURBAN league provided several boys, including Lane Patterson of Glenbard in 220, Dick Pond of Glenbard in 880, Dave Hohl of Hinsdale in mile, Hubert Hommer of Maine in low hurdles, Sar Gervase of LaGrange in broad jump, Bob Ornberg of Maine in shot put, and Jon Cada of York and Lee Ekstrom of Maine in pole vault. Here's the complete lineup:

100 Yard Dash

100 Yard Dash

Robert Schindel, East Aurora. A consistent :10 and :10.1 dash man all season. Led the Honor Roll with a :09.7.

Darrell Duncan, Gillespie. The outstanding sprinter and broad jumper in south central Illinois. Best time of the season :09.9 and :09.8.

Joe Darnell, Danville. The Danville sprinter was a consistent :10.1 dash man. He won most of the major sprint titles in central Illinois.

Leroy Jackson, Bloom. This sophomore was the state 100 yard dash champion and was one of the main men in Bloom's state champion squad.

Don Miller, Cairo. Turned in times of :10.1 and :10.2 all season long. The best in southern Illinois.

220 Yard Dash

John Lattimore, Phillips (Chicago), State 220 and 440 yard champion. One of the state's outstanding dash men of all time. Times of :21.4 and :21.8.

Lane Patterson, Glenbard. The west suburban area's oustanding furlong man. Patterson was on the honor roll all season long with outstanding times of :21.4 and :21.9.

Robert Rechord, Blue Island. Rechord a point getter of Blue Island's state championship time of 1955 continued this year to turn in excellent performances.

Richard Streckler, Mt. Carmel Represented southern Illinois throughout the season with times of :22.0 and :21.9.

Hubert Fisher, Evanston. The Suburban league's outstanding 220 yard dashman. Placed in the state meet.

Heights LL Teams In Second Week Of Play

The Cardinals took the lead in National league division of Arlington Heights Little League last week, posting their second victory in a 15-2 affair over the Giants. Concentrated scoring the first 3 innings brought in 2-3-9 runs to put the game on ice.

Cardinals	239 001—15
Giants	000 020—2

In other National league games Pirates beat the Giants but lost to the Cubs. Two 4-run blasts the first 2 innings gave Pirates an 8-2 margin, to which they clung with the aid of a single run in the fourth to win, 9-8.

Giants	202 301—
Pirates	440 10x—
Pirates	000 020—
Cubs	201 01x—

Braves whipped the Dodgers Friday, 7-5, with both teams scoring runs scoring in a game ended after 5 innings due to darkness. Lead changed hands in the fifth when winners tallied 3 runs to go in front to stay.

Braves	200 23—
Dodgers	103 01—

Cubs and Braves played a scoreless tie Monday of last week with each team receiving a game credit in both won and lost columns.

ATHLETICS and White Sox lead American league after first week of competition, with the 2 teams playing to a 7-7 tie Friday. Athletics opened with 2 runs, but Sox pulled ahead with 4 in the first. The A's added singletons in second and third to tie the score, then went ahead with 3 in the fifth. Sox tallied 2, then 1 to tie.

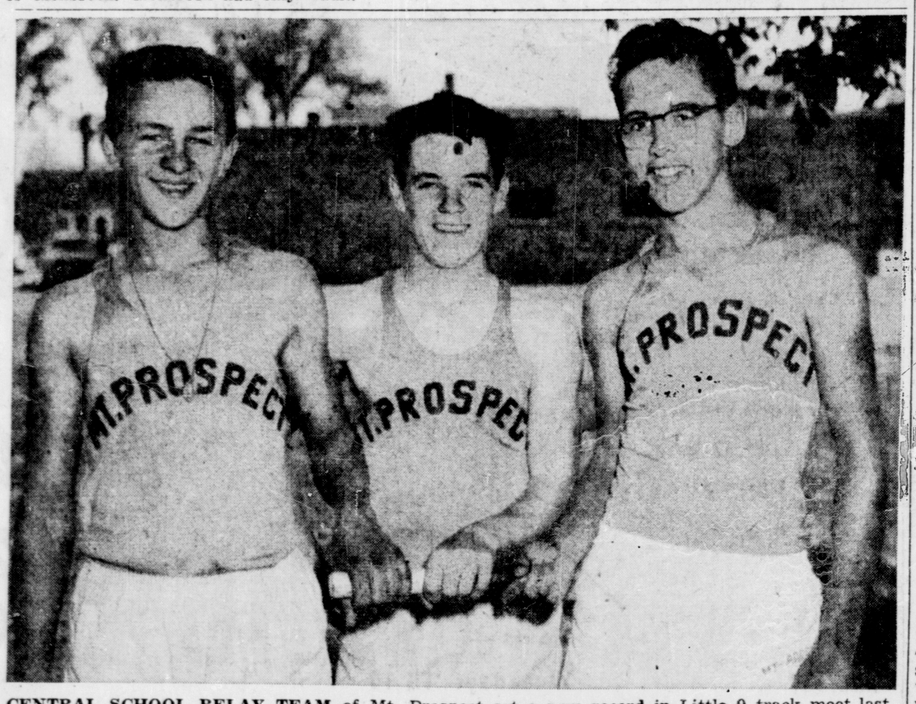
Arlington Pony League To Open Thursday Night

The Pony League of Arlington Heights is starting its season Thursday at the southeast diamond at the high school. It will be the Indians against the Redlegs starting at 6:30 p.m.

Saturday there will be 2 games played at the northwest diamond at Recreation park. The first game Saturday will be at 10 a.m. between the Orioles and the Phillies, and the second game will be at 12:30 p.m. between the Browns and the Hawks.

Six teams make up the Pony league this year and it should prove to be an interesting series to follow. (Sp



CENTRAL SCHOOL RELAY TEAM of Mt. Prospect set a new record in Little 9 track meet last week, running the 440 in :51.1. Central school runners took the heavyweight division of the meet, with Prospect Heights winning lightweight division. Record setting relay team included Keith Grams, Bill MacMillan, Al Westergaard and Newell Esmond. Esmond was not available for picture. —Staff Photo

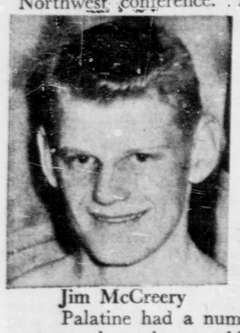
MAC SAYS

by G. A. McElroy

PALATINE'S STRING of 9 straight track championships is a record for any sport in the history of the Northwest conference. Along with it Palatine has 6 straight championships in frosh-soph track, the number of seasons a league has been held at that level. Since the conference was reorganized in 1938 Palatine has taken 12 track titles, Bensenville 3, Antioch 2 and Barrington 1.



Jim McCreery

Next year will be the last for Palatine in the present conference affiliation and there seems little doubt the Pirates will again finish on top in both divisions of track, for the number of good returning boys who scored tells only part of the story.

Palatine had a number of boys who could not compete in events where they would have scored due to the fact that only two could be used in an event. The Pirates have enough 440 men to have won all the places in that event. They could have taken 3 places in most of the events where they took only 2. Palatine depth is their real strength. A total of 93 boys came out for track this year and over 80 were still out and competing at the end of the season. Palatine had more boys practicing on the shot and discus alone than many of the schools had on their entire squad.

BACK IN 1948 the Palatine Lions club established an athletic award to the outstanding senior in Palatine high in memory of Lt. Francis Reuse, Lt. Jack Thompson, Lt. John O'Brien, and Lt. Wilbert Gieseke, who lettered at PTHS, and gave their lives for their country in World War II. The award is based on qualities of scholarship, athletic achievement, sportsmanship, training, dependability, leadership, cooperation, and competitive spirit. Former awards were made in 1948—Richard Pepper, 1949—No award, 1950—Paul Loeber and Don Klein, 1951—Herbert Oesterlee, 1952—Gerry Hermann, 1953—Paul Schrage, 1954—Norman Stenzel, and 1955—Alan Eck.

This year the award is made to James McCreery, the smallest boy ever to win it and one of those receiving the highest rating. McCreery lost only two wrestling matches last season competing in the 127 and 120 pound classes.

He took fourth in the state tournament after winning the sectional championship and was captain of the team which placed fourth in the state. McCreery was a tough line backer in football on defense and has been a regular on the varsity baseball team at second base. For leadership and competitive spirit Palatine has not had his equal in many many years. Every coach rated him as the top senior for the Lions award.

PALATINE'S BASEBALL TEAM as of last weekend had a 6-5' conference record with 1 victory in the remaining 3 games needed to clinch third place. This good record is largely due to the strong right arm of Bob Hamilton. On top of pitching all of Palatine's victories behind a weak hitting team Hamilton has been the only .300 hitter on the squad.

In fact Coach Bailey has only 4 boys on his squad who have an average over .200. This is evidence of what percent of the effectiveness of a high school baseball team depends on good pitching. Some experts say that pitching in high school ball with satisfactory catching rates 75% in making for a winning team.

WITH THE BREAKING of the 4 minute barrier in the mile run a great accomplishment has come about in distance running in track. Right here in Illinois high school track has come this past week a mark in the mile which for prep school athletes is every bit as significant as the running of the mile under 4 minutes by men who have trained through and beyond college competition.

Jim Bowers of DeKalb High ran a 4:16.1 mile in the North Central Illinois conference track meet Friday night at Sterling.

This feat set a new national high school record just a few hours after Ron Gregory of Sumner High in St. Louis had been clocked in a record breaking time of 4:19.2. The former record is 4:19.5 set last year by Tom Shuto of White Plains, New York. Bowers is only 5-7 in height and weighs 150 pounds. He won the state mile as a sophomore and as a senior. He won the mile at the Palatine Relays all 4 years in high school with his best 4:25 last season. Bowers is a distance runner you will hear about in college competition and who should be just about at his peak as a mature athlete at the time of the 1960 Olympic games.

IT WOULD SEEM from the athletes mentioned in this column that small men really have a place in sport, particularly wrestling and track. We have another to mention who is little 5-7 inch Jimmy Caldwell, pitcher deluxe for the Warren team which tied for the North Suburban baseball championship. Caldwell won 8 and lost 3, but allowed no earned runs in any of the defeats.

His phenomenal hurling record for the season was 74 innings pitched, allowed 8 earned runs for 0.76 per game, allowed 32 hits, walked 18, and set a league record with 127 strikeouts.

Warren, Libertyville, and Barrington tied for the North Suburban with 8-4 records. Bob Fuget of Warren led the league in hitting with .410 with Brandt and Walbaum of Barrington right behind with .383 and .375.

FINAL GOLF CLASSES sponsored by Paddock Publications will be held Tuesday night at Arlington country club. The free classes, mentored by golf pro George Dayiantis, are always popular, as evidenced by the smiles on the faces of most of the ladies present. In event of inclement weather, a call Tuesday evening to Wheeling 167 will bring correct answers as to any postponement necessary. —Staff photo

Spring Sports Teams At Heights End 71-39 Record

Arlingotn's golfers provided the outstanding spring sports record at Arlington high school this spring with state, district and 2 conference championships, though the track teams rated a close second, followed by the baseball squads and tennis squads.

The varsity golfers won 20 victories to 1 loss, that loner being an 8-7 decision early in April to Waukegan. Locals gained revenge last week by topping the north shore school, 8½-6½. Heights won both varsity and frosh-soph league titles, with 4 trophies added to the trophy case.

Coaching the varsity was Curtis Larsen with Rusty Dowell handling the frosh-sophs. The latter squad raced through 11 matches and the conference undefeated.

VARSITY TRACK was a surprise considering the small size of the group, though a new spirit brought out dozens and dozens of boys for the frosh-soph squad. The varsity won 3 of its 5 duals, brought home 6 trophies from Hinsdale Relays, and copped North Shore invitational meet at Highland Park.

The frosh-sophs won 6 duals, finished third in the conference, plus North Shore invitational championship. Coaching setup this year included varsity coach Russ Attis, frosh-soph mentor Bob Scott, weight coach Bill Beckman.

IN BASEBALL the Cardinals otssed away a couple of games, either 1 of which could have given the locals a clear cut championship. As it was a whirlwind finish moved the Heights varsity into third place with a 10-7 overall record for Coach Howard Lester.

Coach "Bus" Ormsbee's frosh-soph 9 won 6 of 9 games, dropping crucial league contests with Hinsdale and Glenbard, the latter an extra inning affair. Frosh squad, under direction of Maurice Klotz, won 3 of 6 contests.

440 Yard Dash

John Lattimore, Phillips (Chicago). State champion in this event with outstanding times of :48.8 and :49.0. The :48.8 equals the state record.

Al Staebler, New Trier. The Suburban league's best with times of :50.0 and :50.4.

Fred Macklin, Bloom. A consistent :50.0 man and a main cog in Bloom's championship team.

Charles LeCrone, Springfield. Central Illinois' best in the quarter mile.

Larry Harmon, Watseka. Performed well in all the major meets that he entered.

880 Yard Run

Mike Smith, Freeport. State champion and new record holder with a time of 1:56.1.

Ted Beastall, Morton. Beastall ran this event under 2 minutes all season. The Suburban area's outstanding man in this event.

Richard Pond, Glenbard. Pond turned in times of 1:59.0 during the season. A hard working consistent performer.

Nick Thomas, Bloom. Another of Coach Ralph Stebens' men who improved his Honor roll performances all season long.

Ron Campbell, Oak Park. Turned in good times throughout the season. Best time 1:59.5.

Mile Run

Jim Bowers, DeKalb. The state's outstanding track man. State champion with a new state record of 4:20.7. Ran more miles under 4:30 than any man in the state's history over a four year period. Set a national mark of 4:16.1 Saturday.

David Hohl, Hinsdale. A consistent performer with times in the 4:30's. The Suburban area's best.

Ken Brown, Elgin. This boy improved as the season went on and placed in the state meet.

Robert Bagwell, Kankakee. After a slow start, improved his times as spring wore on. Best time during the season 4:35.9.

Brian White, East Rockford. Ran well when the chips were down. Carried a good performance all season.

120 Yard High Hurdles

Dick Haas, Oregon. State high hurdles champion, led the state all season in this event.

Charles Teuscher, East Aurora. A consistent hurdler with excellent times. East Aurora's work horse this season.

Frank Carra, Bloom. Carried a fine time throughout the season. Always good for points in both the highs and lows.

Robert Nickelson, Girard. This lad is a self-made hurdler. His school does not have a track team or coach. He built his own hurdles, taught himself and with this was good enough to turn in outstanding times and place in the state meet.

Robert London, Evanston. One of the best in the suburban area. A consistent performer.

180 Yard Low Hurdles

William Martin, Phillips (Chicago). Martin is the state record holder and champion in this event. Best time this season :18.9. This was not allowed as state record because of the wind.

Charles Teuscher, East Aurora. Best time :19.3. A consistent performer.

David Schimmel, Arlington Heights. A fine hurdler, with excellent times all season. Best time :19.4.

Hubert Hommer, Maine. Hommer ran the lows in :19.2 in the District meet. Led the Honor roll most of the season with :19.7.

Frank Carra, Bloom. A consistent performer around :20.0 flat all season.

Wilber Dickson, Danville. The state champion this year at the height of 6'3". The state's most consistent jumper.

William Palmer, Arlington Heights. Former state co-champion tied for second this year. Jumped 6'2" on several occasions.

Ronald Swanson, Moline. Former state co-champion tied for second this year. Swanson was consistent at 6'.

Robert Clark, Sterling. A consistent six foot jumper.

Tony Etnyre, New Trier. Consistent performer at 6 feet.

Broad Jump

Fred Macklin, Bloom. The state champion. A consistent 22 foot jumper.

Kenneth Miller, DeKalb. Held the best recorded mark in the state this year at 23' 4". Always over 21 feet.

Sam Gervase, LaGrange. Placed in the state and was over 22 feet on numerous occasions.

Booker Edgerson, Rock Island. A consistent 21 foot broad jumper throughout the season.

Ken Handy, Oak Park. The Suburban league's outsatnding broad jumper. Best distance 22' 6".

Shot Put

Dennis Striegel, Arlington Heights. Consistently above 53 feet. Led the state with 54' 10¼".

Robert Ornberg, Maine. Excellent distance of 54' 10". Just a junior, he should improve a great deal.

Robert Parnisari, LaSalle-Peru. This boy improved his marks through the season.

Marvin Jones, East St. Louis. A consistent 52 plus man with a place in the state meet two years in a row.

Bill Brown, Mendota. The state champion. Held a good Honor roll mark throughout the season. Best throw in state meet 55' 1".

Discus

Charles Beal, Harrisburg. Led the Honor roll with 154' 5" throughout the season.

Larry Sennett, Collinsville. Improved his throwing during the season and had several throws over 150!

Charles Hamilton, Herrin. A consistent 145 and over discus man. Had several throws over 150'.

Mike Pyle, New Trier. Placed second in the state meet. Had good marks during the season.

Pole Vault

Jon Cada, York. Tied for the state championship. Consistent over 12' all season.

Larry Mackey, Urbana. Co-champ with Cada, a good 12 foot vaulter.

Tom Fann, Hurst-Busch. Led the Honor roll with 12' 4".

Charles Kahl, Litchfield. Improved as the season went on. Best mark 12' 1".

Lee Ekstrom, Maine. Consistent at 12'. Best mark 12' 1¾".

THESE 2 SENIORS have hung up their suits for the last time as the Arlington Cardinals finished their West Suburban conference competition last week. This was Don Butts' second year at second base for Coach Howard Lester, coming through with some timely hits the last half of the year. He was a steady infielder for the locals.

Bob Harrington played short stop and left field for the Heights 9, though hampered by illness the middle of the season when he missed 4 games. He was a good outfielder, never committing an error while patrolling the outer edges of Recreation park. He was a good competitor. (Staff Photo

3 Records Set As Maine, York Win West Suburban Track

Four records were set, but it was Clarence East who was the star of West Suburban conference track meet Wednesday night of last week at Maine high school. Clarence was making his final coaching appearance for York of Elmhurst after a 36 year career and it was only fitting that York should win at least half of the meet, though only the frosh-soph division.

Maine won varisty division as expected, with LaGrange 8 points back followed by Arlington an additional 8. New records were set by Dave Hohl of Hinsdale in the mile, Sam Gervase of LaGrange in broad jump and Lee Ekstrom of Maine and John Cada of York in pole vault. Dave Schimmel of Arlington also set a new mark of :19.5 in low hurdles. Other new figures are 4:32.1 in the mile, 22-8½ in broad jump and 12-1¾ in pole vault. Other best efforts for Arlington were Dennis Striegel, who won shot at 54-10; Bill Palmer, who tried for second in high jump; and Lew Green, who placed second in discus.

Other Heights points were won by Arlington 880 relay team, third; Dick Van Note, third in 220; Jim Hoffman, fifth in discus; Stan Norman, tied for fourth in high jump. (Sp

YOUNG LOVERS — Shirley Jones and Gordan MacRae, shown in a scene from Rodgers and Hammerstein's "CAROUSEL" in the new unparalleled SinemaScope 55, head the large cast which will be singing and dancing in this musical classic.

The picture, photographed in the new process, will have its local north suburban area premiere at the Catlow Theatre in Barrington where it opens Sunday for a 3-day engagement.

The film is in 4-track high fidelity Stereophonic sound!

'Kismet' To Open Music Theater Summer Slate

"Kismet," the colorful musical Arabian night with an all-Broadway and Hollywood cast, opens the 7th season of hit musicals at the Music Theater in Highland Park, June 11 through 24.

This lavish tale of the swashbuckling beggar-poet Haji and his adventurous capers amid exotic Oriental splendor opens a season filled with famous stars and Broadway musicals.

"Kismet" presents such stars as Bob Busch as The Caliph (he sang 5 major roles last summer), Margot Moser as Marsinah (which she sang in the national company last year), Monique Van Vooren, the gorgeously beautiful Broadway star, John Taliaferro of the famed opera family, and a carefully-chosen cast.

The Music Theater will in no way be affected by the recent fire which destroyed the adjoining Villa Moderne.

Other musicals scheduled are: Damon Runyon's "Guys and Dolls," the Music Theater's all-time hit, June 25-Juy 8; Cole Porter's "Out Of This World," the bright N. Y. hit in Chicago for the first time, July 9-22; Leonard Bernstein's "On The Town," July 23-Aug. 5; Rodgers and Hart's "Pal Joey," 1 of the great smash hits, Aug. 6-19, and Rogers and Hammerstein's "The King and I," Aug. 20-Sept. 2.

Home Run Hitters

The Cincinnati Reds seem well on their way toward a new major league club mark in home runs. In their first 18 games they hit 37. That averages 2.06 per game. The New York Giants hold the club record, with 221 homers in 1947. The Sporting News points out that the Reds, if they hit 185 homers in their remaining 136 games, an average of 1.36 a game, they'll wind up with 222, one better than the Giants' 1947 mark. (Sp

Chipping And Putting Can Save Many Strokes

by GEORGE DAYIANTIS

Now that we have got you off the tee and down the fairway, you are ready for chipping and putting.

Learning to chip and putt well can save you many strokes and you will learn once the "golf bug" gets you.

Chipping:

The choice of club for this shot varies with each individual, one can use any club, from a 4 iron to a 7 iron. At our Tuesday meeting I will demonstrate the use of each club. Here again one must have a firm but relaxed grip; the stance will find you with your feet about a foot apart, and a "slightly open" stance. This is done by drawing back your left foot and turning your body a bit toward your objective.

The club is taken back in one movement, with left shoulder, arm, hands, and club starting at the same time. The club is kept low to the ground and taken straight back, the length of the backswing will vary again according to each individual.

I have found that if you hit your chip shot about as hard as you would hit a putt from that distance you will get the desired results. Relax and keep your head steady.

Putting:

Putting is one part of the golf game that produces many different types of stances and grips, but all good golfers have these things in common:

1. Their hands work together, they move in one motion.
2. They keep their head steady throughout their putting stroke.
3. They develop a smooth stroke and learn to keep the face of the putter square to the hole throughout their stroke. (And they practice a lot.)

At our Tuesday night session, June 5, I will elaborate on this so you will be able to see exactly what I am saying.

As I have repeated in all my other lessons, one must learn to relax and yet be firm; in putting the same is true.

And don't forget you must have a rhythmic stroke to be able to develop accuracy and consistency.

It has been a pleasure to be able to write these articles and may they help you to enjoy playing golf more than ever.

If you ever need any further assistance, I am always available at my Pro Shop at Arlington CC.

Good luck and may you all have an enjoyable golfing year.

Arlington Golfers Gain Revenge Over Waukegan Duffers

Arlington's varsity golfers gained revenge for their sole defeat of the year when they edged Waukegan Thursday, 8½-6½. Waukegan had previously topped Heights early in April 8-7.

Rolfs and McDonald led the way for Arlington with 72's, followed by 75 by Spinello, 77 by Jacobsen and 83 by Holm. Moehling, Murray and Lindstrom led the way for the frosh-sophs as they won 7-2. Frosh match included John Double 82, Bob Sbarbaro 79 and Ken Hadland 94, with Waukegan winning 5-4.

Arlington mauled Elmwood Park 14-1, using "extra men" for the Cardinal varsity. (Sp

Old Orchard Scratch League Golfers Sink 23 Birdies

Three birdies on the front nine by B. Blessing of Arlington Pharmacy led the field of birdie shooters to come in with a 37 against J. Kelly of M. W. Kamps Signs.

Low for the evening was H. Cokenhouer's 36 with 2 birds to win over F. Steinken and to give M. W. Kamps Signs fourth place in the league.

L-Nor Cleaners led by W. Rolfs amassed 5 out of 6 points to jump their team from 11th to 9th place. Also winning their matches were J. Flynn over P. Scully of Smith & Dawson, and J. Rowader over H. Bengel.

Weather Slows Monday Golf At Mt. Prospect

The weather man thus far has shown no favoritism toward the Mt. Prospect Tuesday league. Although he has threatened on previous occasions, on May 22 he provided sufficient rain accompanied by sound effects and technicolor to thwart all but 1 or 2 of the robust (or foolish) foursomes.

Since the majority did not complete a full round, the secretary, John Beverley, scored all matches on the basis of 8 rather than the usual 10 points. Birdies continued to be as rare as good golfing conditions with G. T. Adams, the A player for Sundberg's Store for Men carding the only one on the 13th hole.

TEAM POSITIONS are far from stable with Annen & Busse Realtors taking 5½ points from Van Driel's Store to move into lead position. Mt. Prospect Jewelers lost 5 points to Mt. Prospect Bowling Lanes and dropped from first to third position.

Cumulative points and team standings after 4 weeks of play are:

Palatine Golfers' Blank Crystal Lake And Tie Niles High

by GEOFFREY JOHN

Palatine's varsity golf team ended its last week of golf by defeating Crystal Lake, 15-0, and tied Niles, 7½-7½. Palatine met Crystal Lake on their home course last Thursday afternoon which turned out to be a rainy day. Palatine's Fred Breitling was low man with a 79. The Niles meet was at Inverness and Nile's Febel shot the low score of 79. Fred Breitling and Mike Miller were the only men to take 3 points from their opponents for Palatine's cause.

The scores went as follows:

Jahn's Back In First In Arlington Golf League At Mt. Prospect

With only 6½ points separating the top 7 teams competition is keen and the teams continue to alternate positions in the Arlington Heights Golf League playing at Mt. Prospect country club.

Jahn's Fire Protection Service moved back into first place and the Mt. Prospect Country club team moved up from fourth place to second. Dave Borgardt had the low gross with a 37 and B. Barrett, W. Gappert and Bill Lathen tied for low net honors with 32's. Gappert was the real hero for the first place team. Playing in the number 5 position, as he normally shoots in the mid-fifths, he came through with an excellent 48 and 3 of his team's 8 points.

Eight players shot birdies. Bill Poole picked up 2 on holes and 1 and 5. Team standings are:

Fenton Golfers Lose To Glenbard

by GLEN VOLKMAN

Fenton's golf team played its final golf match of the season and was beaten by a superb Glenbrook squad, 14-1, last Thursday at the Mohawk Country club. The Spartons, who are the newly crowned Northwest Conference golf champions, played "up to par" by gathering all but 1 point in the match.

N.W.C. medal winners, Howard Rosley and Dick Youngberg, paved the way to the Glenbrook victory by carding 74 and 75, respectively, to win their individual matches.

Glen Volkman managed the Bison's lone point by rallying for a second nine 38 which gave him a point for winning the 9-hole match point. Volkman posted an 84, while teammate Bob Clancy fired an 86.

Scores:

Something entirely new has hit the Used Car Field. It's an actual INSURANCE POLICY written to COVER ALL REPAIRS, anywhere, with no strings attached. Now you can have Repair Insurance just like collision insurance. Even better, there is no fifty or hundred dollars deducted from the bill and paid by you first. Now you can buy a Used Car, one of these pictured here for example, actually safer than a new car. Repairs will be made from Maine to California, at any new car franchised dealer to insure the best possible work, AND ALL YOU DO IS TURN IN A BILL, NOT TO US, BUT TO AN INSURANCE COMPANY. And remember this, you get a double benefit. These cars aren't just labeled inspected or passed. They've gone through as tough an inspection you could imagine by outside insurance inspectors to qualify for this insurance. This means that the cars are almost perfect to start with, and the chance of having a breakdown and taking up your valuable time is almost non-existent.

THE FOLLOWING CARS HAVE PASSED THIS INSPECTION AND ARE INSURED FOR YOUR BENEFIT

Teach Safety Around Trains Now, Save Kids' Lives Later

"Spending a few minutes with your children today might spare them from crippling injury — or death — this summer," said L. G. Bean of Mt. Prospect, superin- of North Western railway's Chicago passenger terminal division, Chicago. Almost 250 passenger trains roll over his division each day.

As the school year ends and summer vacations start, safeguarding the lives and limbs of school children becomes the problem of every railroader, he said. Always a serious problem to railroad men, trespassing on railroad property by children is worse during the summer vacation months when youngsters have time on their railroad men are always friendhands.

"CHILDREN are generally fascinated by trains, locomotives, cars, and tracks," Bean said. ailroad men are always friendly to waving youngsters along the right-of-way. Yet every railroader is haunted by the fear that parents may have failed to warn their children to stay a safe distance from moving trains railway bridges and other railway property."

Hardly a vacation month passes without some injury to children playing on railroad tracks, flipping trains, climbing on cars, crossing tracks where no pedestrian crossing is provided.

BEAN URGES parents and teachers to spend a few minutes with children now — before vacations start — with a lesson on safety and the dangers of playing on or near railroad tracks. The admonition should be repeated throughout the summer months.

"Train crews on the Chicago passenger terminal division could hope for no better safety record this year than an accident-free summer for those wonderful kids who wave to our passing trains and crewmen," Bean concluded.

TOM BENSON likes his bubble gum as much as playing baseball, as evidenced in this action shot of the Cardinals in their opener of the Arlington Heights Little League season. The gum was working as hard as Tom when this shot was taken. —Staff Photo

Plan Job Experience In Business Education

Jobs in selling have been added to the cooperative office experience program of the University of Illinois department of business education.

Qualified students seeking degrees in commercial teaching or secretarial training will be assigned half-time jobs in university offices or with local business houses. Pay will be at the prevailing rate.

About Your Health

One of the commonest of all complaints is low back pain. Many factors are involved, such as fatigue, poor posture, improper functioning of some internal organ or misalignment of a part of the spinal column. Yet there are persons, in carrying out their occupational pursuits, who continue to suffer instead of having the cause investigated, according to Illinois state medical society.

In general, persons with backaches fall into one of two major groups: those with "extrinsic backache" and those with "intrinsic backache." In the former, the pain is caused by trouble outside the back. For example, people with gallbladder or kidney disease may complain of pain in the back. In other words, any condition involving organs situated at a distance from the spine within the pelvis, or abdomen, or chest, or even within the head, may be responsible for the pain classified with the "extrinsic backache" group.

IN "INTRINSIC backache" the trouble stems from a disturbance of the musculo-skeletal system of the spine. The muscles of the back, normally designed to carry a tremendous load, are thick, heavy and strong. They are in action all the time, whether we are sitting, or standing, and even to some degree during sleep. In addition to the muscles, there are many other important structures which make up the musculo-skeletal system of the back, such as the ligaments and the joints.

There are thirteen separate ligaments connecting one vertebra to another. The vertebra are made of bone. There are seven vertebra in the neck, twelve in the back, and usually five in the lumbar or lower back region. The last lumbar rests on a part of the pelvis, which is called the sacrum and where the greatest amount of stress and strain is thrown. Connecting these vertebra are the many separate ligaments which are strong fibrous tissue strands, which may be likened to check-reins. If a person bends, for example, the ligaments prevent him from bending too far and dislocating the back.

ORDINARILY, there is a certain amount of curvature of the spine which can be regarded as normal. However, if the curvature is excessive, either forward or backward, or to the side, the weight is placed abnormally, causing the small joints to carry the load. This is also true when the weight is thrown unevenly for a long period on the ligaments, muscles and small joints, or in any situation or occupation when the work done by the back is greater than the ability of the individual to carry the load without breaking down.

This type of backache may occur in a mother who "picks up" a baby weighing twenty-five to thirty pounds several times a day. Less fatigue would occur by "lifting" the baby. It may occur in the person with a job requiring prolonged standing or sitting without much opportunity for change of position to afford rest for the back muscles.

Teacher-Parent Council Gives 'Thanks' For Aid

Problems important to the succes- of its meetings were discussed at the spring board meeting of the Teacher Parent council held May 17 at the home of Charles Baker, president of the year-old high school organization.

Duties of the standing committee chairmen were made clear and plans were laid for the 3 regular meeting- which will take place during the 1956-57 school year.

Important in the evening's business was the vote of thanks given on behalf of the TPC, to those individuals and organizations who generously assisted with extra-curricular events this past year while activities at the school were necessarily curtailed by the split shift program.

Specifically, the 7 clubs and those who aided in maintaining them for the students throughout the year included the following:

INTRAMURAL sports including basketball and baseball, jointly sponsored by the community Y.M.C.A., with Al Calli the advisor, the Presbyterian Men's Club of Arlington Heights, which furnished the gymnasium at the Presbyterian church in that town, and the Kiwanis Club of Arlington Heights, which donated $100.00 toward equipment. The opening of school next fall and the completion of the new addition will find a full intramural program again taking place in the high school.

Bowling for all ages of high school students also sponsored by the Y.M.C.A., with Mr. Calli the advisor.

Horseback riding club, with Jean Caskey of the YMCA, in charge of this activity.

A STUDENT GIRLS' bridge club, conducted 2 hours each week for junior and senior girls at the home of Mrs. Charles Pratt with Mrs. Pratt and several other women instructing.

The radio club, a group of boys interested in amateur radio experience and trying their skill at building and repairs, is sponsored by the South church in Mt. Prospect, with Walter Werner the advisor.

A hot rod club sponsored by the Presbyterian Men's club. with Larry Smith and Robert Carney adult advisors to the group.

A social science club conducted at St. James church in Arlington Heights with Father Robert Reichert lending his assistance.

Homeless Bums Of Paris Stop Citizens Attempted Sucides

by BILL DILLINGHAM

Paris' homeless bums have saved many people from committing suicide. They are one of the city's best on-the-spot rescue groups.

When one wishes to commit suicide, it is traditionally Parisian to jump into the Seine river. But so many bums sleep under the Seine's bridges and along its banks that a despondent citizen doesn't get a chance to drown. Somebody is usually there as a willing rescuer.

During last year, just under thirty would-be suicide cases were saved in this manner.

MOST OF the people who "camp" under the Seine's bridges are Moroccans. They bundle themselves together during the winter months, using newspaper and rags to keep from freezing. These are the less fortunate Moraccans. Luckier ones have grabbed off grated places on the sidewalks that are warmed by air from the city's subway system.

When someone jumps into the Seine during the winter, they get the same unhesitating rescue service available in the summer. But the river-side campers grumble when they have to swim through ice.

On the evening of February third of this year, a woman was preparing herself for the plunge from Pont Neuf. A man on the bank below, believed to be Algerian or Moroccan by his accent, called up to her saying, "Please don't jump from this bridge, Madame. I'll have to swim after you, and it's cold and I can't swim very well. Go somewhere else. The Eiffel tower."

THE WOMAN ran away without answering and jumped from another bridge. Someone else saw her and enforced a rescue. She later told the story to hospital doctors.

Only in rare cases do these homeless campers receive material reward for their work. They get a ride in an ambulance to a public hospital, some warm wine and a few commendable lines written on their police record.

One of the most unusual attempted suicide cases of the Seine occurred in 1952. A woman splashed into the river and "tried to drown." She wasn't having much success when a man jumped in after her. The water was amost to the point of freezing, and the fellow got cramps. It turned out that she, since a woman has the right to change her mind, swung into action and saved him from drowning. (G

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

The rich fruits of understanding the completeness and perfection of God's creation will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday, June 3.

Scriptural selections in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "God the Only Cause and Creator" will include the following from Isaiah (25:1): "O Lord, thou art my God; I will exalt thee, I will praise thy name; for thou hast done wonderful things; thy counsels of old are faithfulness and truth."

Among the passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy is the following (69:13): "Spiritually to understand that there is but one creator, God, unfolds all creation, confirms the Scriptures, brings the sweet assurance of no parting, no pain, and of man deathless and perfect and eternal."

Security Found By Knowing God Lecturer Says

Health and security can be restored and maintained by gaining a spiritual understanding of God and man's relationship to Him, Ella H. Hay of Indianapolis, Indiana told an audience at Glenview Monday night, May 21.

Through prayer, as taught in Christian Science, the individual can find dominion over insufficiency, sickness, and insecurity because these are not inflicted upon man by God, Mrs. Hay declared. She explained how prayer heals disease, accidents, discordant family conditions and other problems of everyday living.

CURRENTLY ON extended tour as a member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship, Mrs. Hay spoke in the church edifice under the auspices of First Church of Christ, Scientist, Glenview.

Speaking on the subject "Christian Science: The Way of Health and Security," Mrs. Hay stressed that Christian Science is based on the Bible and that the concern of the Bible, like that of Christian Science is "to give mankind a workable knowledge of God which ensures present and eternal salvation from evil and discordant material conditions."

THE BIBLE teaches, Mrs. Hay said, that one must look within to find harmony, peace, security and success. Man possesses divine ability to know God and to demonstrate his spiritual dominion over sick, sinful, disordered thinking, she said.

"Man, made in God's likeness, has inherent ability to think and act wisely, intelligently, with poise and strength," Mrs. Hay said, adding that in reality man has "spiritual discernment, vision, and understanding which ensure health, security and peace."

In discussing the problem of income from a spiritual standpoint, Mrs. Hay pointed out that infinite abundance of good is characteristic of God and that the real man, God's likeness, has all he needs by reflection. Christ Jesus rebuked the tendency to localize or limit the source of man's supply, she said noting that his clear view of the "naturalness of plenty" enabled him to prove the practical availability of God's abundance and dispel the evidence of lack and feed the multitudes. LOVE IN BLOOM could easily be the title of this picture of a double tulip as seen in the yard of Bernard S. Oren, 1103 West Euclid, Arlington Heights. Mr. and Mrs. Oren have been watching this double stem with interest, impatiently waiting for it to bloom. Though not uncommon, the "four-lips" double flower is somewhat unusual.

Dandelions also speak the language of flowers. Lynne Smith, 305 E. Euclid, Arlington Heights, reported a "Siamese dandelion" in her back yard. Her dad, John, asserts single or double, the dandelion will have to go. —Staff Photo

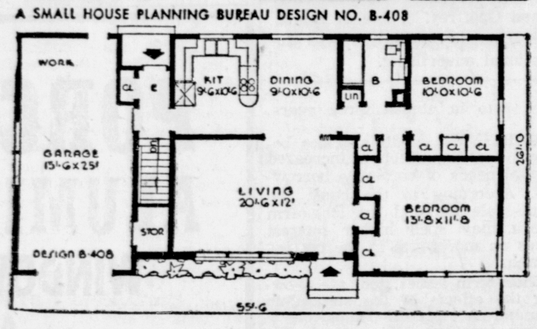
A SMALL HOUSE PLANNING BUREAU DESIGN NO. B-408



DESIGN B-408. Here is a compact plan with no waste space and a very small hall which, in spite of its size, permits perfect circulation between rooms.

The floor plan shows a large livin groom, separated from the combination kitchen - dinette by means of a folding door; also two bedrooms, a bath and an attached garage. Closets are plentiful and include storage closet, wardrobes, linen cabinet and coat closets in the living room and rear entry.

Exterior finish is a combination of stone and wide siding with a hip roof, wide eace overhang, stone planter, picture window and covered front and rear entrances. Floor area is 1035 square feet, with 19,665 cubic feet, including the full basement, but not including the garage.

For further information about DESIGN B-408, write the Small House Planning Bureau, St. Cloud, Minn.

IN THE SHADOW OF THE STEEPLE

Lutheran Heresy Trials Similar

by WILLIAM O. McGILL

In a class in Biblical interpretation in Seminary, we were required to read the "heresy trials" of C. A. Briggs and Harry Emerson Fosdick by the Presbytery of New York, Presbyterian church in the U.S.A.

Dr. Briggs' trial took place about 1905, as I remember, and Dr. Fosdick's about 1921.

The reports in the public press about heresy trials in one of the Lutheran synods raises a sense of similarity to these much earlier concerns about the same questions.

There is the same factual concern about miracles and the Birth of Jesus Christ, the same high regard for teachings of Jesus and corresponding dimness of understanding regarding salvation.

THIS IS interesting, from an historical point of view, because the center of heresy of the Briggs and Fosdick variety was Union Seminary in New York.

This is the same institution which today is regarded as the center of the vigorous new spirit in Protestant theology.

While every thinking theologian denies that he is one, the name most widely applied to this group of thinkers is "neo-orthodoxy."

How, one may ask, did the seminary known as the cesspool of "Modernism" become the citadel of orthodoxy? The answer is an essentially Protestant one, the leading of the Holy Spitit into all truth.

As sociological and literary facts were discovered about Israelite history and other ancient peoples, about the Greek world, and the Christian communities in Israel and hte Greek world, hypotheses were developed to fit the facts.

Contemporary sociological and and psychological studies were absorbed into these hypotheses. But a hypothesis must be tested continuallybefore it can be regarded as even a theory.

THESE DID not stand up under the tests.

For while some of the facts may have been accurate, the fact which must be taken into account is that God directs the course of history. There is developing a keener appreciation for the role of God who designs and works for his creation, and a richer understanding of the people who have known His grace.

A great part of this appreciation stems from Karl Barth, a Swiss preacher who asked, "Why do people come to church?" He rediscovered "the strange new world of the Bible," where men act because they are led by the living God, or where men act in rebellion against God.

AND YET this is the spiritual dilemma of Augustine and Paul. Essentially what Barth did was to recognize that our new understanding of the life situations in the Bible and our new understanding about human situations do not contradict the Gospel, but reinforce the application of the Gospel to our lives.

I sometimes wonder which Hymnal editor first substituted "martyrs" for "heretics" in the hymn developed from James Russel Lowell (beginning "Once to Every Man and Nation"),

"By the light of burning heretics
Jesus' bleeding feet I track,
Toiling up new Calvaries ever
With the cross that turns not back."

WHAT'S IN A NAME? "Money—if the name's right," quips George Huebner (right) of Palatine, who supplied one of the winning names in a national "Sleepstakes" sponsored by the Englander company, sleep equipment manufacturer. Huebner receives $500 check from Don Smith, divisional sales manager for Englander, who lives on Braburn rd. in Inverness. Huebner, an adding machine service man, says he had never entered a contest before, entered the Englander Slepstaks only at th last minute. He, his wife Helen, and their 2 children, Leah, 6, and Geoffrey, 3, live at Route 2, Box 271. What's the money to be used for? "Paying bills," replies Huebner. Contest was to name one of the c artooned "sleep characters" use by Englander in national advertising.

Rising Demand For Funds Boosting Interest Rates

Large-scale demands for credit are pushing interest rates up, the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago states in its monthly review, "Business Conditions." In fact, interest rates have advanced to their highest levels since the spring of 1953 and in some cases are higher than the early 1930's.

Reasons for the growing demand for funds, are the needs of business to: (1) finance record spending on factories and machinery slated for this year, (2) carry a higher level of inventories and receivables, and (3) bolster working capital balances. Such balances were made relatively inadequate as a result of the sharp upsurge in the economy last year.

BUSINESS LOAN totals have clearly reflected the expanded demand for bank credit. During March, business borrowings from leading city banks boosted commerical and industrial loans by 1.5 million dollars, more than four times the increase recorded in the same 1955 month.

Metals and metal products manufacturers have accounted for by far the largest portion of recent business borrowing. Increased loans to these firms presented over one-third of the March rise in outstandings and over three-fourths of the increase from the turn of the year through mid-April.

CLIMBING interest rates have been noted in all sectors of the money market. The most dramatic rise has taken place in yields on 5- to 10-year U. S. bonds, which have increased sharply in recent weeks. These intermediate-term issues hit the 3.2 per cent mark, highest in the postwar period. For the first time in more than 25 years intermediates surpassed the long-term government rate, despite a significant rise in long-term yields over the past few months.

Corporate demand for funds has played a "big role" in pushing up the yield on long-term U. S. issues. Moreover, yields on corporate securities have risen significantly as a result of the swelling demand for funds. By mid-April, Moody's index of Aaa corporate bonds had risen to 3.3 per cent, the highest such rate in almost three years.

MORTGAGE credit also has begun to feel the effects of increased capital needs of corporate borrowers. According to the bank, the large-scale demand for long-term credit may spell higher interest rates on mortgages in the coming months.

Short-term issues, too, are showing the effects of the stepped-up demand for credit. Rates on 3-month treasury bills rose to 2¾ per cent by mid-April, the highest rate since the "bank holiday" of 1933. (BB

Jet Age Conference In Chicago June 1

Illinois wing of the air force association announces it will hold a "Jet Age Conference" June 1, followed by its state convention, June 2 at the Sheraton hotel in Chicago. This meeting will explore the impact of modern aviation on the American community.

Special attention will be given to the barriers which threaten to handcuff aviation progress, both military and civil. Forum discussions will be centered on congested air bases and air lanes, on such problems as runway expansion, jet noise, concussion from high speed flight, etc. The paramount question will be: Have facilities and procedures kept pace with modern aviation equipment, including guided missiles? (WUS

Disabled Veterans Receive Help Here

More than 300 seriously disabled Illinois veterans have received Federal grants totaling more than $3 million for "wheelchair homes."

As of May 1956, some 525 Illinois vets who cannot get about without the aid of wheelchairs, crutches, braces, or the like, had established their eligibility for these special grants.

Of these, 309 already have received grants and either have moved into their homes or are in the process of building them. The remainder have not yet put their plans into effect.

VA defrays 50 per cent of the cost of "wheelchair homes" for eligible veterans up to a maximum of $10,000 under grants which were first authorized in 1948.

The average grant is $9,800.

June 15 Is Doughnut Day In Suburbs

Friday, June 15 the Salvation army will hold its annual "Doughnut Day' observance in the northwest suburbs. Volunteers will sell the familiar doughnut shaped tags which symbolize the Salvation army's program of help for the needy.

Last year each Doughnut day tagger collected an average of $14.09 in her coin box. This amount in the hands of the Salvation army, will provide one of these services: 7 days' care for a youngster at the day nursery; 3 days of hospital care for an unwed mother and her baby; a 10-day vacation for a youngster, mother or golden ager at the summer camp medical and dental care for one person for a year, or food, shelter and rehabilitation for a derelict man for 22 days.

AMONG THE institutions and departments sharing in the Doughnut Day funds are Camp Wonderland near Antioch, the south side settlement and day nursery, Booth Memorial hospital for unmarried mothers, Harbor Light center on skid row, the Family Service division, the Emergency Lodge for women and children, and Catherine Booth hospital for patients with long-term illnesses.

Community chairmen are: Mrs. Clarence W. Rehling, Mt. Prospect and Mrs. Harvey Jones, Rolling Meadows. The drive will be conducted in 150 suburban communities throughout the greater Chicago area. (B7

Elk Grove Moves To Protect Itself From Dazing Blows

The small community of Elk Grove last week moved to regain its feet after a series of dazing blows that threatened to send it to the canvas for good.

Some 2,000 people in the southern portion of Elk Grove township will at last have a voice to represent them in the fight to make their community a good place to live.

This voice will be the Elk Grove District 59 Men's association, which was formally set up at a meeting at the district school last Wednesday. The school district encloses 27 square miles of Elk Grove township including the unincorporated hamlet of Elk Grove roughly in the center.

Purpose of the association was outlined by the man who has sparkplugged its organization, school Principal Ernest Cavallo:

"We are going to work for the betterment of the entire community, not just the school," he said. "We are using the school district boundaries because this area has no other organized government."

CAVALLO told the 30 men at the meeting that these are the problems facing the community:

1) The Cook county forest preserve is adding 700 acres to its already extensive holdings, further cutting away the vital tax base of the district.

2) A prefab builder is trying to plant 600 homes in the district without donating land or money for schools.

3) The toll road slated to cross the district will take additional acres off the tax rolls.

4) A 300-unit trailer court to be built this summer may send as many as 200 children into the district's 1 school.

5) The city of Chicago is thought to have ideas of locating industry along Devon ave. near O'Hare field.

THE RESOURCES that a men's association can muster to do battle with such giants as the county government, the toll road commission and a large builder are indeed puny. But the enthusiastic, civic-minded men of Elk Grove aren't letting that stop them.

First step to be taken will probably be the incorporation of the village of Elk Grove. Cavallo said that by annexation the entire school district could later be taken into the village. This would bring the blessings of stricter zoning and building codes and pleas to the county or state carry much greater weight than pleas from a men's association.

AFTER ADOPTING a constitution providing for meetings on the fourth Wednesday of each month and $5 yearly dues, the group chose the following officers:

Frank Kessler, president; Vincent Nunamaker, vice president; Don Kreider, secretary; John Rogowski, treasurer; and directors Allen Busse and George Steffes (3 years), Douglas Weinert and Ralph W. Schnell (2 years) and Leroy Post and Donald Mollenkamp (1 year). (B7

Suburban Officials Quiz Sanitary Chief On Annexation Plan

Officials of Arlington Heights, Palatine and Barrington want to know what the effect of annexation of their towns by the Chicago Sanitary district would be before they take a stand on the matter.

Nearly all county towns not now in the district will be taken into the district in a November referendum, if voters so decree.

To find out what the annexation would mean, officials of the northwest area towns to be affected by referendums have sent a list of queries to Anthony A. Otis, president of the sanitary district. Otis will answer the questions at a meeting tentatively set for June 18.

HERE ARE the questions addressed to Otis:

1) If annexed, what provision will the Sanitary district make for the purchase of existing treatment facilities?

2) If anneved, what is the probable length of time before intercepting facilities would be built to northern border of Cook county?

a) to Arlington Heights

b) to Palatine

c) to Barrington in Cook county

3) Where would the funds to pay for this extension come from?

4) Will the district take combined sanitary and storm sewage?

5) What provision will be made to collect and treat sewage from the Cook county portion of Barrington?

6) What would operational plan be for villages with present treatment plants until interceptor is constructed?

7) During the interim period before an interceptor sewer is connected how will the Sanitary district finance and pay for the needed improvements and extensions of the existing treatment plants?

8) WHAT PLANS does Sanitary district have for serving present and future subdivisions in unincorporated areas.

9) Will the Sanitary district assume control and expense of maintenance of Weller creek and Salt creek?

a) before interceptor is constructed and in operation.

b) after interceptor is constructed and in operation.

10) Will the Sanitary district take over the operation and maintenance of all sewers within each respective village?

11) What will be the effect of this annexation on existing sanitary districts in unincorporated areas of the county?

12) If annexed, what would be your estimate of the note to be assessed against the territory proposed for annexation?

a) immediately

b) when intercepting facilities are completed and in operation.

Record Cows

Several more cows have completed official registry records of Holstein-Friesian association of America. Included are:

Creekdale Ollie Susa, owned by Missionary Sisters Servants of the Holy Ghost convent, Techny, who produced a total of 16, 893 pounds of milk and 690 pounds of butterfat after milking 2 times daily for 346 days. She was 6 years, 9 months old when this record began averaging 23 quarts daily throughout testing period.

Pala View Design Mabel, owned by William C. Brockmann & Sons of Palatine, produced a total of 10,099 pounds of milk and 381 pounds of butterfat after milking 2 times daily for 291 days. She was 3 years, 1 month old when testing began.

Navy Recruiters Extend Welcome To New Graduates

With graduation just around the corner, navy recruiters are again emphasizing the navy's high school graduate training program. It is designed to give the graduate training and education and to give the navy a "good sailor."

The navy states that under the provisions of this program, it will guarantee a service school to each high school graduate who qualifiesd. Qualification is determined prior to enlistment. To a certain extent, an enlistee may choose a particular field he is interested in. Choices are limited to general service, aviation, electronics, seaman, and hospital Corps.

ONE REASON for this limitation, says the navy, is that the average high school student does not know just what type of job he is best suited for. The Navy has a long established system of vocational guidance whereby each recruit is advised and assisted in selecting the vocation that best fits his qualifications. Persons enlisting under the provisions of the high school graduate training program, are always sent to a service school.

A recruiter is at the Arlington Heights village hall from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily, the Wheeling village hall Mondays from 9 to 11:30 a.m. and the Palatine post office Mondays from 12:30 to 3:30 p.m.

NEEDLE in the GROOVE

by PAUL LITTLE

Start that turntable spinning with some really terrific hi-fi jazz, and your first platter is Victor's 12-inch "Adventure in Time" by the famous Sauter-Finegan orchestra. This outfit, you'll recall, invaded Orchestra hall last season to join the Chicago Symphony under Dr. Fritz Reiner in an eye-opening performance of Rolf Liebermann's Concerto for Jazz and Symphony Orchestra (which is available on a 12-inch Victor lp - whose reverse side features Richard Strauss' "Don Juan" in a beautiful reading). And their new disc is an eye-opener too!

Emphasis is on percussion, with many novel sound effects, but all part of an ingenious theme — that of time. "Time Machine," for example, features Joe Venuto and Pete Dadderio ad libbing on two sets of drums, a captivating study in rhythm. There is "The Stone Age," based on blues, with Eddie Sauter at the piano, and such effects as water glasses and cymbals added for tonal spice. "A Chinese Painting" features Venuto on the marimba, while "Whoo Doo Voodoo" has the real voodoo atmosphere complete with screams! An intriguing novelty, Ruth York reading "The Minute," a poem by Karl Shapiro punctuated by the band's colorful mood-styling. Victor's engineers have made this a triumph of hi-fi sound, which doesn't hurt a bit!

DAVID BROEKMAN has been on TV with some fine musical arrangements, and now you can hear his excellent original compositions on Victor's new 12-inch lp, "Music from Wide Wide World." He leads his orchestra in the theme tune and the "Wide Wide World Concerto," a tuneful and modernistic bit you'll want to play over and over again. There's the excitingly langourous 'Samba of the Orchids,' the jaunty "Texas Cowboy," "Dialog for Lovers" and "Autumn in Nebraska." Melody and sparkling arrangement as regards orchestration, plus hi-fi sound, makes this a great platter!

Another excellent Victor 12-incher is "Skin Diver Suite," featuring the topnotch harmonica artist Leo Diamond, who plays with an orchestra led by Murray Kellner. The title number is Leo's musical impressions of a skin diver beneath the surface, what he sees, thinks about. Exciting, vivid, and that harmonica sounds like a whole orchestra by itself. Other tunes are "April Again," "Melinda," "Wendy," "Ride the Dark Hills Home." Gorgeous close-up sound; we've never heard a harmonica sound so sharp and natural!

Don't miss Harry Belafonte's great new 12-inch Victor disc (LPM-1248), "Calypso" with Tony Scott and his orchestra and Millard Thomas' richly satisfying guitar accompaniment "Man Smart, Woman Smarter" is worth the price of this lp alone, and "The Jack-Ass Song" and "I Do Adore Her" are calypso gems; here Belafonte shows his superb wit and communicative appeal that have made hin in a short year one of our greatest national entertainers. Beautiful sound!"

In classical vein, Victor deserves a loud "Bravo!" for giving us the disc debut of Mstislav Rostropovich, the 29-year-old Soviet cellist who, with Gilels and Oistrakh, represents topflight musical artistry. With the great Philharmonia Orchestra under Sir Malcolm Sargent's exemplary direction, Rostropovich plays the love-Saint-Sien's A Minor Cello Concerto, long a standard repertory favorite of concert cellist, and gives us the first recording of Nicholas Miaskowsky's Cello Concerto in C, Opus 66. Miaskowsky's music has been singularly neglected; he died in 1950, leaving 27 symphonies (the Sixth and Seventh were favorites of the late Dr. Frederick Stock of our own Chicago Symphony Orchestra). This concerto is a notable contribution to the cello literature; admittedly conceived as a musical expression of rejoicing at the end of World War II, it contains powerful and dramatic as well as lyric music. Superb technique, radiantly warm tone and fine musicianship characterize the soloist's readings of both works; a great lp!

UNICORN RECORDS of Boston bring us Volume Two of "History of the Dance Form" with Erna Heiller's splendid harpsichord performance; this disc is devoted to the bourree and the curante, dance forms of the baroque and pre-baroque era, and her crystal-line-clear, delightfully rhythmic readings of works by Bach, Frescobaldi, Buxtehude and Loeillet are projected with a crisp clarity of sound.

For you "pops" fans, we cite Bell Records, a division of Pocket Books, for their 45-rpm platters priced at only 39 cents: typical of their excellent releases are a pairing of "Rock Island Line" and "Hot Diggity" sung by Jimmy Leydon with Jimmy Carroll's orchestra; then there's "The Poor People of Paris" and "Lisbon Antigua" by Larry Clinton and his fine orchestra; and "Delilah Jones" (based on the theme tune from "Man with the Golden Arm") and "Man in the Grey Flannel Suit" sung by the Michael Stewart Quartet with the Jimmy Carroll orchetra.

Audrey Greinke And Edward Shell Marry

Miss Audrey Greinke, daughter of Mrs. Emil Greinke, 7 N. Maple, Mt. Prospect, and Edward Shell of Detroit, repeated marriage vows May 26 before the Rev. W. C. Koester in a 4 o'clock double ring ceremony in St. Paul Lutheran church, Mt. Prospect.

Carol Faulstich, soloist, sang "Our Father Who Art in Heaven" during the service and Robert Greinke of Mt. Prospect, gave his sister in marriage.

For her wedding, the bride wore a street-length dress with matching jacket. Her dress was fashioned with unpressed pleated skirt and a jeweled neckline. White roses and trailing ivy surrounding a white orchid, made up her bridal bouquet. Her only attendant was Mrs. Bob Jenssen of Chicago who wore a blue street-length dress with pink roses.

Following the ceremony, an open house for the immediate family and friends was held in the home of the bride's mother, after which Mr. Shell took his bride on a wedding trip to Florida.

The couple will reside in Detroit where the bridegroom is associated with the Ford Motor Co. as an engineer. The new Mrs. Shell, was graduated from Arlington Heights high school and was employed in the Board of Trade building in Chicago until her marriage.

Rae Schulze Is Now Mrs. James Anderson

Community Camera

The marriage of Miss Rae Estelle Schulze and James Willis Anderson took place Saturday, May 5, at 11 a.m. at the Faith Lutheran church, Arlington Heights, with the Rev. Allen Fedder of Des Plaines officiating. Following the double-ring ceremony, the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Raymond W. Schulze of East Euclid ave., gave a wedding reception and 1:30 p.m. luncheon at their home for 30 guests.

The bride's gown was of white chantilly lace, bordered at the neck and hem with pleated nylon tulle. The gown was also short-sleeved and ballerina length. She also chose a fingertip length veil which had a lace band bordered with pearls and she carried a ballerina bouquet of white Esther Read daisies. She was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Jane May of West Chicago served as maid-of-honor, and her gown was of tucked violet chiffon tulle, ballerina length, high-necked and with three-quarter length sleeve. She wore a matching headband and carried a violet corsage of Esther Read daisies.

The church altar was banked with white flowers and the greenery was of ivy. Mrs. Warren Kreft of Des Plaines sang 3 selections including "Wedding Benediction," "Wedding Prayer," and "The Lord's Prayer."

Mr. Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson of Gloversville, N. Y., had as his best man his uncle, Howard Willis of Chicago.

For her daughter's marriage, Mrs. Schulze chose a blue chantilly lace gown and pink accessories. Mrs. Anderson wore a grey lace over rose taffeta dress and her accessories were of navy blue. Both had white camellia corsages.

Mr. Anderson and his bride spent their honeymoon in Daytona Beach, Fla., returning here May 19 to make their home in Des Plaines. Mrs. Anderson, who is a graduate of DePauw university at Greencastle, Ind., is employed in Chicago by a business economist. Mr. Anderson is an alumnus of Syracuse university, Syracuse, N. Y. and is also working in Chicago for the William Greiner company.

2 Arlington Couples Tie For First In Duplicate Game

Two Arlington Heights couples, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Drummond and Mr. and Mrs. John Haas, tied for first place east-west in last Tuesday's duplicate bridge game. Both teams had 55 points to lead the 7-table field. In the north-south direction Mrs. Edith Cram and Mrs. Dorothy Fordham, both of Park Ridge, were winners with a score of 69½. Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Smith of Arlington Heights were second with 62½.

Arlington Heights Duplicate Bridge club was recently organized to provide tournament bridge competition and invites all interested players to come out and participate. The club meets each Tuesday at 7:45 p.m. in Arlington Heights high school cafeteria.

Edward Hughes Takes Chicago Bride April 14

In a double ring ceremony performed April 14 in St. James church, Chicago, Edward N. Hughes of Prospect Heights, took as his bride, Miss Lillian R. Kijak, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kijak of Chicago. Rev. Edward Przybylski read the 10 a.m. nuptial mass. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ladenburger.

The soloist sang "Ave Maria," "Panis Angelicus," and "On This Day O Beautiful Mother."

The bride, led to the altar by her father, carried a spray of roses centered with an orchid and wore a gown of chantilly lace.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Florian Krasicki and Mrs. Stanley Kijak, the bride's sister-in-law. Miss Pat Motyka served as junior bridesmaid. Their ballerina dresses were in green, pink and orchid and they carried roses. Flower girl was Kathy Krasicki, 5, who wore a blue dress and carried pink roses.

Peter Lewicki, the bride's nephew, 5, was ring bearer.

The bride's mother wore blue and had a corsage of white orchids. Mrs. Ladenburger wore a champagne embroidered satin gown and an orchid corsage.

Stanley Kijak and Florian Krasicki served the bridegroom as best man and usher.

Major hall in Chicago was the scene of the reception, attended by 300 guests.

The bridal couple honeymooned in Florida and are now at home in Villa Park.

Mr. Hughes is employed at Bruning Electrical company in Chicago. (Koston Studio

The Inner Voice

The inmate had his ear pressed up against the wall. "Listen!" he whispered. The new attendant listened intently, then finally confessed: "I don't hear a thing." "I know," the inmate said darkly. "It's been like that all day."

Favorites For Flavor

Chiffon pies are glamorous desserts with a practical value. They can be prepared well in advance, if kept in a cool place, which is certainly an advantage to a busy hostess.

The chiffon pie recipe we are featuring today, Pineapple Cream pie, has been shared with us by Mrs. Adolph J. Halwax. She makes it the night before the day it is to be served.

A light dessert which is not too sweet, this luscious pie is excellent served as a dinner dessert, with afternoon coffee or as an evening dessert.

It contains 4 eggs, sugar, unflavored gelatin, crushed pineapple and pineapple juice. The pie is topped with fluffy whipped cream.

The Halwaxes live at 706 S. Mitchell in Arlington Heights. They have 2 children: Jacqueline, 14, and Tom, 9.

Mrs. Halwax has just completed her term as secretary for the Junior Cotillion.

Pineapple Cream Pie

1 9-inch pie crust, baked
4 egg yolks
½ cup sugar
½ cup pineapple juice
2 teaspoons (one envelope) unflavored gelatin.
2 tablespoons cold water
1 No. 2 can crushed pineapple, drained
4 egg whites
½ cup sugar
1 cup whipping cream

Beat egg yolks and add sugar and juice.

Cook over a low flame, stirring constantly, until custard coats a spoon.

Soften gelatin in cold water. Stir into custard while custard is hot. Add drained pineapple.

Beat egg whites until stiff and gradually beat in sugar. Fold into custard.

Pour into baked pie shell and chill until firm.

Whip cream and spread on top of pie. Serves 6.

Wifely Charms

"My wife had a dream last night and thought she was married to a millionaire." "You're lucky! My wife thinks that in the daytime."

SERVICE LEAGUE of Lake Buff Children's home recently held its annual luncheon meeting at the Westmoreland country club, Wilmette. Plans were made by the league to sponsor the Vienna choir boys at Orchestra hall January 26 for the annual benefit of the home. The Vienna choir boys were founded more than 450 years ago. Today, through nearly 5 centuries, this tradition is still upheld and the choir provides entertainment with its unique program of music. From coast to coast the choir boys have won multitudes of admirers. Tickets for the benefit will go on sale in the fall. Left to right are Mrs. F. W. Holm, Arlington Heights; Mrs. L. W. Phinney, Des Plaines; Mrs. H. A. Cornelius, Arlington Heights; Mrs. R. Flaglor, Des Plaines, and Mrs. H. Broadwell, Arlington Heights.

Dolores Worley Becomes Bride Of John Welles

White peonies and gladioli decorated South Church Community Baptist, Mt. Prospect, for a full candlelight service May 19, in which Miss Dolores Jean Worley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett James Worley, 1320 W. Lincoln, Mt. Prospect, became the bride of John Wellington Welles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harold Welles of Evanston. The Rev. Edwin I. Stevens, pastor of the church, officiated at the 3 p.m. ceremony during which Robert Wolff served as organist.

"At Dawning" and "The Lord's Prayer" were the nuptial selections sung by Raymond Taggart.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a gown of chantilly lace over nylon tulle and taffeta featuring a pleated tulle panel in the skirt front. The bodice of her gown was made with a scalloped scoop neck, short, gathered sleeves and lowered waistline. The full gathered skirt ended in a chapel train and her tulle veil was held in place with a lace headpiece to match her gown. The bridal gown and headpiece were both designed by the bride and fashioned by Mrs. Ernest Mueller of Arlington Heights. Pearls, a gift from the bridegroom, were the bride's only jewelry.

The bride's cousin, Mrs. Jack Bowles was matron of honor wearing a full-length gown of white embroidered organdy over pale green taffeta with a pale green taffeta cumberbund. She carried a white basket with deep pink and white mixed garden flowers and wore a crown of matching flowers.

Mrs. Raymond Wiese, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Charlotte Smith, former roommate of the bride, Miss Marilyn Schlemmer and her twin sister, Mrs. Robert Anderson, close friends of the bride since grade school, were bridesmaids. Their gowns were identical to the matron of honor's gown and they carried light pink and white flowers. Their crowns were of the same flowers.

A garden reception at the home of the bride's parents, followed the double ring service. Mrs. Worley received in a street-length sheath dress of champagne lace over matching taffeta with champagne accessories. She sore a corsage of brown-lipped orchids. Mrs. Welles received in a mauve lace over taffeta dress with pink accessories and a corsage of pink tone orchids.

were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goodson of Florence, S. C.; R. L. Worley of Portland, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Worley and son, Forest Park; Mr and Mrs. S. Hoods of

Among the out-of-town guests Aurora and Mr. and Mrs. E. Arndt of Wilmette. Two hundred fifty guests, in all, attended the reception.

Arnold Larsen of Northbrook was best man and ushers were Raymond Wiese, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, James Worley, brother of the bride, Donald Wolf and James Brownlow.

Mr. Welles took his bride on a wedding trip to Lake of the Ozarks, Mo., and after June 1, the couple will be at home in Evanston. The bride attended Arlington Heights high school, Carleton college and was graduated from Evanston hospital where she is now assistant head nurse in the nursery. The bridegroom attended Evanston high school, Lawrence college and Northwestern university. He is now associated with Welles Auto Radio, Chicago.

Oat Silage Needs To Be Well Packed: Stock Expert

Oat silage put into a bunker, stack or surface silo needs to be especially well packed.

W. W. Albert, livestock specialist at the University of Illinois college of agriculture, pointed out that oat stems are hollow. Thus, oat silage is harder to put up than other forms of silage and needs to be well packed to cut down spoilage.

Some farmers have been timing their cuttings of oats and grass-legume mixtures to put alternate loads of each into the silo, Albert says. You can usually expect from 3 to 6 inches of top spoilage no matter how hard you pack the silage.

EITHER OATS or grass-legume mixtures cut at the right stage and allowed to wilt in the field before ensiling will keep fine without preservative, the specialist points out. However, 150-200 pounds of ground ear corn in each ton of silage is good insurance against spoilage and increases the feeding value of the silage.

Grass silage has more protein but less energy than oat silage but both make very good wintering forages for a cow herd. Oat silage needs less grain for winter supplement but may sometimes need a little protein supplement.

You can maintain the flesh of cows during the winter on grass silage, but you'll need to add grain to improve their condition.

For gains of over one pound a day, stockers will need three to four pounds of corn a day added to either oat or grass silage throughout the winter feeding season. (Fm

Cull Your Bull If He's No Good

If your herd bull doesn't have gold in his genes, you had better cull him if your are raising cattle as a cash enterprise says National Live Stock Producer, the nation's leading live stock magazine.

You've heard that "a good bull is half the herd." An inferior bull, however, is all the herd. This is understandable if you consider that two or three herd sires determine the quality of the herd. Two or three mistakes in sire selection can wreck your entire breeding program.

IT IS TRUE, of course, that almost any bull will freshen his cows. But this is not enough. A good herd bull will sire the kind of calves that are in demand for breeding or feeding stock and at the market place.

Many bull buyers place too low a price limit on good sires. A small increase in the value per calves will in most cases return the difference in the price of a top bull and an inferior one.

A good bull actually costs you nothing whereas an inferior bull is too expensive even if he were a gift. (Fm

DOWN ON THE FARM

with Your Farm Adviser

CARL F. MEES

This is the time of year when we see how beautiful everything is outside and how our fruits and vegetables begin to grow.

William Linneman brought me my first homegown vegetables last week. It was asparagus. If you want some really good fresh asparagus stop at some of our roadside stands and pick up some. Bill's stand is located on route 62 near route 83.

ERWIN ALTEN, on Wolf rd. near Wheeling told me his strawberries looked good this year. They are blooming now and would be ripe in two or three weeks. Erwin has Robinson berries. These are large sweet berries. In fact he told me last year at the beginning of the season it took less than 20 to fill a quart.

I'll keep you posted on when they are getting ripe. I am sure you will want to drive out and get some.

I RECENTLY talked to John Fairman, farm labor placement representative of the Illinois state employment service and he states that the migratory labor situation may be serious this year. The Texas employment commission had orders for 80,000 people and had only 20,000 available.

Refusals of group leaders that have worked here in previous years to come back are tripled.

If any farmer will need migratory labor during the summer it is important that you contact Fairman immediately otherwise you may not be assured of an adequate labor supply when you need it.

His address is: 5306 W. Lawrence ave., Chicago 30, Illinois. Phone: AVenue 3-2544.

TALK ABOUT speed, my good friend, Dr. Keith Wurtz, told me he was moving his lawn so fast the other day that a rabbit sitting in the lawn didn't have time to get out of the way of the mower.

You might as well slow it down Doc, because if you don't know it already, you'll soon learn that after the lawn is mowed, there are the storm windows to take down, the screens to put up, the shrubs to dig around, the flowers to put out, the garden to spade, etc. You'll never get it all done anyway.

At any rate I'm glad you were married recently, for if you had not, you wouldn't have had a lawn to mow or the good story to tell, but do slow down we don't want to go out of the rabbit business — Best wishes. (Fm

Paved Feedlots Are Profitable, Say Farmers

Paved feedlots are profitable.

Farmers say so and research proves it, according to D. G. Jedele, farm structures specialist at the University of Illinois college of agriculture.

If you want to get your animals out of the mud and onto a comfortable easy-to-clean feedlot, the first thing to do is to select a suitable location, says the specialist. Next, grade the lot and then set the forms.

CONCRETE is no better then the base it's poured on. If you build your lot on sandy, well-drained soil, you won't need a fill. But if the ground is half or more clay and silt, spread on a two-inch fill of gravel. You'll need 4 to 6 inches of gravel over poorly drained clays and organic soils.

The next step is pouring the concrete. If you decide on ready-mix, have it prepared like this: six gallons of water for each sack of cement and not less than six sacks of cement for each cubic yard of concrete.

For farm-mixed concrete, add five gallons of water to each sack of average moist aggregate. If the mix isn't coming out just right, vary the amount of aggregate — never the amount of water.

CURING the concrete properly is just as important as the other steps. Slow curing makes a stronger, longer lasting floor than letting the concrete dry too quickly.

One way to cure slowly is to spread wetted straw over the concrete from time to time for a week after pouring. (Fm

1956 Corn Program Changes Announced

The 1956 corn program wil have 2 important changes affecting eligibility for price support, according to Carl M. Bormet, chairman of the agricultural stabilization and conservation committee.

"In the first place," the chairman said, "there will be no aggregate compliance—the corn acreage on each farm will be considered sparately in determining compliance with the farm corn acregae allotment as a condition of price-support elibility.

(Under former programs, a producer could qualify for price support under certain conditions where the underplanted acreage on farms in the county in which he had an interest in the corn crop equaled or exceeded his share in the overplanted acreage on all such farms.)

"AND, IN THE second place," Bormet added, "price supports will be available to producers in commercial area counties who are determined to have exceeded their corn acreage allotments, but the rate will be five-sixths of the county rate to producers who comply with their corn allotments. All Illinois counties are in the commercial corn area."

Bormet explained that this latter provision applies also to producers who grow corn on farms inside the commercial corn area which have no corn allotments. In such an instance, the farm is considered to have an allotment of zero acres, and any corn acreage on the farm is therefore in excess of the farm allotment.

Provisions of the 1956 corn program which are similar to those under the 1955 program include:

The opportunity for producers with excess corn acreage to adjust their acreage to the corn allotment for the farm within a specified time limit, price-support loans at a relatively higher rate to producers on farms where the corn acreage is determined to be within the corn acreage allotment for the farm, loans to producers who unknowingly harvest in excess of the allotment and the right to appeal. The Confident Wife

Wife to husband: "Of course I spend more than you make, dear! I have great confidence in you."

DeKalb Crop And Weather Report For Corn Growers

Favorable weather with drying winds, sunshine, and light scattered showers covered most of the Corn Belt in the third week in May.

These conditions enabled the amount of corn planted to almost catch up to the same date a year ago. On May 23, this year, the crop was 80 per cent planted according to DeKalb's corps of reporters as contrasted with 90 per cent last year.

ONLY LAGGING areas in planting were in Indiana, Ohio and Michigan where rainfall has been excessive and temperatures low.

The northwest Ohio area where there is plenty of level, black cornland reported only 5 per cent planting. Southern Illinois was slow, too, as persistent rains kept their flat, poorly drained soils too wet to work.

The factor which is still threatening the corn crop, however, is the low subsoil moisture in the west half of Iowa, Nebraska, southern Minnesota, Northwest Missouri and west central Illinois.

These sections have had just enough rain to enable soil to be worked down in good shape for planting and to start germination, but the basic moisture deficiency has not been remedied.

Strong winds on the weekend of May 20, picked up much surface soil moisture in most Corn Belt areas. The critical period for the moisture deficient areas will come in July when temperatures rise and corn's demand for moisture is greatest.

SCATTERED CUTWORM damage causing a small amount of replanting is reported in central Illinois, Nebraska and Missouri. Besides these areas, corn was first in coming up in Southern Minnesota and Northwest Iowa, where germinating temperatures were quite favorable.

One feature of this year's May weather has been its rapid contrasts in temperatures. Chicago had a temperature of 92 degrees May 22, followed by a sudden drop to 39 degrees on the morning of May 24. Many areas reported scattered frost and light ice in northern Illinois and Wisconsin on May 24. (Fm

Home May Be Sweet — But Not Safe!

Poets and song writers aren't facing facts when they idolize home as a safe and peaceful retreat from a troubled world, says O. L. Hogstett, University of Illinois safety specialist.

Past accident figures, indicate that about 4,000 farm residents will be killed in home accidents this year. And falls will cause the biggest share of this number.

EIGHTY per cent of all falls occur on the same level. Most falls are caused by such personal factors as hurry and carelessness, taking chances or unsuspected hazards.

Some common home accident hazards include stairs used as a storage place for everything from food to dust mops, throw rungs at either the head or foot of stairs, stairways with no handrail or with poor lighting, boxes on chairs to reach high places and grease or other liquids spilled on the floor.

Removing these hazards plus avoiding the "human factor" will help you stay off the accident list.

Way Back When

"Our Aim: To Fear God, Tell The Truth, and Make Money," — H. C. Paddock, 1898-1935

Happenings 10, 20, 30, 40, And 50 Years Ago This Week

50 Years Ago

June 1, 1906

Miss Martha Russel, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russel, was united in marriage to Christ Schoenbeck, youngest son of Mrs. Charlotte Schoenbeck, by Pastor Chas. Noack, at St. Peter's Lutheran church, Arlington Heights, Thursday, May 31, 1906 at 1 o'clock a.m.

After the ceremony,which was witnessed by many fiiends, the wedding party was conveyed to the old Schoenbeck homestead, three miles north of Arlington Heights, where the wedding celebration was held during the afternoon and evening. John Schoenbeck, with his $1,000 team, lead the procession. Willie Heineman and Fred Witt drove the next two gaily bedecked rigs and were just in their element, others will be pleased to do a like service for them in due time. This is a happy union of health, wealth and two prominent families of early settlers, highly esteemed by everybody. One hundred invited families gladly participated in the festivities of this joyous occasion and brought many fine presents as lasting tokens of their esteem for the happy couple who will have many heirlooms to hand down to their posterity. The weather was fine.

The long tables under a large tent would accommodate over 100 people at each sitting. Four meals were served to the large crowd. Everybody was made welcome and there was a great abundance of choice victuals for everybody, likewise liquid refreshments. Mrs. Hartman, the popular caterer from Schaumburg, superintended the cooking, so of course everything was prepared in the best manner. Willie and Albert Kastning furnished good concertina and violin music and the barn floors were crowded with merry dancers. It was a brilliant affair from start to finish; and will long be a pleasant memory for their guests. Mr. and Mrs. Russel are happy that their daughter made so wise a choice. Mrs. Charlotte Schoenbeck has just reason to be happy and feel proud. She is the mother of seven stalwart sons and four worthy daughters; all are farmers in good circumstances. William, Henry, John, Fred, Herman, Christ, Mrs. Henry Hograver, Mrs. Charles Clausing, Mrs. Henry Clausing, and the youngest soon to be a bride, all live in Wheeling township; Louis is also a prosperous farmer, residing in Schaumburg. Grandma Schoenbeck has done her duty and can now take life easy spending her days, rejoicing her children, grandchildren and friends by frequent welcome visits. The Herald joins their many friends in best wishes for happiness of the newly wedded pair. We are proud to count each and all of Mrs. Schoenbeck's eleven children among our gilt-edged subscribers.

Schaumburg — Lulu has a very serious case of palpitation of the heart; but is improving rapidly with the aid of Dr. Leander's tulip (two lip) salve. Her figure too grows ever more slender, due no doubt, to the constant pressure of a strong arm.

Palatine — Decoration day dawned after a hard rain, with no sign of sunshine, but by noon old Sol appeared in time to make the day ideal. Owing to the misshipment of the soldiers monument, the unveiling was postponed. Over 175 school children were in the line of march and the large attendance at the M. E. church, placed the village's patriotism above question. The church decorations were especially fine this year.

On the way to the German cemetery, the veterans stopped at the bedside of Conrad Engelking who is seriously ill, to let him know that he was not forgotten, the band playing softly during the call.

Arlington Heights — Arlington showed her usual patriotism on Decoration Day. Busses met the 9 a.m. trains from the city and conveyed school children, citizens and visitors to the graves of soldiers and others were decorated. The people assembled at Arlington Hall, at 2 p.m. and listened to a good address by a speaker from the city.

Palatine — The great (?) carnival has come and gone. The show pepole must have been reading old time stories of the country rube, when they arranged such a show as they tried to pull off here last week. Not content with the legitimate dimes that might be secured, they had several games of chance that were purely gambling and then they expressed their displeasure in no uncertain terms when the "rubes" would not bite. They had a quick transformation act that delighted all. The cannibals (only ones in captivity) were two husky colored men by day time. Even the dancing girls advertised for Saturday night failed to arouse much interest among the boys of the town.

Geo. Wilson surprised his friends last week by quietly slipping away to Wheaton with Mrs. Sophie Timmerman and getting married. To jocular remarks of his friends, George's only reply is, "Am I not old enough?" Both he and his bride have many years ahead of them and it is but fitting that they should decide to pass those years together.

Roselle Mills, and elevator, which have been famous 30 years or more for good works and popular prices now lays in ashes. We understand there was no insurance on the building and only a few thousand on the stock and adjacent property, so we would estimate the net loss at not less than $50,000. Roselle has no water works system but few small towns have such a supply of good wells.

Rain drenched motorists, skidding about on Cook county's narrow gauge roads, found the holiday home rush more of a grouch producer than usual this year, although county highway and village police made heroic efforts to keep the caravans untangled.

The near cloudburst that let loose shortly after 5 o'clock complicated the jam produced by the new highways for two principal reasons. Danger of skidding made impossible the usual practice of driving bumper to bumper and thousands of motors were killed after ignition systems became water soaked. These factors, added to the frantic anxiety to reach home before possible further storms could blow up, made the holiday a notable one from the imperfect outing viewpoint.

The Louis Busse branch of the Busse family, which were pioneer settlers in Elk Grove township celebrated the birthday of Grandma Busse and enjoyed a family reunion last Sundy at the home of August Busse upon the farm where Mr. and Mrs. Louis Busse (grandparents) made their home for 22 years from 1880 to 1902. Grandma's birthday comes during the winter and it was fitting that it be postponed until summer time. Thus the celebration was the official observance of her 80th birthday.

The annual junior-senior hunt was held Friday night. According to the rules the losers must pay for the dinner following the hunt.

The girls of the senior class were to hide before the boys did, because as the rules state, it was necessary that the boys report to the Juniors at the high school gym at 9 p.m. The juniors had engaged many spies, almost the entire high school. The senior girls were trailed from 5 o'clock on. There was stationed at almost every corner in town a car and every senior's home was watched. In spite of all the endeavors of the junior spies, the senior girls, after much planning to get away, escaped the keen eyes and wits of the watchers. Some of the girls assembled at the home of Olivia Struve and some met with Emma Housing. They all succeeded in getting unobserved to the Elk Grove school house, which was their rendezvous.

At 7:45 the truck of the Arlington Seating company, with the rear of it loaded with school desks and a canvas covering the top and sides drew up to the school house. The girls climbed out of the back window into the truck. The load proceeded through Mt. Prospect and down the highway to the office of the Arlington Seating company. It then drove into the garage, which is connected with the office by an inside door and then the girls crawled on their hands and knees the length of the office.

At the west end of the office is a trap door through which they lowered themselves under the floor. It was 8:10 when they were all hidden. At 8:30 they saw through one of the air holes, a car load fo spies arrive and two of whom remained on the premises. At 9:20 the girls heard a blood curdling yell, "Come on gang. We've got them." Their hopes sank for they thought the senior boys were caught.

The boys with the assistance of Geo. Schneberger (a loyal alumnus who every year helps the seniors hide) had escaped the spies until they arrived in the yard of the factory. While walking up the track, a spy, an alumnus, stepped out and said, "Aha, we've got you." This ended in a spirited encounter between the senior boys and two members of the alumni. The seniors won out, receiving only a few scratches but wishing since that they had put the boys who had had their turn at the hunt last year, in the dry kiln to sweat out their disloyalty to the senior class.

Arlington Heights is assured of its recreational park. There were 861 votes cast; of which 448 were in favor of the project, 398 against.

Full speed ahead will be the motto next week on Arlington Heights' city park project now being carried forward by local WPA workers. The higher acceleration on the park project will be made possible by the transfer to the park of 48 workers now engaged in installing the west side storm sewer which will be complete within the next few days.

Miss Betty Sadecky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Sadecky of Arlington Heights and Anthony Koske of Elk Grove were quietly married by Rev. Stier at the St. James parsonage at 1:30 Sunday. It was that evening that the reception was held and attended by fully 500 guests. The wedding cake, prepared by Mr. Biederbeck, stood 41 inches high.

The annual graduation exercises of the Palatine township high school will be held June 3 in Cutting Hall. The class this year will consist of 42 candidates for diplomas, just one member less than last year's class, which was the largest in the history of the school.

Frank C. Rathje, well known to the people of northern Cook and Du Page counties, was elected president of the Illinois Bankers association at the annual convention of that organization. Mr. Rathje spent his boyhood in the vicinity of Roselle and Bloomingdale and owns and operates a farm in Schaumburg township, near the intersection of rt. 58 and Plum Grove road.

Miss Alice Goerger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Goerger of Elk Grove, surprised her friends with the announcement that she had become the bride of Fred Hacker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hacker of Des Plaines. The marriage took place at Crown Point May 2.

Harold A. Thiemann, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Thiemann of Roselle, was elected national secretary and treasurer of Beta Sigma Phi fraternity at a convention held recently at Champaign. He graduated from the University of Illinois three years ago and now lives in East St. Louis.

The stork paid no heed to the picket line surrounding Elmhurst hospital Monday when he crossed over to deliver his "wares." Two Arlington Heights families, Vance Folkman and Walter Schroeder, are beaming broadly over the arrival of a son and daughter respectively.

Memorial services in memory of Adolph Busse of Elk Grove will be held this Sunday. The service will honor the memory of AOMB 1/c Busse, who has been missing since May 1, 1945, over the Philippines.

Among June brides are Talitha Lyon of Arlington Heights who became the bride of Herman Buchen of Morton Grove; Myrtle Ruth Long who married Richard E. Sellers, both of East Maine; LaVerne Moeller, Wheeling, who was the bride of George Rosset, Jr. Mabel Toppel and Melvin Becker exchanged vows as well as Esther Adeline Grandt and Bernhardt Koeppen of Wheeling.

All the teaching staff at the Prospect Heights public school were given a $300 a year boost in salary by the Board of Education.

Palatine high school expects to award diplomas to 62 persons at the graduation exercises scheduled for Tuesday, June 4.

Baccalaureate services for the Bensenville high school graduating class of 52 will be held Sunday evening in the auditorium of the Bensenville Community high school.

Here Are Hints For Parents To Make Summer Camp Meaningful To Child

When your child sets off for camp this summer, he wont' just be headed for a casual vacation.

He'll be sailing into one of the greatest, most important adventures of his entire life. And according to Charles McClellan of the Northwest Suburban YMCA, it's up to parents to guarantee the success of this high adventure.

"Going to camp is a big event in the life of our kids," Mrs. McClellan said, "even though they might act blase or offhand about it."

"Boys and girls who strike off from their homes parents and old friends. And it's not always easy to leave behind everything that's secure and comfortable. This is all the more true if it's the first time a youngster has been away from home.

"THAT'S WHY we should work with our children now," he continued, "before they go to camp. To a large extent our grown-up attitudes will determine just how much, or how little, they'll benefit from their summer camp adventure. As the song goes, we parents 'gotta accentuate the positive and eliminate the negative'."

McClellan offered parents of camp-bound children several specific suggestions about how to go about accentuating the positive.

He emphasized that these basic pointers apply equally well to any camp a youngster attends, whether or not it's sponsored by the YMCA.

Before You Send Your Child To Camp:

Talk with him about what you hope he'll accomplish this summer. Want him to learn to swim or canoe? Or polish up his tennis? Provide the camp director with any information that will help him understand your child better and make camp a richer experience.

TELL YOUR youngsters what a great time they can have at camp. Be positive and enthusiastic. Talk about all the new friends and new adventures they'll enjoy. Don't let them think for a minute they won't get along just fine during their stint away from home.

Be sure to supply all the essential equipment your camp recommends. Concentrate on sturdy, knockabout clothes rather than showy, spectator garments. Have every article clearly marked to prevent loss and confusion. And let your child do his own packing, too, with as little help from you as possible.

If your campers are 11 or younger, it might be a good idea to give them several envelopes or postcards pre-addressed to you.

NEEDLESS TO SAY, try hard to keep your children free from any racial or religious prejudices. Experience proves that young people can always work and play together happily and productively, regardless of different backgrounds.

When You Arrive At Camp:

First, get acquainted with your son's or daugther's counselor. But be careful not to monopolize his time as he must also talk with several other parents.

On the first day of camp try not to stay too long. If you can leave just as your youngster is beginning some activity, such as dinner or swimming, the break will be a lot easier for him.

How You Can Best Cooperate With The Camp Management:

Be sure to observe the specified camp visiting days. Tell your child in advance the approximate time of your arrival. And be sure to notify him if you can't make it after all, so he won't be disappointed. Don't say anything that might make him the least bit homesick. And keep your leave-atking short, to minimize the tension of saying goodbye.

FIND OUT ahead of time just what the camp's policies are about notifying parents in case of illness. Be sure to leave an address where you can be reached in an emergency.

Obey camp regulations in sending food to your youngsters. It's better to send fruit than sweets. And if you mail food direct to the counselor, he'll distribute it at the proper time and encourage the practice of sharing with others. Don't supply your young campers with a batch of comic books that will take time away from other things.

Feel free to correspond with your child's counselor or the camp director. At the end of the season you might also wish to request a report on your boy's or girl's progress and adjustment.

If you feel your camper might have trouble with homesickness, put off visiting him at camp until he's had a chance to overcome it.

IT'S BEST never to remove your child from camp until you've first had a talk with the director. Keep in mind that a homesick camper will often exaggerate or misrepresent the actual situation. Conditions alter completely in a boy's mind as he overcomes homesickness and adjusts to the camp situation.

Learn how to prevent homesickness by wirting cheerful, optimistic letters. And have confidence that the camp management will do a conscientious job of building up self-assurance in your youngsters and thus help you train htem for greater independence.

Lessons In English

by W. L. GORDON

Often Misused

Do not say, "John chanced in yesterday." It is better to say, "John HAPPENED TO CALL yesterday."

Do not say, "Both horses ate equally as swift, or "Both girls are equally as beautiful." Omit "as" in each of these sentences.

In good usage, "each other" applies to two only. "One another" applies to more than two. "The twins resemble each other." "The students competed with one another."

Do not say, "He is in a bad fix." It is much better to say, "He is in a bad CONDITION."

Avoid the use of "already" and "yet" when the auxiliary of the verb is "did." Do not say, "Did you finish the work already," or, "Did you finish the work yet?" Omit "already" and "yet."

Do not say, "They will comply to our wishes." Say, "They will comply WITH our wishes."

Often Mispronounced

Extricable. Accent first syllable, not the second.

Perquisite. Pronounce purr-kwiz-it, accent on first syllable.

Beneficent. Pronounce bee-neff-i-sent, accent on second syllable.

Decade. Pronounce deck-aid, accent on first syllable.

Poilu (French soldier). Pronounce pwah-loo, accent on second syllable.

Saudi Arabia. Pronounce first word as Sah-oo-di-, accent on second syllable.

Often Misspelled

Oar (rowing implement); or (conjunction); ore (metal). Assassin; observe the four "s's." Gentile, ile; genteel, eel; gentle, tle. Timber (wood); timbre (quality of tone). Laboratory; not "labratory." Numskull; not "numbskull.

Word Study

"Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day. Words for this lesson:

FANTASTIC; imaginary, illusory. "His was a fantastic tale of adventure."

IMPASSIONED; moved to a strong feeling; ardent. "His impassioned words brought tears to the eyes of his listeners."

REGENERATE (verb); to produce anew; to give new life, strength, or vigor to. "One new idea may regenerate a man."

ONEROUS; burdensome; oppressive; troublesome. "The man has for some time been trying to pay tnis onerous debt."

LITERALLY; with close adherence to words; word by word. "It is difficult to translate literally some poets' writings."

VERIFIABLE; capable of being proved to be true. "We want verifiable facts."

Driving A Bargain

"How is that second-hand car you bought?" "I've just realized how hard it is to drive a bargain."

Proud Resident

First I believe that I speak for the majority of the people of Rolling Meadows when I extend a vote of thanks to those Good People and Merchants of Arlington Heights who have treated us as intellegent, "Good Neighbors."

HOWEVER, several times I and many others have been treated to degratory remarks from some few merchants and people of Arlington Heights.

Just during the past week I chanced to overhear the following remark, "Well, with these new shipping centers opening, maybe it will keep some of the Trash of Rolling Meadows from cluttering up our stores."

There are good and bad in every community as most people are well aware, Arlington Heights have their share also.

However, if you want to call people who are honest enough to want a home out of the crowded conditions of the city, for themselves and their children and yet who are honest enough to admit that they cannot afford the $20,000 and $30,000 homes which are on the market today, trash, then possibly the above statement would be true.

WHY NOT drive through Rolling Meadows and see the spirit of the people and the conditions of the established lawns and homes of the residents of this community.

Here is a sample of the people who live in this young progressive community.

On our street live a sheet metal worker, a public accountant, a commercial artist, a factory worker, a TV repairman, an office salesman, a personnel manager, a mailman and a milkman.

This is just a sample of one street. These people are the backbone of America. If they are as called, then thank God, I am one of them.

The editor has permission to reveal my name if asked.

LAST WEEK'S HEADLINES

Resume of front page news that appeared in various editions of Paddock Publications and other newspapers of the area that will keep readers informed on headline news of their neighbors.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

Most employees of the village of Arlington Heights were tentatively scheduled for wage increases of $240 a year at a meeting setting up a 1956-57 budget.

WHEELING

Wheeling school district finally received an offer of land for a school from its largest subdivider, E. A. Herzog. However, the offer may have to be refused, according to an editorial in the Wheeling Herald, because of its poor location and small size and also because the voters have already approved purchase of another site.

PALATINE

Approval was given last week to a $400,000 building program for Palatine Methodist church. First step will be the erection of a new sanctuary at the northeast corner of Plum Grove and Wilson for an estimated $140,000.

Plans for construction of a dial telephone building to serve all of Palatine beginning early next year have been announced by Illinois Bell. A 2-story structure will go up at the northwest corner of Brockway and Johnson sts.

ELK GROVE

Plans to expand Busse forest preserve to take in 700 acres of choice farmland are being protested by school authorities in Elk Grove township. Ernest Cavallo, principal of school district 59, said that expansion will remove valuable farmland from the tax rolls at a time when the school's financial needs are greater than ever before.

MT. PROSPECT

Conditional approval of on-street parking meters was included in a policy program adopted by the Mt. Prospect Chamber of Commerce last week. The conditions were that the village immediately acquire available lots near the business district for off-street parking and that it follow through on its promise to provide new street lighting in the business district.

DUPAGE COUNTY

Addison and Bloomingdale townships smashed all previous building records in April as 240 building permits with a valuation of $3,130,420 were approved.

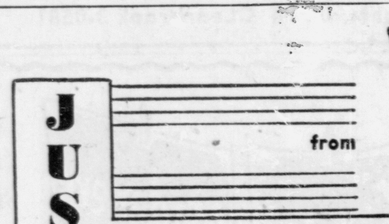
Tax rate increases for Fenton high school were turned down by the voters by narrow margins. Some activities may have to be curtailed next year as a result, according to the district superintendent.

A new post office was dedicated in Bensenville Saturday.

A master plan for all of DuPage county is 75 per cent complete, planner Carl L. Gardner, Chicago, told a special county board meeting. Deadline on completion is June 30.

DES PLAINES

Mayor Kenneth Meyer has set June 11 as the date for a meeting of officials of Des Plaines, Park & Associates to discuss a proposed plan for 5 northwest towns to join and bring Lake Michigan water to the area.



JUST from Patty McArdle AROUND THE CORNER

Dear Peg:

He's beautiful! He's healthy! And he's as sweet and cuddly as a baby can be! We adore our young son. As you might expect, after keeping us waiting three extra weeks when he finally came, he came so fast that we scarcely made it to the hospital. I guess I couldn't believe that it was actually happening and not until the young fellow gave me absolutely no doubt that his arrival was impending, did I screech. "Bob! Let's go! Now!" Poor Bob scrambled sleepily to his feet from the couch where he'd been dozing and started to fumble for the keys in his pocket. In a state of utter confusion, I grabbed my coat, stuck my lipstick and comb into my purse and, still in houseslippers and without the suitcase, fled for the back door. As we left, I could hear Mother talking excitedly into the phone, "They're leaving right now, Dr. Solomon! You'll have to hurry! They're going out the door right now! I think she's going to have the baby very soon!"

Fortunately, we live only 6 blocks from the hospital — but each block seemed like a mile early Sunday morning. We pulled up to the ambulance entrance — expecting, for some reason, that door to be the most likely to be open. Well, they weren't expecting any ambulances so that door was locked. We rushed around the corner of the building to the front door and were met just inside by a poor tired doctor, who I'm sure was on his way home. He took one arm and Bob took the other and the three of us managed somehow to get to the elevator and up to the maternity floor.

I THINK MY FAVORITE obsetrician, Dr. Solomon, must sleep in his clothes, otherwise I don't see how he ever arrived at the hospital from the distance he lives in time to deliver the baby. But, within just a few minutes after I reached the delivery room, there he was coming through the door. With a wonderful sense of relief, I knew everything would be all right now and I guess our little "Paddy" did too—waiting only for Dr. Solmn to quickly change clothes—he arrived! It was 1:25 a.m. when we walked (I should say ran) through the front door of the hospital and it was 1:45 a.m. when Robert Patrick McArdle III said "Hello" to the world.

As you know, life in the hospital is not exactly restful, but it is relaxing. There may be noise, activity and babies crying (I'm right across from the nursery), but it's all noise, activity, and babies crying that someone else has to take care of — not you, you can always shut your door and stick your nose in a book. The food is delicious. One of my favorite pastimes each meal from the selections on the menu for the following day. I'll never lose my excess poundage (of which there is much—despite Dr.'s admonitions) while I'm in this hospital!

I'M GETTING VERY ANXIOUS to go home and I know Megan and Bridget are much more anxious to have us get home. Mother brought them over several times to stand in the yard below my second floor window and say "Hello." Each time, they asked me to bring the baby to the window (that request would really "throw" the nurses) and can't understand why I'm spend-

How can anything so tiny as you, slaaping here on my shoulder,
Fill my heart so ful of love and tenderness?
And how can you so small make me fee so needed and loved?
Little son, with your head like warm velvet nestled against my cheek,
What are you dreaming?
Is it of where you have been—of stardust and angels —
Or where you are going—of woodlands and brooks?
Do you know, little one, you're the miracle of love—
The miracle of a trianble affair—
The love that flows through a husband and wife to God.

My love, Patty

QUITE CONTRARY

BY MARY

Women are mighty funny creatures. We repeat, mighty funny and we don't mean funny ha ha but funny odd. We can see any men who might be so hard up for reading material that they might read this nodding wisely in agreement. We can see any women readers bristling.

For instance, take the matter of dress. Most of the time the suburban housewife takes to her blue jeans, pins her hair up on top of her head, pats a little lipstick on her mouth and whisks through the day's duties feeling well dressed. She has trained her husband not to look in her direction and make uppleasant remarks about her appearance.

He is so well trained that when she gets herself dressed up to the nines, hair and eyes shining, he does not look in her direction or make a pleasant remark about her appearance. This cuts her to the quick and means that we can certainly dish it out but we find it a little hard to take. Whatever it is.

Then there are her reactions on the subject of children. These are very interesting indeed. Mother may sit for hours complaining to all who will listen about the foibles of her young. She can get quite vehement on the subject and might even get around to asking for advice on their care and upbringing. For goodness sake, don't give her any advice if you want to remain a speaking acquaintance.

Mother may speak about the youth she is trying to guide through the path of life in any derogatory fashion she chooses. But, woe unto the intrepid soul who so much as mentions that junior is something less than perfect. Mammy is up in arms immediately and hastens to point out so many of junior's good points that intrepid soul is all ready to go out and vote for him for president. Of something. Of anything.

Just watch a woman whose small child has wandered from his own yard in search of adventure in the wide world. Tears stand in her worried eyes, her brow is more than furrowed in care, it is positively plowed up. She scurries around the neighborhood from door to door getting more frantic all the time.

And when the little rascal shows up does she clasp him to her, weeping grateful tears? She does not, she just up and smacks him a good one for running off in that unseemly fashion and snaps his little arm out of its socket as she marches him back to the range.

Now don't get the idea, fellas, that you can do without us critters because we won't have it. And we're organized too.

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

BY LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

The lure of the open road is calling. There is in man a longing for the undiscovered, the challenge of the wide open spaces; and the millions of cars on the highways during the summer months attest the restless spirit of adventure that lives in the heart of man, even though most of his waking hours are spent within the four walls of an office, or amid the hum of factory machinery.

It is this restlessness of the average American which enabled him to span a continent, subdue its savage inhabitants, and establish a strong nation. It is this same restless spirit which now urges our scientists to search the heavens for a likely planet upon which to land our first space ship, which may even now be in the making. Curiosity and love of adventure did not die with Balboa, Sir Franics Drake, Columbus, or the early Pilgrims.

THIS SPIRIT has enabled we Americans to build the greatest nation in history. But unfortunately, our search has been centered on material things. The number of men searching for spiritual frontiers are far outnumbered by those seeking to serve material wants. It is man's nature to seek first the welfare of the body, and the satisfaction of the senses.

In this respect he is still in the elementary stages of development; and while passing through this stage he is going to miss much of the joy that comes from spiritual union with God. When man discoveres the perfect joy of those who are more devine than physical, the era of war, the ravage of disease, the pangs of hunger and the inner longing which has kept him forever restless and dissatisfied will have been overcome. Man is not wrong in wanting material things: for God intends that we should have and use them properly; but he is wrong in not seeking diligently for the spiritual life which will help him steer a sure course along the road he is intended to travel, the road back to God. - Master Planning And Public Opinion
- Meetings Urged
- North DuPage Data

Citizens attending the special county board session last week to hear the preliminary report on the DuPage master plan from Carl Gardner learned that they will have ample opportunities to speak their pieces in connection with what's to happen to this land around us.

Gardner was only into his presentation a few moments when Seymour Waterfall, board chairman, interrupted briefly to beckon: "You folks in the audience are welcome to join your supervisors in coming up to study the map of your township closer when it comes up."

A noted planner, Gardner didn't enlarge or comment on this invitation, but it was obvious later that he was happy to talk closer with the people themselves, answer their queries and seek out suggestions from these people in regard to proposed future development of their neighborhoods.

The fellow in the background who will always sigh with impatience and urge that the business proceed without so much deliberation and delay couldn't find any backers . . . it was a completely wholesome situation as the people themselves got as close to the picture as anyone could.

And this, it was quickly disclosed, wouldn't be their only chance at expression of hopes, feelings, etc. Henry Holm, the supervisor who heads the board's master plan committee, urged strongly that as many communities as possible hold their own meetings on the master plan.

"We will be glad to have a member of the committee at your meetings," he announced, "to tell you what you may wish to know and receive your suggestions in regard to your neighborhood." Some programs of this type have already been held and he suggested that others be presented quickly.

This was in consideration of the fact that Gardner announced that the plan would be ready for final presentation to the county board at the end of June. "I think it will be best to have these neighborhood meetings before then," it was suggested by Holm.

While it wasn't strictly a public affair, members of the wood Dale plan commission met Monday evening with county representatives on the master plan. The Wood Dale commission was represented at the Wheaton session by Ernest Olson, Harry Parsons and John Rahe.

It's, of course, natural that the public should be sought out when the setting of policy or statute involving all the county or large parts thereof is being considered, but it is not something that Waterfall HAD to suggest. He rates our congratulations for his consideration.

The maps Gardner presented showed the present state of each township in respect to development, zoning and geological makeup. He reviewed some preliminary facts and figures that had already been gathered as he reviewed each town and what has been studied to date. As for north DuPage . . .

Gardner pointed out that Wayne township is our only town without a municipality and estimated that the entirely rural population now stands at about 2,200 with 660 homes. He stated that things being considered include expansion of the county airport, industrial areas and forest preserve tracts.

George Pratt, Wayne supervisor, announced that he has appointed a town advisory committee which will make recommendations to Holm. He announced that a tract of approximately 250 acres in the northwest part of the town may be developed for park facilities by the county or state.

Rural Bloomingdale township has increased by over a thousand in population from 3,867 in 1950 to 4,887 persons at present, Gardner declared. There are 1,481 homes outside the incorporated areas of Roselle and Bloomingdale, he said. This town is now one of the fastest growing in the rural regions.

Studying the Bloomingdale map, Supervisor Clarence Schmoldt urged that ample space be put aside for parks, schools and churches. Gardner assured that such considerations would be among the foremost.

Addison town—outside its six incorporated villages (including parts of Villa Park and Elmhurst)—now has a population of 9,000 people who occupy 2,737 dwellings, according to Gardner. Aside from the development near Addison, he termed the rural sectors as developed very sparsely for industry.

Gardner and Supervisor Fred Koebbeman seemed to agree that an ideal area for the increase in such development might well be the property now occupied by Elmhurst airport. It was indicated that either the stretch along Lake st. or that on the south side of Grand ave. deserved consideration.

While most of the discussion dealt with the rural localities, Gardner assured that the municipalities were also being strongly considered in the preparation of the DuPage master plan. "They will probably benefit the most in the long run," he stated.

Special Election For 2nd Building Is This Saturday

Residents of Itasca public school district 10 will vote Saturday.

THEY WILL BE ASKED to consider the proposition of issuing $180,000 in bonds to cover the cost of construction of a second school to serve the area at a special referendum. Polls will be open from 12 noon to 7 p.m.

VOTING WILL BE in the present building located at North and Linden sts. Members of the board of education are solidly behind the project, pointing out that current facilities are now virtually taxed to the limit and will be hopelessly overcrowded if a second unit is not built as quickly as possible.

TENTATIVE plans call for the second building to be constructed near the south end of the village park that extends southward from Irving Park and Bloomingdale rds. The property is already owned by the board of education. Goal for completion of the second school, if okayed by voters Saturday, is September of next year.

31 Pupils To Graduate From Roselle School

Thirty-one boys and girls will be graduated from the eighth grade of Roselle public school June 4 at 8 p.m. in the play assembly area of the Parkside school.

THE PROGRAM for the evening shows that the processional will be the traditional "Pomp and Circumstance" by Elgar as played by the senior orchestra of the school. Following the processional, American Legion post no. 1084 will present colors after which the American Legion auxiliary, post no. 1084, will dedicate and present the new American flag to the school.

The Invocation presented by Rev. Herbert F. Langdon, pastor of Roselle Methodist church, will be followed by the presentation of the American Legion citizenship medals made by Al Schalk, citizenship chairman of the local Legion post.

The graduating class itself will present 3 musical selections including "The Heavens Resound" by Hofer-Beethoven, "A Merry Life" by Denza and the class song, the students' own composition. In addition, the class will present a selection of choral readings including "Abraham Lincoln, 1809-1875," "In Time of Silver Rain" and the Twenty-Fourth Psalm.

ADDRESS for the evening will be given by Dr. John H. Fadenrecht, dean of the faculty of Wheaton college, while the presentation of diplomas will be made by George E. Hall, president of the local board of education. The benediction will be conducted by the Very Rev. Monsignor Joseph A. Wagner, pastor of St. Walter's church, while the recessional played by the orchestra will be the "March from the Magic Flute" by Mozart.

Okay New Itasca Fire Station By 16 To 1 Margin

Saturday's special referendum vote on the proposed issuance of $37,000 in bonds to finance the construction of a new fire station for the Itasca fire protection district carried by a margin in excess of 16 to 1, members of the volunteer department were happy to learn this week.

THE FIREMEN have been eager to express their appreciation and thanks to the many citizens who exhibited the foresight in realizing the lackings of facilities that have had to do in the past. The new station will be built just west of the old in the Itasca village hall.

THE APPROVING vote in the village portion of the protection district was 241 to 13 while the rural sector in the district okayed the proposition, 34-4. The total vote was thus 275 in favor and 17 against. Proposals for a new truck and station were okayed in Roselle two months ago by landslide votes.

Radar Nabs Speeders

Thirty-three speeders nabbed by state police radar along Lake st. in Bloomingdale township recently paid fines ranging from $6 to $30 plus costs before Justice of the Peace Kenneth Winters, Keeneyville, Saturday.

Addison Township Man Shoots Wife Shielding Brother

A 40-year old Addison township father of three is being held in the county jail at Wheaton under $25,000 bond on a charge of assault with intent to murder.

RAYMOND ROSE went on the shooting spree during a family dispute early Sunday with his wife, Elanor, also 40, the victim.

Although not seriously hurt, she had to be treated for pellet wounds on the right arm, shoulder and face after Rose went after her brother, James Freier, with a 20 gauge shotgun. She was wounded when she stood in the line of fire in the yard at the Rose home, 18W233 Sidney rd., south of Addison, police said.

THE INVESTIGATING deputies received twoversions of the argument that led to the shooting. Mrs. Rose said it concerned her husband's drinking tendencies, but he maintained that Freier, who escaped injury, was attempting to have their children taken from them.

The youngsters, all tots, ran to a neighbor's house when the shooting broke out. Rose drove away following the shooting but was arrested the next morning when he returned. His wife, in the mean time, had been taken to Du Page Memorial hospital, Elmhurst.

Granted Leniency In View Of Jail Time

Robert Hill, 25-year old resident at rte. 59 and Lake st., was fined $150 plus costs in the Keeneyville court of Justice of the Peace Kenneth Winters Saturday and put on two years probation in connection with the charge of drawing checks to defraud.

On the approval of State's Attorney William Guild, $100 of the fine was written off in view of the fact that Hill had been confined in the county jail at Wheaton unable to make bond following his arrest May 10 and the charge was reduced to disorderly conduct.

Jailed at Wheaton when he was found drinking in his car recently, Earl Campbell, RR 1, Roselle, was fined $50 and costs Saturday by Judge Winters. He was also placed under two years probation.

Wood Dale To Buy $3,000 In Gravel For Non-Arterial Streets

The state has approved the allotment of $3,000 for the purchase of gravel to be used on all of Wood Dale's non-areterial streets, it has been disclosed by Mayor Herbert Gilbert.

Bids are now being sought for the project. Okay from the state was necessary since the money will be taken from Wood Dale's motor fuel tax disbursements.

Bloomingdale School Case Skids Further Into Oblivion

The longer the Bloomingdale school territory transfer case remains up in the air the further it seems to be getting from solution.

THIS WAS QUITE evident Monday night as new complications were unearthed at the latest in the long run of public hearings on the problem was conducted by the county board of school trustees at Wheaton.

Petitioners continuing to seek the transfer of an area in and around Bloomingdale village from Glenbard high school district to north Du Page district 108 winced when they heard that they might not be welcomed by the latter as things stand at the present.

W. C. WOLF, Itasca, president of 108's board of education said that the group had studied the latest transfer petition which omits a part of the area formerly included in the transfer plans which coincide with the boundaries of grade school district 13.

"We are not in favor of the petition as it now stands," he announced flatly. Wolf stated that the 108 board would prefer al of district 13 in the transfer request or at least an area with more definite boundaries than that now being proposed.

More materially, Mondays' hearing evolved around pro and con petitions regarding the change with the meeting actually called to consider the former which was filed by Attorney Philip Locke, Glen Ellyn, May 15. The opposition petition was presented to the trustees just before the hearing began.

IT WAS ACCOMPANIED by requests for revocations of their signatures from 33 persons who originally signed the pact requesting the transfer, according to Attorney Harry Peters, Wheaton, representing opponents of the change who would like to remain in the Glenbard district.

As the result of these late developments, Locke sought and received a continuation to allow him to study the revocation requests and the opposition petition which questions the legality of 8 signatures on the pro petition. After some deliberation, the next session was set for next

Medinah Man Jailed On Charge In Elgin

A 51-year old Medinah man who Elgin police say was found there lying near the railroad tracks is now working out a $100 fine in the Kane county jail. He is James W. Burke.

He was found guilty of disorderly conduct late last week in the court of Justice of the Peace C. B. Johnson, Elgin. He will remain in the jail for three weeks unless his fine and court costs are paid before then.

One Minor Accident Occurs In Bensenville

Police at Bensenville were called upon to investigate only one minor auto accident last weekend. It took place Friday at 11:20 p. m. at York st. and Irving Park rd. There were no injuries.

Two Local Grade Schools Looted During Weekend

Both the Marquardt and Queen Bee public grade schools in north Du Page were burglarized sometime between noon Saturday and Monday morning, but the thieves' loot totalled little more than $12 in currency, according to the sheriff's office at Wheaton.

ENTRANCE to the Marquardt building, Glen Ellyn and Army Trail rds., east of Cloverdale, was gained by breaking a window on the east (front) side A cabinet in the office and desks in two classrooms were pried open to yield about $10, it was disclosed.

A NORTH side window was forced at the Churchville school, Church rd., south of Grand ave. Also broken open were the door to the principal's office, a supply closet and a desk, but for all this trouble the burglars made off with only about $2.

One Dead, 11 Injured In 2 Spectacular Local Crashes

Two spectacular accidents on north Du Page highways brought death to 1 person and injuries to 11 others in the past week.

THESE WERE THE most serious of 31 mishaps investigated by deputies for Sheriff Stanley Lynch in which a total of 71 vehicles were damaged.

Mrs. Dorothy Radcliff, 46, Lombard, was killed at 8:20 p.m. last Thursday when the car in which she was riding collided with a tractor and trailer truck on its way to the Chicago market with a load of hogs. The accident occurred on Lake street at Berteau avenue, just north of Elmhurst.

SERIOUSLY HURT were her son, Robert 18, who received a fractured pelvis, and the driver of the car in which they were passengers, William Murphy, 46, Lombard. He sustained possible fractures of 7 ribs and an elbow laceration. A total of 6 cars and the truck were involved in the crash.

Cut and bruised were the 4 youngsters of Ray Weiss, 36, Melrose Park, Dennis, 5; Joan and Jean, twins aged 2, and John, 10 months. He was not hurt. All the injured were taken nearby to Du Page Memorial hospital, Elmhurst, according tto investigating sheriff's deputies.

The other 4 autos were all unoccupied and parked at the time. Owners were listed as: George

BENSENVILLE In The News

Visit Zoo

Children in Mrs. Wooley's and miss Pittman's kindergarten rooms of Tioga school spent Thursday at the Children's zoo at Brookfield. Several mothers from both rooms accompanied them.

Home From Germany

Rudolph C. Schoppe received his honorable discharge from 2 years service in the army May 22 at Fort Sheridan, arriving home from Germany, where he had been stationed. Before his departure home he took a 20-day leave, touring Germany, France and Barcelona, Spain. He left Spain homeward bound and stopped off at Southampton, England. He reported a very interesting and wonderful trip and no doubt the best part was when he arrived home.

Cub pack 28 will go, via bus, to see Cinerama Holiday at the Palace theatre in Chicago Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Luebking Jr. and family have moved into their new home on Barron st.

Mrs. Fred Heuer, S. May st., celebrated her birthday Saturday with relatives from Green Bay and Madison, Wis., as guests for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Wolfe have returned from a 2,000 mile tour of the eastern states. Some of the highlights were the 3-tier overhead bridge at Cleveland, Niagara Falls, sky bridge at Buffalo, riding through the Allegheny mountains and coming back the skyway, over the top of the scenic Blue Ridge mountains. They also visited the Hawks Nest in West Virginia, which is higher than the Royal Gorge.

Mrs. Elmer Harkness was ill at home Sunday and Monday. Friends wish her recovery to be speedy so she will soon be out and about.

Brother Dies

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hoover and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hoover were called to Davenport, Iowa, due to the sudden death of their brother who died last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Thiemann, William Eickelman and daughter, Rose, were relatives entertained in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sundeen in DeKalb Sunday. They also attended the dance recital in which Debbie Sundeen participated.

Best wishes for speedy recoveries go to Priscilla Willey, who has been ill with an ear infection, to Judy Teufel, who has measles, and to Jimmy Glidden, who decided to have measles with complications. Hope all will be better than new after these bouts.

Happy birthday to Lois Schoen, whose happy event occurred Monday.

Fenton high school prom has come and gone and is now a happy memory for most. Although there were several auto accidents before all returned safely to their homes, thank goodness that they consisted of 'tin, and not skin!'

In Piano Recital

Phyllis Westby, Nancy Borone, Cathleen Garry, Louise Knowles, Judy Martin, Robert Guido, William Knuth, Judy Vestal, Karen Graf, and Janice Fork were among the piano students who took part in a pian recital of Mrs. Louis Zander's students in the Presbyterian church in Itasca Sunday afternoon.

Due to illness, Susan Yarke could not take part.

Mr. and Mrs. John Froelich entertained a group of friends at their home last Sunday in honor of their son, Tommy's, first communion the previous Sunday.

THURSDAY, MAY 31, 1956

Visit Chicago Church

A group of UCYM young people from local churches, Elmhurst and Wood Dale, left Sunday by bus for a most interesting church in Chicago's not so fortunate neighborhood down around Kenwood and Ellis. Here they found hospitality and much of interest and certainly gained a revaluation of their own blessings through much that the Rev. Nishimoto explained to them. Too bad that more young people were not able to attend for these young people had hoped there might be a 'big crowd.'

Junior Choir Program

Sunday afternoon at 3:30 the junior choir of the Evangelical United Brethren church on Lincoln st. gave its spring program of special music, both vocal and instrumental. Their fresh young voices and the zeal with which their songs were delivered made many of us who attended feel like 'it is truly great to be young.' Refreshments were served by mothers of these young people immediately after the program. This program was given by the young folks to try to help raise funds for a much needed piano.

GAA Holds Banquet

The GAA annual banquet was held the evening of May 16 at Fenton high. After dinner a short musical program followed and immediately afterwards installation of officers and initiation of new members. Officers for the next year are the following: president, Colleen Cappelen; vice president, Judy Padour; treasurer, Nancy Drinkwater; secretary, Gloria Von Werder; publicity chairman, Anne Linden, an dsocial chairman, Carole Courtenay. Sunday, June 3, Pack 28 will hold a picnic at Salt Creek forest preserve on Addison road in Wood Dale. The north section has been reserved for Pack 28. Each family is to bring their own basket lunch. Games for young and old will start at 3 p.m. These will be followed by dinner, then awards will be given out around a campfire in the evening. Those boys receiving awards will be listed at a later date.

Why Bake?

Attention, ladies! No need to bake for the weekend. Just stop at the Jewel food store Friday from 4 until 9 p.m. and purchase a cake, pie, or coffee cake, all home made. Bensenville Community church is having a bake sale, and women of the church are baking their prize cakes and pastries for the sale. You will undoubtedly find your family's favorite cake or pie, so do stop at the Jewel Friday.

Progress For Dinner

Four Mohawk couples ended a very pleasant evening Saturday by viewing colored movies of interesting vacation trips taken in recent years by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lowe. The group arrived at the Loew home on Church road for dessert, coffee, and movies after having first met at the David Labbe home for cocktails, then at the Richard Muellers for salad, and the Robert Youngs for the main course.

Welcome Newcomer

Mrs. Alvin Jeffery entertained several neighbor ladies at a coffee klatsch last Thursday at hr home on S. Walnut st. in honor of Mrs. Craig Fruehling, a newcomer to Bensenville.

Measles Victims

Do you see red spots before your eyes? Think you're growing old or your eyes going bad on you? Don't! It's just some of those plagued measles again!

Thought you'd outgrown them or were immune, didn't you? Well, brothers and sisters, you've got another think a'comin' — if you haven't had 'em lately you're just not in style! To bring you up to date, there are 2 varieties — the 3 day kind and the regular 7 day variety offered in many combinations — the one kind only (that's the best! — 3-day especially) or the 3-day plus a few days of school and then the 7-day kind or vice versa. Another choice you have is whether you want to get sick first and then break out or just all of a sudden (usually in a boring class or a very warm room) suddenly sprout red spots to the amusement and amazement of your neighbors. We can't say, "Take your pick" because they don't ask — they just come and don't even ask if you're old enough to vote!

Give Shower

Mrs. Ernest Krenzin and Mrs. Roger Patterson were guests of honor at a personal shower and a grocery shower, respectively, given by ladies of Bensenville Bible church Thursday afternoon in the church parlors. The Krenzin family has been residents of Bensenville for the past 2 years while Mr. Krenzin has been taking missionary training at Moody's Wood Dale airport. They have taken an active part in church work at the Bible church during their stay. About June 9 they expect to leave for Fullerton, Cal., for a 3-6 month period to complete their preparation to go to South Africa or wherever the mission board chooses to send them to serve as missionaries. They have 2 sons, Roger, 9, and Ronnie, 6, whom they expect to accompany them on their mission. The Krenzins home is near Hutchinson, Kan. Mr. and Mrs. Patterson and their 2 month old baby make their home in Wood Dale for the present while Mr. Patterson is a student flier at Moody airport. They, too, expect to serve as missionaries in a few years. Both ladies received many gifts played and refreshments served by the committee in charge.

Graduate Wins Award

Barbara Vestal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Vestal of S. Ellis st., who was graduated from St. Lukes' hospital school of nursing Friday evening was awarded the alumni association award in memory of Harriet Fulmer at the graduation exercises. This award is given to the graduating nurse with the highest scholastic standing in the class; with it went a check for $100.

An open house for a few friends was held Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Vestal in honor of their daughter, Barbara's graduation from St. Luke's school of nursing. Relatives from Michigan and Minnesota were also present CITIZENS AND OFFICIALS watch as the colors are raised by village scouts with the help of the Tioga VFW post's color guard Saturday at the dedication of the new Bensenville post office. The new, enlarged and modernized structure is now open for business at Green and Addison sts.

TIOGA POST 2149 NEWS

Neither Rain, Sleet or Snow

Last Saturday Tioga Post participated in the dedication of the new post office building here in Bensenville. A misty drizzle dampened the ceremony but the stalwart color guard consisting of Joe Dean, Roy Edgerton, Bob Gallas, John Martens, Pete Martyniuk, Irv Seymour, and O. D. Bud Burchill carried on in true Spartan fashion. Whilst on the rostrum Commander Rollicking Ray Soden delivered a pleasing concise address.

The safe drivers association is putting on a real campaign to acquaint the local citizenry with the horrors and tragedies occurring on our highways. Clem Spokes asked the post for a volunteer representative to meet with the association and bring periodical reports to the membership. In the meantime an elaborate display complete with accident photos has been set up in Harold Keeling's Gift Shoppe window. In addition a realistic reminder lies in the shopping plaza where a wrecked vehicle, one of our highway's contributions, lies in grim realism.

More than 1,100 tomes of erudition were collected in the past newly organized, put on a spirited drive to acquaire any and all books to launch an active library campaign. Mayhaps not all the paper backs depicting corpses in various throes of homicidal fury will find their way to the library shelves but rest assured the books collected will be carefully screened according to content and text. Sleuth Shekelton served sturdily on this committee.

Carnival chairman Dick Daehn informed the membership that the annual Sweepstakes will feature a Buick special hardtop, Ford station-wagon, a color TV set, an Ampro tape-recorder, and 20 Motorola clock-radios. The usual $2 or 3 for $5 donation will prevail with only 5,000 ducats available.

This shapes up as a real big deal and members are urged to take advantage and get their tickets early.

June 24 a two ball tournament will be held with Post and Auxiliary members teaming up to compete for prizes. Play will start at 4 p.m.

Bought a Poppy?

The greatest year yet says Chuck Thies, post poppy chairman. "But the gals did the real work, Auxiliary chairman Helen Keeling along with Dorothy Bielak, Sue Martyniuk, Helen Ohse, and Eunice LaGrippe really did a bang up job. Believe me the Post owes these gals and the others who stood at various stations throughout the village a big hand." A real early bird appeared in the shape of Dick Rogers who wandered over to aid the gals at 6 a.m.

New members, Edward J. Hede, Jerome Lewandowski and Robert T. Mulligan.

Ether Echoes, Comrad Art Vallas is returned from Resurrection hospital and recuperating at home.

Moments to Remember

This coming Saturday our Auxiliary gals celebrate their 20th year as feminine aides "Supreme" to the VFW Tioga Post. Our Auxiliary is among the finest in the nation. Their numerous citations attest to their accomplishements and endeavors and Tioga Post may well count their blessings when reviewing the wonderful work these gals have done in the past twenty years.

Auxiliary Observes Anniversary

The Tioga post ladies auxiliary will celebrate their 20th anniversary with a dinner-dance Saturday, June 2, at Tioga home on North York st., Bensenville.

The VFW auxiliary was organizdd in 1936 with 21 charter members. These and the past presidents will be guests of honor Saturday evening. The department president and the fifth district president will also be on the program.

The slogan of the auxiliary is "To give aid and assistance to the communitty, care for the disabled veterans of our hospitals and for the widows and orphans of our soldiers, especially those in our home at Eaton Rapids, Mich."

Bensenville Girl Scout News

Vacation season is approaching but this never means a lull in girl scout activities of local troops. Many troops are planning group activities for the summer months in order to keep the girls together — day camping, established camp for quite a few of the older girls and days of fun at Greenewood and Salt creek and other local spots. We know you will all have a wonderful and eventful summer but please keep us informed so that we may print news of the summer's activities.

This week brownies and girl scouts participated in the Memorial day parade and ceremonies which are held in the village every year. The girls love to march in parades and always consider it a privilege to be asked.

Our very nice Girl Scout Council place mats are still available to anyone who would like to use them for a luncheon or dinner party for a large or small group. There is no charge and may be obtained by calling me, Mrs. C. Zingraf, at Bensenville 656.

Well, first it rained, then it stopped; then it rained again. But somehow this didn't seem to drench the spirits of the brownies of troops 483 and 641 as they gathered with their leaders, parents and other members of their families for a cook-out at Salt creek park May 26. Some dry wood was secured and fires were started in spite of the rain and dampness which seemed to stimulate appetites. The menu consisted of kool-ade for the children, hot brownie stew cooked over a campfire and served on hamburger buns, hot coffee, and of course, the ever popular brownie favorite "some-mores." Mothers and fathers and little sisters and brothers agreed that even in the rain picnics can be fun. Leaders for troop 483 are Mrs. Roy Edgerton and Mrs. Robert Olsen. Mrs. Phillip Battaglia, leader of 641, was assisted by troop committee member Mrs. Raymond Bocek.

Troop 91 is planning to spend some time at Camp Greenewood in the near future. We sincerely hope that there will be an improvement in the weather.

Because of the holiday, the deadline is a day early this week so perhaps we will have more news next week. Please get your news items in by Tuesday morning so that we can include them in next week's column.

Cipek and Deputy Sheriff Lawrence Murphy, 50, both of Elmhurst; Daniel Wochmick, 30, RR 1, Roselle, and Charles L. Guanthner, 35, Berwyn.

WILLIAM MURPHY was reportedly westbound on Lake and trying to turn left into Berteau when his car collided with the truck being driven in the opposite direction by Raymond D. Chamberlain, 35, RR 1, Marengo. Weiss was on Berteau and halted for the stop sign at the intersection, the police stated.

The impact demolished the Murphy auto and sent it into the parked cars. The truck overturned and crashed into the Weiss vehicle. The inquest into the death of Mrs. Radcliff has been postponed until the others have recovered sufficiently to testify.

FIVE PERSONS were taken to Delnor hospital, St. Charles, after the 2 cars in which they were riding collided and overturned Sunday at 8:53 p.m. at Gary road and North avenue, south of Cloverdale. Deputies said the auto of Barbara J. Luecht, 16, De Kalb, rolled down the highway like a ball.

She suffered deep scalp wounds while 2 companions, Dolores Carey, 19, Sycamore, and Ralph Richardson, 25, De Kalb, were treated for scalp cuts and hand and arm abrasions and possible head and chest injuries respectively. Miss Luecht was driving west on North, police reported.

Wood Dale Flashes

Installed

Harry Gottmann, Wood Dale road, was installed as prelate of Portage Park lodge 220, Loyal Order of Moose, April 29. Mr. Gottmann has been very active in the lodge, working with the teenage group, on many committees and as publicity chairman the past 2 years.

June Poduch, Chicago, will become the bride of Robert Herbold, Wood Dale, rd., Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Church of the Holy Ghost. Joseph Herbold will be best man for his brother. After a family dinner party at Plentywood farm the newlyweds will drive to Texas on their honeymoon.

Twenty-five of her little neighborhood friends helped Janice Cesar celebrate her fifth birthday last Saturday at her home on Catalpa st. Because the guest of honor is a ballet student, her cake was decorated with ballerinas. Each guest was given a doodle for his bicycle as a favor.

Good Fishing

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Semrau and Mr. and Mrs. George Ecklund have returned from a vacation in Fort Lauderdale and Miami, Fla. They particularly enjoyed deep sea fishing and one day they caught 55 dolphin. Mr. Semrau caught one which weighed 26 pounds so he is planning to have it mounted. Apparently he can't get enough fishing because Monday he left to spend a week at Escanaba, Mich., at his favorite sport.

Baby Girl

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Stessl, Addison rd., are parents of Dorothy May born May 22 at Memorial hospital, Elmhurst. Other children are James and Tom.

Wood Dale Garden club has been invited to submit a shadow box at the flower show being presented at the Mohawk school, Bensenville, Saturday. Mrs. Frederick Brems, Mrs. Clark Gilmore, and Mrs. Arthur Ferguson are in charge of the entry.

Cubs Meet Friday

Cub scouts of Pack 34 will meet in the Church of the Holy Ghost Friday evening at 7:30. This is the last formal meeting of the year and cubs are urged to come and bring their parents.

Buc-O-Wow Sunday

The cub scout buc-O-wow shich was planned for last Saturday and had to be postponed because of inclement weather will be held Sunday, June 3, at 1 p.m. New location for this get-together will be on Route 83 north of North ave. There is a picket fence around the field.

Graduation Tonight

Linda Gewecke is valedictorian of the eighth grade graduating class of Wood Dale public school, which will be held at 8 o'clock this evening in the gym, is Douglas Blazek. There will be songs by the class and the band and orchestra will perform. Clarence I. MacSwane will present graduates to Robert W. Manly, president of the school board, who will award diplomas. It is interesting to note that this year's class will have 65 members in comparison to last year's class of 37.

Pupils Dine, Dance

Members of the eighth grade graduating class had a party at the public school Saturday night. Mrs. Charles Lemcke and Mrs. Frank Salandra planned the affair and were assisted by mothers of the graduates. A roast beef dinner was served in the gym decorated with diplomas, mortor boards and balloons. Afterward games, dancing and a songfest were enjoyed. Invited guests were Supt. Clarence I. MacSwane, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Doane, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Maisch, and Jerome Place.

New Grandchild

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick H. Miller, De Kalb, are parents of Kathleen Lorraine born May 8. Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson, Wood Dale rd., are new grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lemcke, Grove ave., were called out of town last weekend because of the death of Mrs. Lemcke's grandfather.

Special Services

Geraldine Richter will have the honor of crowning the statue of the Blessed Virgin at the Church of the Holy Ghost this evening. Girls of the graduating class will form a guard of honor in their pastel formal dresses.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wagenknecht, Argos, Ind., will arrive in town tomorrow to visit Mr. Wagenknecht's parents, Cedar st., for a week.

Home For Summer

Miss Fay Vietzen will arrive home this weekend from Purdue University, Lafayette, Indiana, to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Vietzen, Wood Dale rd.

To Tour Europe

Two members of the faculty of the public school will have an exciting summer. Woodrow Trotter and Frederick Blow will fly to Europe for a tour of 23 countries. Their first stop will be Shannon, Ireland, and after that they will they will pick up their car. If the political situation permits, they will go to North Africa after seeing Austria, Greece and Turkey. They hope to work their way up through Italy, after crossing the Mediteranean and then through France and back to England. They will fly back to the United States and have their car shipped.

Donate Books

People who have books to donate to the library are asked to bring them to the Spotlite grocery today through Monday. If you have books and cannot manage to get them to the designated spot, call Mrs. Peter Petros who will arrange to have someone in your neighborhood pick them up.

This Week In Town

Tonight, Graduation, public school.

Friday, Cub Pack 34.

Sunday, Cub Scout Buc-O-Wow.

Tuesday, Lions club; Altar and Rosary society; American Legion.

Seven DuPage Towns Get Sales Tax Allotments

Eight DuPage municipalities, including Bensenville and Roselle, shared in the state's disbursements of the one half per cent retail sales tax for March, it has been announced by the department of revenue in Springfield. A total of 707 communities received a total of $3,177,762.

THE REPORT showed that 780 Illinois cities and villages have now passed laws to take part in the program, but 73 have yet to receive their first allotments. The March payment to Bensenville hit $2,413 while Roselle was credited with a $900 disbursement.

LARGEST payment in DuPage was the $7,469 to Downers Grove while Wheaton ranked second with receipt of $5,933. Payments to the other county communities were as follows: Naperville, $4,063; Westmont, $2,251; West Chicago, $1,824, and Winfield, $248.

Thief Captured In Wood Dale Indicted In Kane

Two of the 14 indictments voted by the Kane county grand jury in Geneva last week charged Gerald Lee Wilwert, 22, Park Ridge with Dundee burglaries. He was captured by Wood Dale police late last month as he was breaking into the filling station of Bennett Bost in the village.

WILWERT was subsequently turned over to county authorities at Wheaton where he confessed to some dozen burglaries in north Du Page and elsewhere. Among the local spots in his path were the Medinah post office and the Warnimont feed supply and a gas station, both in Bloomingdale.

MUCH OF HIS loot was recovered when he permitted deputies to enter his quarters in a Park Ridge rooming house. The Kane county indictments stemmed from burglaries of a bakery and coal company office in Dundee. Wilwert will probably be charged with the Du Page offenses later.

Personal

Mr. and Mrs. August Lichthardt have sold their farm and will have an auction June 5. They will be moving to Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Garvunick were visiting with friends in Chicago.

A happy birthday is extended to all who are having birthdays. John Freise, Friday; Herman Winkelhake Jr. and Margie Luerson, Sunday; Mrs. Lydia Winkelhake, Monday. Valerie Gardner, Thursday, and Mrs. Marion Ravagine, Saturday.

Free Family Service Program Pamphlet

Leaders of DuPage civic, church, social, service and other such organizations were advised this week of a free pamphlet on programs available from this county's Family Service association. These pamphlets may be secured by calling the organization's headquarters at Glen Ellyn 2340.

"It is a headache to keep coming up with worthwhile, stimulating and interesting programs," an association official points out. "Family Service now offers a choice of timely, informative, discussion-provoking programs which can meet the needs of almost any group."

Will Filed For Elgin Attorney Killed In North DuPage Mishap

An estate of approximately $105,000 was last week filed in the Kane county probate court at Geneva for Arthur L. Paulson, Elgin, who was fatally injured in a two-car collision at rte. 53 and Army Trail rd., east of Cloverdale, earlier this month.

The car of the prominet Elgin attorney who was 70 collided with that of Albert A. Kohler, 19, a resident near the accident scene, who escaped unhurt. Hearing on the will, which lists $100,000 in personal property assets and $5,000 worth of real estate, has been set for June 7.

Boys from the 13 year old bracket are Billy Siegbahn, Donald Bernard, Ronald Bjorklund, John Stevenson, David Pawlak, Stephen Whipple, Don Camphausen, Bill Whitlock, Lloyd John Peterson, Donald Mensching and James Huisings.

Explorers

Explorers of post 56 won a class A ribbon at the recent camp o-ral. June 8, 9 and 10 there will be a camp o-da-ko-ta for explorer scouts only called the explorer olympics. This will consist chiefly of contests such as swimming, hiking and canoeing. The boys will take practice hikes until this time carrying 35 pounds of equipment as this will be one of the requirements of the contest. The boys are very pleased with the canoe which was given to the group by Ray Gustavel. They plan to take it down to the creek soon in order to learn how to get in and out and so forth correctly.

Congratulations

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. John Fridlund, 414 N. Elm, on the birth of an 8 pound 6 ounce baby boy, Paul Erik. Paul was born May 22 at West Suburban hospital in Oak Park. His grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. Vern Fridlund of Chicago and Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Belle, also Chicagoans. Paul has a brother and sister, John and Christine.

Confirmation

The following young people were confirmed May 20 at Bethany Evangelical United Brethren church: Janet Cosman, Gloria Goszko, Judith Kessler, Billy Siegbahn, Richard Keyworth, Michael Kramer, Sharon Kredler, Arthur Legnaioli, Bernice Pfluger and Richard Pfluger.

The North DuPage Ministerial association is sponsoring a film entitled "Day of Triumph." It will be shown June 12 at the Center theatre in Bensenville. This film is in wide screen and technicolor. Cast includes Lee J. Cobb, Joanne Dru as Mary Magdalene and Robert Wilson as Christ. There will be two matinees and two evening performances.

Any girl between the ages of 14 and 18 who is interested in a senior scouting program is urged to contact Mrs. Vern Muehler or Mrs. Elsie Fick. One group of senior girl scouts in Wheaton is planning a trip to Europe so the ladies point out the many wonderful possibilities.

Mrs. Elsie Fick is organizing a troop in Itasca, and we are invited to attend meetings with Wood Dale Senior scouts under Mrs. Dorothy Merriman.

Fourth Grade Brownies

Will have court of awards with fifth grade Tuesday evening, June 5, at the Presbyterian church. Everyone is invited to see our future girl scouts.

Incidentally, flowers that were thrown out to people viewing the parade were made by some of our hard working fourth grade brownies, and we are grateful to Mr. Blaesing for providing the trailer to carry our float. This was a bridge, which as we all know in scouting, represents the big step the girls are taking, where they cross over from brownie to girl scout. It was made by Ed Meyers, and half of the float was trimmed in brownie colors of brown and white the other half was girl scout colors of green and white.

The pretty girls of our organization, throwing out the pretty carnations were: Gail Larson, Joyce Peterson, Karen Drogeumuller, Susan Sopko, Carolyn Carstens, Karen Meyers, Paula Meese.

The two convertibles were driven, by Lois Clayson and Justine Sopko. One represented Brownies in trim while the other carried the girl scout colors. Riding in them were neighborhood chairman Verne Muehler; troop organizer Catherine Toepper; troop consultant, Helen Smith; finance chairman, Shirley Clifford; neighborhood secretary, Jeanne Karkow; peanut chairman, Elsie Fick; cookie chairman, Bernice Whipple; carnival chairman, Mrs. Lunde and Mrs. Luschen.

Please get in your weekly news before Monday evening to publicity chairman, Justine A. Sopko, 130.

Itasca Ranchettes

Congratulations

Happy birthday to Tommy Jahnkow who will be two June 2, and to Howard Oehlerking whose birthday was May 27. Mr. and Mrs. Oehlerking will also celebrate their wedding anniversary this week May 31, and we wish them both many happy returns.

There was much activity on Andrene lane Monday evening; seemed as though everyone was out planting trees. They should certainly be lovely in a year or so. Hope they do even half as well as this year's crop of dandelions.

All of which goes to prove:
The Ranchettes are growing
In size and in age,
But this column is shrinking
Almost off the page.
You wanted the column;
We think writing it's fine;
If you'll just call your news in,
Tuesday evening by nine.
When is that birthday?
How'd you celebrate?
What was that Anniversary date?
Did you have a party?
I'll bet it was fun!
Share it with your neighbors -
Who came and who won?
The number's 37,
We'll be waiting to hear
Or the Ranchettes own column
Might just disappear!

Final Intermediate Day Camp Helpers Meeting June 7

The final meeting of the intermediate volunteer help for the north DuPage girl scout day camp July 9-13 will be held next Thursday, June 7, at the home of Mrs. William Merriman, 135 S. Oakwood dr., Wood Dale, from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

INTERMEDIATE director Marie Koch asks those planning to attend to bring along a coffee can lined with tin foil and containing meat, potatoes, carrots and onions. There must also be tin foil on the lid to practice trench and advanced cooking experiments.

THUMA PRICHARD, Roselle, senior director, announces there will be an additional meeting for adults planning to help this group. It is scheduled for June 26 at the lodge in Salt Creek park from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Alas Fore Yorick

A golfing clergyman had been beaten badly by a parishioner, 30 years his senior. He returned to the clubhouse rather disgruntled. "Cheer up," his opponent said. "Remember, you win at the finish. You'll probably be burying me someday." "Yes, but even then," said the preacher, "it will be your hole."

Keeneyville

Silver Wedding

Congratulations are being extended Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kammes, who will have been married 25 years June 6. A reception for friends and relatives will be held in St. Peter Damian church, Bartlett, in celebration of this silver anniversary.

Home Bureau

Local Home Bureau members are reminded that their June meeting will be held Thursday, June 21, instead of the seventh.

The Rotation club met Friday, May 25, in the home of Mrs. Lorna Johnson, Addison. Ten members were present.

Birthday greetings go to Frank Sekunda, who celebrated his 12th birthday last week.

Elgin Graduate

Carol Anne Hedrich will be graduated from Elgin high school June 8. Her parents are giving a party in her honor June 9 in the Keeneyville school for some 50 invited guests.

Birthday greetings also to Jean Sarno, who celebrated hers Monday of this week. Jean had another big day this week for Wednesday marked the thrid wedding anniversary for her and Frank. They celebrated both events Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Don Nelson enjoying dinner "out."

Miss Jackie Sering and Walter LaBorn will be graduated from Glenbard high school next week.

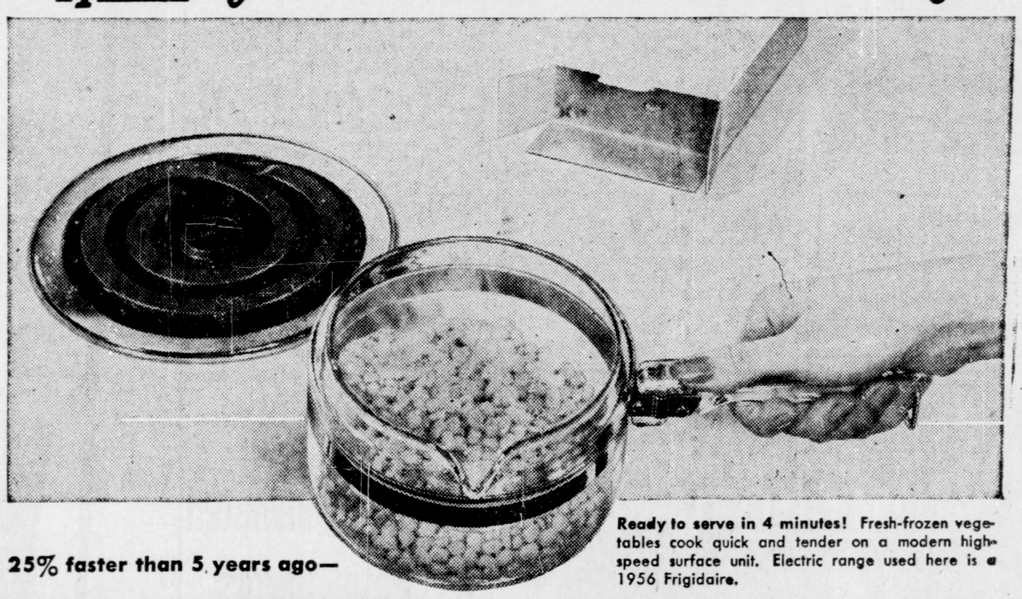
The speed of the modern ELECTRIC ranges!



25% faster than 5 years ago—

today—nothing cooks faster!

New French-door Oven is one of the "new idea" features offered by Frigidaire. Bottom shelf rolls out automatically when French doors open.

Today we're surrounded with all manner of wonders from our great electrical engineering laboratories. Color TV, Radar, High Fidelity phonographs.

Yet perhaps one of the most useful advances has taken place right in the kitchen. New designs and new ideas have made today's electric ranges 25% faster than 5 years ago.

The new instant-heat surface units, for example, give you a jet-like surge of heat as soon as you turn one on. And newly perfected oven and broiler units give you the fastest preheating and broiling you've ever experienced.

If you are considering building or buying a home, or even remodeling your kitchen, see the new electric ranges. They come in a wide variety of decorator colors. And when you cook with an electric range your kitchen will be cleaner, cooler and more comfortable.

And, you'll find more of the exciting "new-idea" features in electric ranges than in any other kind. Learn how little it costs to own a new automatic electric range from dealers near you.

Big Saving—We Pay Part of Your Range Installation Cost!

Need new wiring to install your electric range? We share the cost with qualified home owners in 1, 2 and 3-family dwellings. This can cut your expense by about half.

And you get more than a money saving!

The modern wiring that goes with your installation helps improve your TV picture, brightens lights, makes everything electrical work better. You can also install a 240-volt electric dryer, water heater or air conditioner quickly and cheaply. The Share-the-Cost Plan is available on terms of up to 2 years.

PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY

Homeowners To Discuss Taxes, Drainage, Building And Septic Systems; Call Mass Meeting

A public mass meeting sponsored by homeowners will be held in Churchville school auditorium Friday evening, June 8 at 8 p.m.

A civic planning information committee of the North Elmhurst Home Owners association, Inc., has recently been investigating the trend their area has been taking with regard to septic system, building standards, floor conditions and tax delinquent property. The area comprises the territory east of York road to Elm Lawn and Arlington Cemteries and north of Lake street to North end avenue. This information will be released at the meeting.

THE COMMITTEE feel that the facts and figures which have been uncovered are important enough to warrant the attention of every home owner and his family in the locality.

The meeting, originally scheduled for June 1, has been postponed to June 8 due to graduation at Churchville school on the original date.

THE NORTH Elmhurst Home Owners association is one of the largest groups of civic organization in any unincorporated area of DuPage county. It is said that there is need for action in the area because of floods, drainage problems and sanitation needs.

In order to inform the people of the community on the benefits and obligations of forming their own local government, Robert Palmer, city manager of Elmhurst has agreed to speak on the possibilities of taking such a step. H. Gilbert, mayor of Wood Dale will also be present and speak on the problems which faced this community and the steps they are taking to remedy them.

THE PROGRAM will also include Elmer Krage, chairman of the planning committee of the village of Addison. Together with Raymond Berg, chairman of the NEHO planning committee, they will form a panel question and answer period.

The meeting promises to be an interesting evening, as it is known that some of the residents of the area are not particularly in favor of incorporation.

IT IS PLANNED to present the attending home owners with a referendum ballot to determine whether the majority so attending wish to form their own local government.

"SLOW DOWN AND LIVE" is given added emphasis after taking a look at this highway casualty. People get banged up too in these accidents. That's why Bensenville's VFW and auxiliary are behind the drive sponsored by Sheriff Stanley Lynch. Here is Clem Spokes of the veterans organization, chairman of the vets safety committee. —Photo by Buttens

Addison Man, 3 Others Hurt In Saturday Mishap

An Addison man and three others were injured in a two-car collision at Army Trail rd. and rte. 53, east of Cloverdale, Saturday at 8:53 a.m. William Kruse, 67, 103 North ave., Addison, suffered undetermined injuries while east bound on Army Trail.

TAKEN TO DUPAGE Memorial hospital, Elmhurst, with him were Mrs. Helen Nolte, 29, who received a broken nose and contusions; daughter Linnette, seven, right leg contusion, and Mary Novak, 53, abrasions and contusions. All are of Stickney and were passengers in the northbound car of Russell Nolte, 34.

Drivers of the cars that collided at Lake st. and Mill rd., south of Itasca, Sunday at 3:53 a.m. were Clarence L. Schultz, 44, Hillside, and Harry Baron, 42, Chicago. Both were driving east on the highway and neither was injured, investigating deputies reported.

TWO CARS collided in a restaurant parking lot on North ave., west of rte. 83, at 3:11 a.m. Sunday. They were being driven by Georgia Grobe, 32, Northlake, and Arthur P Neill 29, 346 Minor st., Bensenville. He was heading north while the Grobe car was eastbound. No one was injured.

Elk Grove Manor

Mrs. Tony Wagner and daughter, Gale, were both stricken with the 24-hour flu last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Suarez, formerly of Chicago, moved into their new home on Martha st. May 23.

Art Classes Resumed

Weekly art classes in the home of Mrs. Ed Ostrowski were resumed last Wednesday. For a new project, Mary Ostrowski, Marge Moder and Ruth Suarez started an afghan, which will be a contribution to their church bazaar to be held in the fall. Rosemary Wagner will assist in this work, but she was unable to attend the first meeting on account of illness. The other ladies will continue with their painting.

Attending the mother-daughter banquet in the Itasca Bethany church Tuesday were Mrs. Ted DePalma and her 3 young daughters, Sharon, Susan and Sandra, Mrs. Harry Zender, Mrs. Fred Ollmann, Mrs. Harold Ollmann and Mrs. Keith Beiine.

House Guest

Mrs. Agnes Mogilicki, who was a guest in the Ray Johnson home the past month, recently returned to Chicago. She is Mrs. Johnson's sister.

Ray Johnson's sister, Mrs. James Minnick of Hinsdale, visited with the Johnson family over the weekend.

George Horbus went on a fishing trip with 3 other men last week. They spent several days at Eagle River, Wis.

Kenneth Nelson wore his right arm in a sling for a few days to speed recovery of an injury received while working at his job.

Mr. and Mrs. George Nelson entertained 6 for dinner last Tuesday evening. Guests were friends from Stevens Point, Wis. and Mundelein.

Elk Grove News

Elk Grove Men's association held their second meeting May 23 in the school auditorium.

Sixth, seventh and eighth grades had a barbecue at school May 29, during the afternoon. All students in these 3 grades shared the expenses, with the exception of those who had perfect attendance this year. Hamburgers, potato chips and pop were served. Entertainment of games and dancing followed. All had a wonderful time.

First and second grades of Elk Grove are taking a field trip to Brookfield zoo June 1. They will surely enjoy the trip.

Mrs. Anderson's pre-school class, which was started earlier in the spring, will have their closing exercises June 1 at 11 a.m.

Band Program

There will be a summer band program at Elk Grove school beginning the week of June 11, for those who want to begin instrumental work and for present band members who wish to advance during the vacation period. For further information contact the school or Mr. Case, the band leader.

The band concert will be held in the Elk Grove auditorium June 1 at 8 p.m.

Wishes for a happy future are extended to the eighth grade of 1955-56, who will graduate Wednesday, June 6.

School will be officially closed Friday, June 8.

All School Picnic

The all-school picnic sponsored by the Mothers club will be Sunday, June 10. It will be held in the extreme south portion of Elk Grove forest preserve.

Robert Fluger, formerly of Elk Grove, is graduating from Harvard high school. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Fluger of Harvard, Ill. and an uncle to John, Mary and David Wille.

Connie Lindsey, who takes dancing lessons with Miss Margie Schulze of Bensenville, will participate in a recital June 2 at 7:30 p.m. in the Elmhurst Junior high school. Connie does an acrobat number, "The Mexican Hat Dance" and also takes part in a ballet, "The Birth of the Blues." Tickets are on sale for the recital.

Birthdays

Noreen Dalton had a birthday May 26 and she was 11

May 27 Danny Folkman had his 10th birthday.

Also having birthdays were Chester Wojciechowski, May 29, and Arlene Nelson, May 30. Both were 9 years old.

Dale Jewel and Dennis Preuter have been out of school because OF SICKNESS.

The Mothers club card party was held May 25 and included a bridal fashion show with some of the older girls modeling the gowns. Other entertainment was planned and refreshments were served. Numerous awards were presented and in all it was a very nice evening.

Elk Grove School Will Graduate 30 Wednesday

Hugh Allen, director George Williams College Camp, Williams Bay, Wis., will address the graduation class next Wednesday of Elk Grove School Dist. No. 59. His subject will be "The Adult's Responsibility Towards Teenagers."

Principal Ernest Cavallo, superintendent of Elk Grove School will present the class to Frank Kessler, president of the board of education who will award the diplomas.

Musical numbers will be a piano selection by Charlotte Popp and two songs by the class with Roger Dierking with his saxophone.

Robert Bollman, class president will give "Eighth Grade in Review" Carolyn Miedema, class secretary will present the class gift. Lois Landmeier, as class valedictorian, will give "Youth Views the Responsibility of Teenagers in Today's World,"

Judy Wille, salutatorian will talk on "Importance of Education the Young Person."

Just Figuring

An elderly couple had been sitting in front of the evening fire a long time without speaking. At last the husband inquired, "What are you thinking about?" To which the wife replied, "I was just thinking how long we had lived together and that it couldn't go on forever like this and that the time will soon come when one of us will have to go." "Yes", assented the old man, "but it is no use to worry about that now, Mother." "No," was the calm reply, "but I was just thinking that when it does happen, I would like to go to California to live."

School Case —

Monday at 7:30 p.m.

PETERS WAS questioned concerning the late presentation of his materials by Charles Whitlock, Itasca, Addison township member on the county school board. "The petition wasn't completed until Saturday night," the attorney said. "And this is Monday," Whitlock countered.

In response to a query from Wolf, Robert Kimble, Wheaton, chairman of the school trustee board, revealed that the Bloomingdale territory would be laden with the district 87 bond issue approved Saturday regardless of any transfer once the Glenbard board files a resolution for attachment of the Bloomingdale sector levy.

"We can file anytime now," admitted Fred L. Biester, Glenbard principal. He agreed to hold off for a "reasonable time," however, until the definite status of the area is determined.

Hold Graduation At Keeneyville

Eighteen graduates received their diplomas at exercises held at 8 p.m. May 23 in Keeneyville school. Of these 5 were from the Queen Bee school: Kenneth Alsobrook, Irwin Beutler, Robert Keargard, Betty Ward and Robert Williams. Albert Schlaf, president of that school board made the presentation to this group.

From Cloverdale, 4 graduates received theirs from Ercy Hendry. They were Sylvia Anderson, Janet Landmeier, Gloria Kayser and Cheryl Olson. Sheridan Pipkin presented the Keeneyville graduates, who were Diane Alfred, Robert Ciccione, Carole Dreher, Henry DuRietz, Katherine Ehorn, Raymond Hueckstaedt, Betty Panagiotaros, Carol Ann Sekunda and William Stewart Jr.

ROY DESHONE was speaker of the evening, which was followed by the reading of the class will by Katherine Ehorn and the class prophecy by Robert Ciccione.

The graduation chorus chose the "Halls of Ivy" for their number under the direction of Miss Eunice Thompson. Invocation was by the Rev. Henry J. Hiddinga of the Keeneyville Bible church. The welcome was presented by Carol Ann Sekunda, class president.

Awards were presented to the outstanding students by Mr. Schalk of the American Legion post 1084. Those who received them were Carol Ann Sekunda, Henry DuRietz, William Stewart and Betty Panagiotaros from Keeneyville and Janet Landmeier and Cheryl Olson from Cloverdale.

Roselle School Picnic To Be Held June 5

Roselle public schools will close its doors for the summer recess at the conclusion of the annual spring picnic June 5 at Lord's park in Elgin. Doors of school houses will reopen September 6 for the annual fall registration.

During the summer months the board of education of school district no. 12 plans several improvements to the grounds and property.

Thomas H. Mayhew, principal of the local school, has announced that the additional teachers necessary for the increased enrollment expected for September have already been employed.

Graduate 12 From St. Walter's, Roselle

Twelve students were graduated from St. Walter's grade school, Roselle, last Sunday. The baccalaureate address was given by the V. Rev. Msgr. Joseph A. Wagner, pastor of the Church of St. Walter.

American Legion awards were conferred on James R. Burnett, Helen C. Adams, Gerald King, and Marsha Schoemaker. Music was furnished by the 7th grade choir, under the direction of Sr. Mary Ellen. Sister Mary Hilarion is principal of the school.

The graduates were: Helen Adams, Donna Bach, James Burnett, Wayne Deering, Mary L. Emmert, Joyce A. Ertel, Arthur H. Gschwind, Dennis S. Hanson, Gerald W. King, Marie P. Otto, Marsha A. Schoemaker, and Norbert P. Zyk.

Rezoning Hearing

A public hearing will be held by the Bloomingdale zoning board of appeals Friday, June 8, at 8 p.m. at the village hall to consider the following requests: Walter and Clara Petersohn respectfully request that their property now zoned for residential, but listed as nonconforming business, be re-zoned to permit the operation of a store for retail selling. They own lots 20 and 27 in block 3 of the plat of the town of Bloomingdale, of the north east quarter of section 15, township 40 North, Range 10, east of the third principal Meridian, in DuPage county, Ill. And George Mousser and Patrick Travers wish to establish a dry cleaning store on the north side of Lake st.; about 1 block west of Bloomingdale rd. stop light. The property presently known as Parcel 1 of the Morse Assessment Plat, to beknown June 1, 1956 as the George Mousser's property — consisting of 197 ft. frontage and 346.5 ft. deep, more or less, which includes 4 houses, one 3 car garage 32x21, more or less. It is requested that the south 200 ft. of the said property be rezoned from residential to business.

News Of Medinah

Flower Girls

Sunday at the graduation exercises at St. Walter school, Mary Ann Shallcross acted as flower girl for Marsha Shoemaker, Donna Leesley for Helen Adams, and Phyllis Kukula for Marie Otto. The little girls were dressed in white as were the graduates, and carried bouquets of sweet peas. Highest quality merit awards were also given to students of each grade. Phyllis Kukula received the award for second grade.

Talks On Gardening

The Lutheran women of Medinah met for their second meeting May 23 at the home of Mrs. L. C. Stumpf, Medinah road. Mrs. Ray Schroeder gave a talk, "The Spiritual Green Thumb." Mrs. Albert Edecker spoke on practical flower gardening, and afterwards answered members questions on the subject. Refreshments were served by hostesses Mrs. Hollub, Mrs. Schroeder and Mrs. Zebrowski.

Graduates Dine

A graduation banquet for eighth graders and their parents was held last Thursday at Bethany church. Menu included chicken ala king, parsleyed new potatoes, relishes, rolls, beverage and desert. Rev. Heinrich gave the invocation, and Gloria Goszko thanked the followiing seventh grade mothers for making the banquet possible: Mrs. Ann Walker, Mrs. Kermit Meyer, Mrs. Dale Olson, Mrs. Margaret Felcan, Mrs. Robert Furry and Mrs. Virginia Zahorsky, who was in charge of the food. Those who helped serve were seventh grade pupils Marion Zahorsky, Sharon Gargano, Myleen Walker, Sharon Meyers, Donna Furry, Donald Felcan, Dale Olson and also those who assisted were Sandra Walker, Nancy Adolph and Barbara Wolf. Thanks should also be given seventh grade pupils for helping Sylvia Furry in the making of programs, decorations and place settings. The banquet ended with a closing prayer by Paul Volle.

Change Pickup Day

Effective June 1, the disposal pick-up day in this area will be changed to every Wednesday, instead of Thursday.

After June 6, code numbers for Elgin and Itasca calls will be reversed. To call Elgin, dail 0 (operator), and to call Itasca, dial "98" and give the number wanted to the operator who answers.

Weekend Guests

Milwaukee visitors at the Rybacki household for the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Mickey Vallen, and children, Teri and Bob, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dusick, who helped celebrate Mrs. Roman Rybacki's birthday Sunday.

Sunday dinner guests at the Robert Hermann home were relatives Mr. and Mrs. William Gass of Western Springs.

Help Celebrate

Peter Hanson, Margaret and Paul Shallcorss, Keith Rasmussen, Douglas Weir, and Kurt Tellschow helped David Hanson celebrate his sixth birthday Monday. Lunch was served upon arrival, after which games, refreshments and fun were enjoyed by all.

Activities

Friday, June 1 — graduation prom of Glenbard students at Medinah Country club. Sunday, June 3 —valedictory of Glenbard graduates. Monday, June 4 — Medinah pupils graduation exercises at Roselle Methodist church. Tuesday, June 5 — Graduation exercises at Glenbard high.

Rosedale Chaper OES is having a card social at the Masoni hall in Bloomingdale Saturday, June 2. The public is invited to attend. Tickets can be obtained from Sylvia Furry.

Civic Group To Meet

Medinah Civic organization will meet tonight at Medinah grade school at 8 p.m. Committee reports will be given, and interesting discussions, which concern all in the community, will take place.

Medinah hills home owners association will hold their next meeting Friday, June 8, at 8 p.m., Medinah grade school. The association cordially invites Spring Valley residents to attend.

Thanks to those who phone in their news . . . see you next week!

The father played possum while his youngsters tried their best to rouse him from a Sunday afternoon nap to take them for a promised walk. Finally, his five-year-old daughter pried open one of his eyelids, peered carefully, then reported: "He's still in there."

Graduation Week In Two Schools Of Schaumburg

Thirteen boys and girls of Schaumburg Community school district received their elementary school diplomas Tuesday evening.

Following the processional played by Edward Elgar, and pledge to the flag given by Spencer Troxell, Rev. F. A. Hertwig gave the invocation.

Robert A. Flum, principal, welcomed the patrons of the school district. Bill Bowsher, president, gave the greeting from the class of 1956 and Sheila Alsip, the class history. Penny Palumbo gave the class prophecy and Peggy Hamlin the class will.

Miss Lucy Driscoll, assistant superintendent of schools, delivered the address. Alfred Schalk of Post 1284, American Legion, presented awards to Arnold Michaels and Peggy Hamelin. Alternates were William Bowsher and Peggy Palumbo.

Diplomas were presented by Albert Straub, president board of education school district 54. The graduates were Sheila Alsip, Mary Jane Becker, William Bowsher, Susan Garbrecht, Margaret Hamelin, Carol Kagel, Sharon Mahometa, Arnold Michaels, Penny Palumbo, Peggy Siedenburg, Spencer Troxell, Dan Walsberg and John Dytko.

ST. PETER Evangelical Lutheran school will graduate 4 girls and one boy Thursday evening.

Musical numbers include a clarinet solo by Ruth Koenig and songs by groups of the school children.

Rev. K. H. Rozak of Plato Center will deliver the address. Diplomas will be awarded by Harvey Pohlman, president of the school board.

The graduates are: Werner Hattendorf, Ruth Koenig, Juanite Marth, Virginia Nebel and Mary Ann Wille.

About Your Health

The voice is the most important characteristic in communicating with others, yet some persons are inclined to take the production of sounds for granted, only to wonder what happened when they are unable to speak. On the other hand, understanding the voice inspires a special care of the larynx, according to the educational committee of the Illinois state medical society.

The larynx, commonly called the voice box, is situated in the middle portion of the neck, below the tongue. When it is prominent, as is quite common in men, the larynx is referred to as the Adams Apple. The framework of the larynx consists of cartilages, which we feel on pressing the neck, muscles and ligaments. Within the framework are two vocal cords, which are band-like structures, these vocal cords open and close and account for sounds of various pitches.

AS AIR is expelled from the lungs, it passes between the vocal cords and makes them vibrate, and this rapidity is controlled by the length of the vocal cords, and their tension. This explains why the male voice is lower than the feminine voice. The male larynx is larger and the vocal cords are longer.

While the origin of the sound is in the larynx, its character and the words are produced by the coordination of other parts of the body. As a column of air strikes the vocal cords, vibrations are set up, but the resonance comes from the action within the chest, the throat, the mouth, nose and the nasal sinuses. The lips, palate, teeth and tongue interrupt the sounds, making them become syllables or words. The entire action is coordinated by nerve impulses sent down from the brain.

MANY CONDITIONS can affect the larynx, ranging from an overuse of the voice through constant speaking, fatigue, infections, sensitivity to certain fumes or inhalants, to cancer of the larynx. In all, hoarseness is the important single sympton. It may vary from a blurring of the voice to a hoarseness so severe that the patient can hardly be understood and may even be unable to talk. Some conditions that affect the larynx are present at birth, many develop in infancy and childhood, and many occur as we grow older. But hoarseness is the important sympton and accounts for the term being used interchangeably.

Police Department Has 6 Suggestions For Vacationers

Palatine police department has 6 suggestions for vacationers. Here they are:

1. Cancel all deliveries (milk, mail, papers, etc. and have your phone disconnected.

The presence of papers and milk bottles is an invitation to robbers.

2. Be sure all doors and windows are closed and locked.

Youngsters like to explore homes.

3. Make arrangements to have your lawn mowed and sidewalk swept at least once a week.

A well kept appearance will protect your home from vandalism.

4. Do not advertise your departure.

5. Leave your blinds in their normal position.

6. Be sure and notify the police of your plans by either stopping at your police station, 56 S. Brockway st., or by calling Palatine 2.

Police officers will keep a watchful eye on your home while you are gone.

Recognition of these suggestions will enable you to enjoy your vacation knowing that you have taken every precaution that your home is protected.

Q. If a man is walking with a woman and she is carrying her coat on her arm, should he offer to carry it for her?

A. This is not expected.

Baby Talk

Here are 2 very recent residents to add to the fast growing community. Congratulations go to Diane and Al Woodhouse on the birth of their daughter, Nancy Louise, who was born Wednesday, May 23, in Resurrection hospital. She weighed 6 pounds and 5½ ounces. They have another daughter, Judy, who will soon be 4.

It was a boy for Ruth and Bill Yokas, and he has been named James Peter. Jimmy was born May 20 in Ravenswood hospital, and he weighed 9½ pounds. The Yokas have 5 other children, Gail, Billy, twins Danny and Donny, and Peggy, and are counting on lots of help with the new baby.

Graduation Days

John Dyko, 13, son of May and John Dyko, graduated from the Schaumburg school Tuesday evening and will enter Palatine high school in the fall. May 23 he attended a graduation party given by the PTA mothers, and enjoyed a barbecue to which the seventh grade was invited.

Juanita Styczkowski, 13, daughter of Juanita and Hank Styczykowski, graduated from St. Peter Lutheran school, Schaumburg, Thursday evening. Juanita also plans to enter Palatine high school. The graduation exercises were held in St. Peter Lutheran church.

Block Representatives Meet

A meeting of the block representatives of the Hoffman Estates Home Owners association was held to discuss the policy decided upon by Rudy Gaston of F and S Construction Co. and the Home Owners association. Those in attendance were Nita Mullendorf, Fred Hill, Tom Beaulieu, Don Oppenheimer, Anthony Zajic, Ray Lawson, Walt Kuziak, Matt Einecker, Dan Mulcahy, Les Kittler and Harry Martin. The group met at Don Oppenheimers.

There was a demonstration party at Carol Cinderella's last Wednesday, at which Harriet Cunningham of Elgin demonstrated the various toiletries presented by her company. Enjoying themselves were Kathy Oppenheimer, Jean Au Buchon, Elinor Irvin, Ann Jungwirth, Dorothy Hill, Eileen Oeschger, Clara Garvos, Virginia Martin.

Around the Estates

Friends and neighbors will be glad to know that Steven Lawson, 1½, is making a speedy recovery. Steven, son of Dee and Ray Lawson, was in Wesley Memorial hospital last Tuesday for surgery. He is reported doing very nicely.

A happy birthday this week to Jeanne Hoth, daughter of Bert and Bob Hoth, who was 3 years old May 31.

Visitors of Connie and Jack Gallo last Sunday were Jack's sister, Tonylee Gallo, and her boyfriend, Rich Breseman, both of Lombard.

Time marches on, and the new kittens at Jane and Dick Fiske's are now 6 weeks old. One has already been promised.

Off to Pittsburgh for a visit are Elinor and Dan Irvin and their girls, Barb and Kathy. Dan will be there for a few days, and Elinor and the girls will be at home for several weeks.

Guests of Jean and Ray Augo. Buchon last Sunday were Jean's mother, Mrs. M. L. Manley, and friends from Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Foley.

Spending the day with Jane and Jack Doyle Sunday were Jane's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Trinka of Chicago.

Eleanore and Ted Crook and their daughters, Sandy and Pat, spent Friday night and Saturday in Chicago with Mrs. Mary E. Crook.

Weekend guests of the McNultys were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gutterschon and daughter, Jean, of Detroit, and Louis A. Dietz.

It was a busy weekend at Carol and Nick Cinderellas with house guests, Mr. and Mrs. J. Curtis of Champaign, and a bowling banquet Saturday night at Stella's catering in Chicago.

Ann Jungwirth was hostess Sunday at a baby shower given for Dorothy Mikrut. Helping to surprise Dorothy were Kathy Oppenheimer, Clara Garvos, Eileen Oeschger, Carol Cinderella, Dorothy Hill, Jo Krall and Mrs. Mikrut Sr. The guest of honor received some lovely gifts and everyone enjoyed a buffet supper.

A Final Fling

A middle-aged playboy suddenly dropped dead one night in a small nightclub on New York's East side. He had been living it up. The coroner called to the scene examined the formally-attired body, then questioned members of his party. He was told name, age, address, etc. Then he asked the religion of the deceased. "He was an atheist," someone supplied. The doctor looked down again at the white tie and tails. "What a pity," he drawled. "All dressed up and no place to

5 Records Fall As Palatine Wins 9th Straight N W Title

by G. A. McElroy

PALATINE'S STRING of 9 straight track championships is a record for any sport in the history of the Northwest conference. Along with it Palatine has 6 straight championships in frosh-soph track, the number of seasons a league has been held at that level. Since the conference was reorganized in 1938 Palatine has taken 12 track titles, Bensenville 3, Antioch 2 and Barrington 1.

Jim McCreery

Next year will be the last for Palatine in the present conference affiliation and there seems little doubt the Pirates will again finish on top in both divisions of track, for the number of good returning boys who scored tells only part of the story.

Palatine had a number of boys who could not compete in events where they would have scored due to the fact that only two could be used in an event. The Pirates have enough 440 men to have won all the places in that event. They could have taken 3 places in most of the events where they took only 2. Palatine depth is their real strength. A total of 93 boys came out for track this year and over 80 were still out and competing at the end of the season. Palatine had more boys practicing on the shot and discus alone than many of the schools had on their entire squad.

BACK IN 1948 the Palatine Lions club established an athletic award to the outstanding senior in Palatine high in memory of Lt. Francis Reuse, Lt. Jack Thompson, Lt. John O'Brien, and Lt. Wilbert Gieseke, who lettered at PTHS, and gave their lives for their country in World War II. The award is based on qualities of scholarship, athletic achievement, sportsmanship, training, dependability, leadership, cooperation, and competitive spirit. Former awards were made in 1948—Richard Pepper, 1949—No award, 1950—Paul Loeber and Don Klein, 1951—Herbert Oesterlee, 1952—Gerry Hermann, 1953—Paul Schrage, 1954—Norman Stenzel, and 1955—Alan Eck.

This year the award is made to James McCreery, the smallest boy ever to win it and one of those receiving the highest rating. McCreery lost only two wrestling matches last season competing in the 127 and 120 pound classes.

He took fourth in the state tournament after winning the sectional championship and was captain of the team which placed fourth in the state. McCreery was a tough line backer in football on defense and has been a regular on the varsity baseball team at second base. For leadership and competitive spirit Palatine has not had his equal in many many years. Every coach rated him as the top senior for the Lions award.

PALATINE'S BASEBALL TEAM as of last weekend had a 6-5' conference record with 1 victory in the remaining 3 games needed to clinch third place. This good record is largely due to the strong right arm of Bob Hamilton. On top of pitching all of Palatine's victories behind a weak hitting team Hamilton has been the only .300 hitter on the squad.

In fact Coach Bailey has only 4 boys on his squad who have an average over .200. This is evidence of what percent of the effectiveness of a high school baseball team depends on good pitching. Some experts say that pitching in high school ball with satisfactory catching rates 75% in making for a winning team.

WITH THE BREAKING of the 4 minute barrier in the mile run a great accomplishment has come about in distance running in track. Right here in Illinois high school track has come this past week a mark in the mile which for prep school athletes is every bit as significant as the running of the mile under 4 minutes by men who have trained through and beyond college competition.

Jim Bowers of DeKalb High ran a 4:16.1 mile in the North Central Illinois conference track meet Friday night at Sterling.

This feat set a new national high school record just a few hours after Ron Gregory of Sumner High in St. Louis had been clocked in a record breaking time of 4:19.2. The former record is 4:19.5 set last year by Tom Shuto of White Plains, New York. Bowers is only 5-7 in height and weighs 150 pounds. He won the state mile as a sophomore and as a senior. He won the mile at the Palatine Relays all 4 years in high school with his best 4:25 last season. Bowers is a distance runner you will hear about in college competition and who should be just about at his peak as a mature athlete at the time of the 1960 Olympic games.

IT WOULD SEEM from the athletes mentioned in this column that small men really have a place in sport, particularly wrestling and track. We have another to mention who is little 5-7 inch Jimmy Caldwell, pitcher deluxe for the Warren team which tied for the North Suburban baseball championship. Caldwell won 8 and lost 3, but allowed no earned runs in any of the defeats.

His phenomenal hurling record for the season was 74 innings pitched, allowed 8 earned runs for 0.76 per game, allowed 32 hits, walked 18, and set a league record with 127 strikeouts.

Warren, Libertyville, and Barrington tied for the North Suburban with 8-4 records. Bob Fuget of Warren led the league in hitting with .410 with Brandt and Walbaum of Barrington right behind with .383 and .375.

Pirates Tally 84; Fenton Second With 42 Total

by G. A. McELROY

Twenty boys scored for Palatine as the Pirates equaled last year's total of 84½ points to run away with the Northwest Conference track championship at Glenbrook last Wednesday night. It was Palatine's ninth straight league track title and Welty's team doubled the score on second place Fenton who scored 42 points. Five records were set and another tied with winning marks the best in the history of the meet in spite of temperatures in the forties.

Palatine placed two men in every individual event except the high jump and won both first and second in the 440, shot, and pole vault. The Pirates took six firsts, six seconds, and four thirds in the 14 event program. Four of the new records were set by Palatine. Jim Eldridge, sophomore 440 man, ran a :52 flat with team mate Jim Hess a tenth of a second behind as both smashed the former mark of :52.5 set last year by Palatine's Alan Eck.

ONE OF THE finest records was the 2:02.5 set in the 880 by big Carl Bondeson of Palatine to eclipse the 2:05 made by Good of Antioch in 1945. Leonard Rohde who won the Palatine Relays shot event again bettered 50' to set a new league record. The mark of 49' 1" set by Carl Nuss of Palatine in 1954 was erased by Rohde's put of 50' ¼". The Palatine medley relay team knocked nine seconds off the league mark with a new standard of 3:48.5 with Jim Eldridge and Carl Bondeson, record breakers in the 440 and 880 repeating the distances in the relay. Allen Danforth and Every Larson ran the 220 sections of the relay for the Pirates. This was the first year that the league has allowed a man to run at the same distance in the medley as in an individual event.

Jerry Cole of Grant erased a Palatine held record of 4:45.5 in the mile made by Herb Oesterlee in 1951. Cole ran a record mile of 4:45 flat with LeDain of Grayslake right behind and also bettering the old record. Fenton's 880 relay team tied the league record of 1:36.5 set last year by Glenbrook with Dick D'Hooge, Dick Driggett, Jay Stoner, and Bob Gullborg running the 220 legs of the relay event.

OTHER FIRST places made by Palatine in addition to the new record events were the high hurdles in :16.1 by George Sailor who also took second in the lows and Roy Burns in the pole vault at 10'. Leading scorers for Palatine were George Sailor 9; Jim Hess, Leonard Rohde, and Bill Thompson 8; Jack Thome 7; Carl Bondeson and Jim Eldridge 6¾, Duane Gordon 6, Roy Burns 5¾, Dave Wagner 4¾, Roy Hahnfeldt and Steve Cornwell 3, Lester Wiese 1½, Allen Danforth 1¼, Evert Larson 1¼, Dan Kusek 1, Bruce Anderson 1, and John Etchingham and Paul Wagner ¾ of a point.

Fenton came up strong with 42 points for second. The Bisons were third last year and prior to that time had been near the bottom of the heap for several years. In addition to the record tying 880 yard relay team Fenton got three other first places. Bob Gullborg won the 220 in :23.4 and was second in the 100. Dick Driggett won the broad jump with a good leap of 19' 8½" and Dick D'Hooge matched Gullborg's 9 points in individual events by winning the low hurdles in :21.9 and taking second in the highs. D'Hooge and Gullborg shared high scoring honors for the meet with 10¼ points as both also ran on the record tying relay team. Other scoring by the Fenton Bisons was a second in the 880 by Bill Ripperger, a fifth in the low hurdles by Jay Stoner and a fourth in the broad jump and a tie for third in the high jump by Tom Philaben. Fenton also took second in the mile medley relay.

OTHER FIRST places not won by Pirates or Bisons were the discus taken by Bob Pintozzi of Wauconda at 136' 1", the high jump in which Schuchardt at Ela and Ridgeway of Wauconda tied at 5' 7", the record breaking mile by Cole of Grant, and a :10.5 in the 100 yard dash by Gary Windells of Glenbrook. Glenbrook had only one first and one second in the meet.

Wauconda took fourth with 19¼ points. Bob Pintozzi won the discus and took third in the 100 yard dash; Ridgeway, a soph, tied for first in the high jump and won third in the high hurdles, Bob Weinberg got third ir the 440 and Huff tied for fourth in the pole vault.

THE PITCHING STAFF is always No. 1 with any baseball team, and the Arlington Heights high school Cardinals were no exception this spring when these 7 boys were available for mound duty. Coach Howard Lester used 6 of the 7, with some of the boys playing other positions when they weren't on the mound. Entire group had an earned run average of 2.19, giving up 50 hits and 35 earned runs in 112 innings. The twirlers fanned 151 men, walked 78 and won 10 of 17 games. Team finished in third place in West Suburban league.

Four righthanders included Denny Thill, who pitched just 1 inning, giving up 1 walk; Alan Smeby, twirler with best ERA (0.76) in 27 2/3 innings, allowing 16 hits, walking 16 and striking out 45; Pat Brownell, on the mound just 1 1/3 innings; and Bob Getts, who worked 14 1/3 innings, allowing 12 hits, walking 10, fanning 11, and permitting 6 earned runs for an ERA of 2.93.

Three lefties included Bob Miller with the best 3-1 record and an ERA of 1.12 in 31 1/3 innings, striking out 34, walking 13 and permitting 14 hits in the process; John Sujack, named to all-league, worked 36 1/3 innings, struck out 60, walked 39, permitted 17 hits for an ERA of 2.89; and Jerry Klement, who didn't see any action this year but will be back next season, along with Thill, Brownell, and Miller.

Fenton Blasts Ela In Final, 9-1

by BILL RIPPERGER

Friday, the Fenton baseball squad leveled their guns at the Ela-Vernon Bears, and blasted out a 9-1 victory on their home diamond. Floyd Busse, the winning pitcher for the Bisons, gave up no earned runs and struck out 9. To date, Busse has been the winning pitcher in all games Fenton has won.

Floyd downed the first 3 Ela batters he faced, then the Bisons took over. Tom Clark and Mont Forke walked. Terry Biefeld drove them in with a long triple. Bob Lang walked. Then Bob Heinrich's single allowed both Biefeld and Lang to score.

AGAIN, IN THE second inning, Busse disposed of the Bears 1-2-3, and Fenton continued their scoring. Tom Clark, on base as a result of an Ela error, scored when Mont Forke tripled. Forke came home on an infield out.

The Bisons tallied a run in the third on a double and a single. In the sixth they used an error, 2 walks and a single to score 2 more runs.

BUSSE FACED only 3 Ela batsmen per inning, the absolute minimum, until the seventh inning. Then, the only Fenton error of the day put an Ela man on base. Two singles brought him home.

Busse, in winning 6 games, has given up 19 earned runs in 56 innings. He has struck out 84 men and walked 27. Terry Biefeld is currently the leading slugger for Fenton. Terry is sporting a .275 average with 15 RBI's and 3 home runs.

Batteries: Fenton— Busse, Heinrich. Ela—Brame, Jesse.

Grant Trounces Fenton 9, 6-0

by BILL RIPPERGER

Grant Bulldogs trounced Fenton's diamond men 6-0, Thursday, in a game re-scheduled because of a previous rainout. Tom Bossow took on pitching chores for the Fox Lake group and held Bison batters to only 1 hit.

The first 2 Grant runs scored in the third inning. Doubles by Bossow and Kennel produced these tallies.

FOUR MORE Bulldogs crossed the plate in the fourth. Bossow helped his cause with a sacrifice fly, while Grenell doubled, and 2 others hit singles.

After holding Fenton scoreless and hitless for 6 full innings, Bossow spoiled his own no-hit game, Dave Helms, the leadoff man in the seventh frame, tapped a high bouncing grounder to the left of the mound. The Grant shortstop moved into position to play the ball, but in an effort to field it himself, Bossow deflected the ball between short and third, giving the Bisons their only hit.

DURING HIS 7 inning stint, Bossow struck out 10, walked 6 and gave up 1 hit. Fenton hurlers, Jerry Bowe and Gene Palicke fanned 10 and walked only 3, but gave up 7 hits.

Batteries: Fenton — Bowe, Palicke; Reinrich. Grant — Bossow; Grenell.

Grayslake Dumps Glenbrook To Tie For NW Baseball Lead

Grayslake won the crucial game at Glenbrook Friday to go into a tie with the Glenbrook Spartans for the Northwest baseball lead. It was Glenbrook's second loss of the week, having dropped a 6-1 decision to Palatine Tuesday. Going into the final week of the season Grayslake and Glenbrook each have 9-3 records.

Lind started on the mound for Glenbrook but met the same fate as at Palatine. Bob Boyd relieved in the third but Lind was the loser. Denny Hunziker, Grayslake catcher, hit a home with 1 on in the top of the sixth for what proved to be the winning margin. In the bottom of the sixth Jerry Sadek of Glenbook slammed out a homer with 1 on for 1 of the 2 hits collected by the Spartans off Gale Peregrin. Five Grayslake errors contributed to Glenbrook's scoring of 4 runs on 2 hits. Peregrin fanned 9 and walked 3 and got 2 hits to aid his own cause including a double.

Wednesday Peregrin hurled Grayslake to a 5-3 victory over Antioch.

THURSDAY BILL LUTZ pitched a no hit game for Glenbrook as they whipped Ela-Vernon 6-1. It was the sixth win of the year for Lutz who has allowed the opposition no more than 3 hits in any of his starts.

Friday Forke got a single and a double and Bob Heinrich 2 singles to support Busse's 3 hit hurling as Fenton beat Ela-Vernon 9-1. Fenton scored 3 runs in the first inning before a man was retired and sent starting pitcher Brame to the showers. Brame had earlier beaten the Bisons at Bensenville. Thursday Fenton was the victim of a super 1 hit hurling performance by Tom Bossow of Grant as they dropped a 6-0 decision to the Bulldogs.

Wauconda beat Grant Friday 9-5 as Gene Jaskot and Bob Friend each hit home runs with 2 men on base. Wauconda knocked Mack out in the first inning and hit Hodge and Kramer hard for a game total of 15 hits.

PALATINE strengthened their grip on third place Friday by turning back Antioch 7-4. Bob Hamilton limited Antioch to 4 hits but 1 of them was a first inning bases loaded home run by Walsh following a single by Sid Parker, a walk to Jerry Meyer, and Wisner's error on Ron Christensen's ground ball to short. Thereafter Antioch got ony 3 men on base.

Palatine scored 3 in the first on 4 straight hits as Bob Coates doubled, George Beyer tripled, and Bob Hamilton and Dick Wisner got singles. In the second Palatine went in front 5-4 as Paul Incaprero tripled, Beyer drew a pass, and Bob Hamilton chased them home with a single. The Pirates scored twice in the fourth as Coates led off with his second double, Hamilton hit a triple and Wisner a single.

Bob Hamilton had a perfect day at bat with 4 for 4 including a triple and batted in 4 runs while Coates and Wisner each had 2 safe hits.

Palatine To Open Little League Sat.

First ball of the 1956 Palatine Little League season will be tossed by Mayor Howard Olsen Saturday evening, June 2, at 7:30, officially opening another year of baseball for the youth (and parent coaches) of the town.

One team from each side of town will be chosen to play this first game. Guests of the Little League will be mayor Howard Olsen, the park board, and Palatine fire department. There are about 300 Little Leaguers this year and around 120 boys in the Babe Ruth league.

The first half of the Little League season on the north side of town, will play Monday and Tuesday. The south side of town will play Tuesday and Friday. Eight-year-olds will play Wednesday nights. (Sp

Redwings Win

Arlington Redwings blanked Chicago Vets Sunday, 5-0, with Whitey Ebeling of Roselle hitting a 3-run homer. It was Dick Bokelman's second shutout of the infant season.

All Redwing home games start at 3 p.m. at Recreation park, just north of the water tower, Arlington Heights.

The Pony League of Arlington Heights is starting its season Thursday at the southeast diamond at the high school. It will be the Indians against the Redlegs starting at 6:30 p.m.

Arlington Lands 4 On All League Baseball

Ron Ashley, Dan Vittum, John Sujack and Bob Getts.

That's Arlington's part of the all-conference baseball lineup in West Suburban league as selected Monday afternoon by conference coaches. Picking a 12-man team, Heights landed 4 boys on the mythical squad, including 2 outfielders, 1 infielder and 1 moundsman.

Maine landed 3 boys on the team, Downers and York 2 apiece, and LaGrange 1. In addition, a second team of 10 boys was selected, including Alan Smeby of Arlington on the mound. Four additional boys were given honorable mention.

DAN VITTUM, who has been named next year's captain by the Heights 9, played the outfield for the Cardinals, committing nary an error. Dan doubled behind the plate when needed, is a good clutch hitter. He had a triple and a double among his 17 safeties and .333 average in league games.

Ron Ashley, also playing errorless ball in the outfield for Coach Howard Lester, batted cleanup, has a terrific throwing arm. Ron batted .341 in league games, including 3 homers, 2 triples and a double.

John Sujack, 1 of the top 3 hurlers with the Cardinals, had a 4-3 league record with a league ERA of 1.98. He also had a season-long .267 batting average, not a bad mark, was named all-league and all-state in football.

BOB GETTS was Arlington's leading hitter with a .343 league, .390 overall mark. He hit 2 triples and a double in league games, batting in 7 runs.

Bill Zersen won his third baseball letter at York, hitting .265, is very good on defense. Bill covered a lot of ground and threw out several base runners. He led York in RBI, is a senior.

Bill Liedholm, .285 hitter on first for Maine, never struck out this year. Many rated Bill the best glove man in the league.

Daryl Siedentop, who tied Liedholm in voting at first base, batted .375 for Downers, led his team in RBI. Daryl is a dependable infielder, left handed, of course.

BOB HOFFMAN, gaining his third baseball letter for York, hit .271 and made only 2 errors. Bob is a good hitter with men on base, is 1 of the best base runners in York history.

John Perrill led Maine in RBI, homers, hits and has been most valuable player for the Demons. John is a 3 letter winner in baseball.

Lee Fick of Maine, named behind the plate, has been a .365 hitter, considerably better than last year when he hit .250. Lee has a good arm, is a good long ball hitter.

TOM PRUCHA of Downers had an outstanding 9-3 record on the mound, struck out 140, issued just 15 bases on balls for an earned run average of 0.65. In 3 years of high school twirling Tom won 26, lost 6, expects to attend Illinois in the fall.

Lee Meyer of LaGrange is 1 of the more versatile boys named to the squad, played first base and caught when he wasn't twirling. Lee had a 6-2 record, seldom walked anyone, has a good fast ball and curve.

11 West Suburban Stars Named On Thinclad Group

Jim Bowers of DeKalb, John Lattimore of Phillips and Mike Smith of Freeport head the list of outstanding track stars named to Paddock Publications all-state prep track team, the climax to the prep honor roll. that have been appearing all season long.

All 3 boys set or equlaed new state marks, with Bowers setting a new national figure of 4:16.1 in the mile. His mark of 4:20.7 in the state meet will be on state record books. Smith ran 1 of the greatest half miles in prep annuals with his 1:56.1. Lattimore turned in a record equalling performance in the 440, then came back to win the 220 with an excellent time.

IN SELECTION of a state prep track team 1 factor must be taken into consideration, consistency of performances. A few boys may set creditable records once or twice, but not have the consistent good record to warrant mention in this list.

Three Arlington trackmen made the team. Dennis Striegel was consistently above 53' in the shot put, led the state with a 54-10¼ mark. Bill Palmer hit 6-2 on several occasions in high jump, was defending state co-champ. Dave Schimmel had a good record in the hurdles.

WEST SUBURBAN league provided several boys, including Lane Patterson of Glenbard in 220, Dick Pond of Glenbard in 880, Dave Hohl of Hinsdale in mile, Hubert Hommer of Maine in low hurdles, Sar Gervase of LaGrange in broad jump, Bob Ornberg of Maine in shot put, and Jon Cada of York and Lee Ekstrom of Maine in pole vault. Here's the complete lineup:

100 Yard Dash

Robert Schindel, East Aurora. A consistent :10 and :10.1 dash man all season. Led the Honor Roll with a :09.7.

Darrell Duncan, Gillespie. The outstanding sprinter and broad jumper in south central Illinois. Best time of the season :09.9 and :09.8.

Joe Darnell, Danville. The Danville sprinter was a consistent :10.1 dash man. He won most of the major sprint titles in central Illinois.

Leroy Jackson, Bloom. This sophomore was the state 100 yard dash champion and was one of the main men in Bloom's state champion squad.

Don Miller, Cairo. Turned in times of :10.1 and :10.2 all season long. The best in southern Illinois.

220 Yard Dash

John Lattimore, Phillips (Chicago), State 220 and 440 yard champion. One of the state's outstanding dash men of all time. Times of :21.4 and :21.8.

Lane Patterson, Glenbard. The west suburban area's oustanding furlong man. Patterson was on the honor roll all season long with outstanding times of :21.4 and :21.9.

Robert Rechord, Blue Island. Rechord a point getter of Blue Island's state championship time of 1955 continued this year to turn in excellent performances.

Richard Streckler, Mt. Carmel Represented southern Illinois throughout the season with times of :22.0 and :21.9.

Hubert Fisher, Evanston. The Suburban league's outstanding 220 yard dashman. Placed in the state meet.
